HOWARD M. METZENBAUM UNITED STATES COURTHOUSE

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill (S. 833) to designate the Federal building courthouse at Public Square and Superior Avenue in Cleveland, OH, as the "Howard M. Metzenbaum United States Courthouse."

Mr. LAUTENBERG. Mr. President, I am very pleased that today the Senate will recognize the contributions of my dear friend and former colleague, Howard Metzenbaum, by approving this bill designating the Federal Building Courthouse in Cleveland, OH as the "Howard M. Metzenbaum United States Courthouse." Ohio's two Senators, Senator GLENN and Senator DEWINE, were original cosponsors of this legislation, along with Senator HATCH, when I introduced on June 5, 1997.

Mr. President, I proposed naming a courthouse after Howard because a courthouse is a symbol of justice where all people can come and be treated equally under the law. Howard Metzenbaum deserves this honor because he was a dedicated public servant, who served his home State of Ohio for 18 years in the U.S. Senate. Howard's sense of fairness and equality for all Americans led one of his former colleagues to suggest that Howard would have made an exceptional U.S. Supreme Court Justice when he retired from the Senate in 1994.

Mr. President, naming a courthouse after Howard is only a small gesture in attempting to remember a man so committed to justice and fairness. Howard's contributions to the Senate are extraordinary, and we commemorate his unique contribution by passing this bill in celebration of his 80th year, his 18 years in the U.S. Senate, and also the special character he brought to our body.

I pay tribute today to a man who always stood up for what he believed was right, fighting hard to preserve opportunity for those for those yet to come. As a Senator, Howard had a broad range of interests and he pursued them with dogged perseverance, sincerity and clarity.

Howard and I worked on many issues together during our time in the Senate. Individual rights and environmental preservation were major concerns. He poured his energy into clean air protection, nuclear regulation, cleaning up superfund sites and recycling. Howard provided strong leadership on antitrust issues as chairman of the Subcommittee on Antitrust, Monopolies and Business Rights on the Judiciary Committee.

He was a persistent gun control advocate, taking the lead on many antigun initiatives in the Senate. He was one of the lead sponsors of the Brady bill handgun purchase waiting period, as well as the bans on assault weapons and plastic explosives.

But Howard's true passions lay with America's underprivileged and needy communities, which never had a bolder champion. His work on behalf of the poor, the disabled, and the elderly reflect his remarkable compassion for those members of society who face challenges that many of us cannot fully appreciate. He tirelessly defended their interests and fought for their protection. He was dedicated to eradicating discrimination, ensuring adequate health care to those in need and boosting public education. It has been said many times, but for good reason, that Howard brought not only his conscience to the Senate, but also the courage to act on his convictions.

Howard remains a good friend to me, but was also a mentor and a teacher during his years in the Senate. He gave me good advice and plenty of it. And, I might add, he continues to do so today, which I welcome! But more than that, his dedication to the office of United States Senator is an example by which to live. He stood tall for the little people.

Some will affectionately remember Howard as determined, argumentative, and even irascible. I cannot deny that those words come to my mind every now and then when describing Howard. He was always at his best then, and for good reason. I heard it said by one Senator, and not a good friend: "If there wasn't a Metzenbaum here, we'd have to invent one to keep us alert."

I have missed working with Howard Metzenbaum in this great institution, a place that has been truly enhanced by his presence. I salute him on celebrating his 80th year.

The bill (S. 833) was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed; as follows:

ROBERT J. DOLE U.S. COURTHOUSE

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill (S. 1000) to designate the U.S. courthouse at 500 State Avenue in Kansas City, KS, as the "Robert J. Dole U.S. Courthouse."

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I am pleased the Senate has acted expeditiously on S. 1000, the legislation that Senator BROWNBACK and I introduced several weeks ago to designate the Kansas City, KS, Federal Courthouse after our Kansas colleague Senator Bob Dole. I appreciate the efforts of Senators CHAFEE and BAUCUS and the other members of the Environment and Public Works Committee in their effort to approve the bill for its consideration by the Senate before the August recess.

After the bill was introduced, Kansans contacted my office about Senator Dole and their recollections of his work, which he continues to do in behalf of Kansas. I thought it would be fitting to share an example with my colleagues. Mrs. Rose Coughlin of Kansas City, KS, shared with me her story about Senator Dole calling her just several weeks ago. Mrs. Coughlin, who suffers from polio, wrote to Senator Dole in mid-June just to pass along her deep appreciation and admiration of his perseverance during his legislative career on behalf of Kansas despite his permanent injuries sustained during World War II.

Much to her surprise, Senator Dole called her upon receiving the letter and talked with her at some length, inquiring about her condition. At the close of her letter to me she says, "Needless to say he made my day." Her letter is indicative of Senator Dole's commitment and caring for Kansans.

Mr. President, S. 1000 has been endorsed by Carol Marinovich, mayor of Kansas City, KS, the location of the soon-to-be Robert J. Dole U.S. Courthouse.

I look forward to joining Senator Dole along with proud Kansans in the near future for the dedication ceremonies.

The bill (S. 1000) was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed; as follows:

REGARDING MEXICO'S IMPOSITION OF ANTIDUMPING DUTIES ON UNITED STATES HIGH-FRUCTOSE CORN SYRUP

Mr. HELMS. Now, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution 43 submitted earlier today by Senators GRASSLEY, LUGAR, and HARKIN.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 43) urging the United States Trade Representative immediately to take all appropriate action with regard to Mexico's imposition of antidumping duties on United States high fructose corn syrup.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the immediate consideration of the concurrent resolution?

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the concurrent resolution.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, today I am offering this resolution with my distinguished colleagues, the chairman and ranking member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, Senators LUGAR and HARKIN. The resolution addresses an antidumping investigation being conducted by the Government of Mexico, on the import of high-fructose syrup [HFCS] from the United States.

Mr. President, I have often come to the Senate floor to discuss the importance of international trade to our agricultural economy. American farmers have become more reliant on global markets for their income. The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 31 percent of farmers' income will be derived from foreign markets by the end of the decade.

Because American farmers are the most efficient in the world we should not be frightened by this trend. But we must be more vigilant than ever when it comes to eliminating foreign trade barriers.

Both the North American Free Trade Agreement [NAFTA] and the Uruguay Round Agreement of GATT were successful for American farmers. They served to reduce or eliminate barriers to trade in agriculture products to a greater extent than any prior trade agreement. The implementation and enforcement of these agreements will be crucial to American farmers.

That is why the recent actions of the Mexican Government are so disturbing. The Mexican Government has imposed unreasonably high, preliminary tariffs on imports of HFCS from the United States. These tariffs are far in excess of what was negotiated under NAFTA. The justification for these tariffs is the antidumping action filed by the Mexican sugar industry.

I and my colleagues are very concerned with the propriety of this action. There have been questions raised as to whether the action meets the standards set forth in the World Trade Organization Agreement on Antidumping. I will submit for the Record a letter from the Deputy U.S. Trade Representative, Ambassador Jeff Lang, that outlines these serious concerns.

The resolution we introduced today is very simple. It says that if the antidumping action has not been conducted in accordance with WTO requirements, it should be terminated immediately. And all tariffs that have been imposed as a result of the action should be removed immediately.

If the Mexican Government refuses to do this, the United States Trade Representative is directed to request consultations with the Mexican Government, under the dispute settlement provisions of the WTO. This action will trigger a resolution of this dispute according to WTO procedures.

Finally, if the Mexican Government fails to accept our request for consultations, Congress directs the USTR to take any and all applicable actions under United States trade law.

Mr. President, I am a firm believer in free and open trade. It is never productive to engage in a trade war with one of our largest and most loyal trading partners. And that is certainly not the intent of this resolution.

However in order to have fair trade, we must insist that our trading partners live up to the obligations set forth in our trade agreements. This is vital to facilitating the free trade that will raise the standard of living for workers and consumers worldwide.

I urge my colleagues to support this resolution.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the letter I referred to be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT,
Washington, DC, June 4, 1997.

Alvaro Baillet,
Jefe De La Unidad, Secretaria de Comercio y Fomento Industrial, Av. Insurgentes Sur 1940 PISO II, Col. Florida, C.P. 01030 Mexico, D.F.

DEAR MR. BAILLET: The United States has recently been contacted by American producers of High Fructose Corn Syrup (HFCS) regarding the initiation of an antidumping investigation concerning their exports of HFCS to Mexico. Our producers are concerned that the applicable like product in the investigation is HFCS, that the investigation was initiated without the support of the Mexican producers of that like product, and that certain information about the Mexican producers of HFCS known to the Mexican authorities was not considered in the initiation notice.

We have reviewed information that indicates that HFCS was produced in Mexico during the 1996 period of investigation. We further understand that this information was available to SECOFI and the Mexican sugar chamber that submitted the application for this antidumping investigation prior to SECOFI's initiation of the investigation. The domestic producers of the like product on whose behalf the antidumping application was filed consequently would normally have included any such Mexican producers of HFCS. SECOFI's initiation notice, however, does not reference these producers. It merely states, without support, that HFCS is not produced in Mexico.

An investigation into allegations of dumping can be extremely time consuming, expensive and have commercial consequences even before a preliminary or definitive measure is in place. For this reason, and because the Antidumping Agreement is explicit about the need for the authorities to examine the accuracy and adequacy of the evidence provided in the application, including that pertinent to the industry support needed for initiation, we would appreciate your attention to this matter in time to minimize any unnecessary impediment to U.S. exports of HFCS.

Sincerely Yours,

JEFFREY LANG,
Deputy United States Trade Representative.

Mr. LUGAR. Mr. President, in my home State of Indiana, corn refining adds substantially to the value of our corn crop. On average, Indiana produces 800 million bushels of corn annually. It is estimated that corn refining—primarily through the production of high-fructose corn syrup—adds about $200 million to the value of Indiana's corn crop. In addition to enhancing the value of our corn crop, corn refining results in the direct employment of approximately 1,700 Hoosiers with an estimated payroll of over $70 million.

It is for the above reasons that I join Senators GRASSLEY, HARKIN, DASCHLE,
