

“(i) may, at the election of the employer, participate in an authorized compensation plan under the Longshore and Harbor Workers’ Compensation Act (33 U.S.C. 901 et seq.); and

“(ii) if the employer makes an election under clause (i), notwithstanding section 2(3)(G) of the Longshore and Harbor Workers’ Compensation Act (33 U.S.C. 902(3)(G)), shall be subject to that Act.

“(B) If an employer makes an election, in accordance with subparagraph (A), to participate in an authorized compensation plan under the Longshore and Harbor Workers’ Compensation Act—

“(i) a master or crew member employed by that employer shall be considered to be an employee for the purposes of that Act; and

“(ii) the liability of that employer under that Act to the master or crew member, or to any person otherwise entitled to recover damages from the employer based on the injury, disability, or death of the master or crew member, shall be exclusive and in lieu of all other liability.”.

(b) MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS.—All vessels, whether documented in the United States or not, operating in the coastwise trade of the United States shall be subject to minimum international labor standards for seafarers under international agreements in force for the United States, as determined by the Secretary of Transportation on the advice of the Secretaries of Labor and Defense.

SEC. 9. REGULATIONS REGARDING VESSELS.

(a) APPLICABLE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the minimum requirements for vessels engaging in the transportation of cargo or merchandise in the United States coastwise trade shall be the recognized international standards in force for the United States (as determined by the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating, in consultation with any other official of the Federal Government that the Secretary determines to be appropriate).

(b) CONSISTENCY IN APPLICATION OF STANDARDS.—In any case in which any minimum requirement for vessels referred to in paragraph (1) is inconsistent with a minimum that is applicable to vessels that are documented in a foreign country and that are admitted to engage in the transportation of cargo and merchandise in the United States coastwise trade, the standard applicable to United States documented vessels shall be deemed to be the standard applicable to vessels that are documented in a foreign country.

(c) MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR VESSELS.—As used in this subsection, the term “minimum requirements for vessels” means, with respect to vessels (including United States documented vessels and foreign documented vessels), all safety, manning, inspection, construction, and equipment requirements applicable to those vessels in United States coastwise passenger trade, to the extent that those requirements are consistent with applicable international law and treaties to which the United States is a signatory.

SEC. 10. ENVIRONMENT.

All vessels, whether documented under the laws of the United States or not, regularly engaging in the United States coastwise trade shall comply with all applicable State and Federal environmental statutes.

SEC. 11. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.

Each person or entity that is not a citizen of the United States, as defined in section 2101(3a) of title 46, United States Code, that owns or operates vessels that regularly engage in the United States domestic coastwise trade shall—

(1) establish a corporation or other corporate entity and qualify under the laws of that State where the corporation or corporate entity is established to do business in the United States;

(2) name an officer of the corporation or corporate entity upon whom process may be served;

(3) abide by all applicable laws of the United States and the State where the corporation or corporate entity is established; and

(4) post evidence of—

(A) financial responsibility in amounts as considered necessary by the Secretary of Transportation for the business activities of the corporation or corporate entity; and

(B) compliance with all applicable United States laws.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 47—RELATIVE TO EXPO 2000

Mr. LUGAR (for himself and Mr. ROCKEFELLER) submitted the following concurrent resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

S. CON. RES. 47

Whereas Germany has invited nations, international and nongovernmental organizations, and individuals from around the world to participate in EXPO 2000, a global town hall meeting to be hosted in the year 2000, in Hannover, Germany, for the purpose of providing a forum for worldwide dialogue on the challenges, goals, and solutions for the sustainable development of mankind in the 21st century;

Whereas the theme of EXPO 2000 is "Humankind-Nature-Technology";

Whereas EXPO 2000 will take place in the heart of the newly unified, free, and democratic Europe;

Whereas Germany has established a stable democracy and a pluralistic society in the heart of Europe;

Whereas more than 40,000,000 people in the United States can trace their ancestry to Germany, and in 1983 the United States and Germany celebrated the Tri-Centennial of immigration of Germans into the United States;

Whereas Germany has been a close political and military ally of the United States for nearly five decades and has been a driving force with respect to the political, monetary, and economic integration of Europe;

Whereas the United States, as a leading political, intellectual, and economic power, maintains a strong interest in the worldwide strengthening of political freedom and human rights, open market economies, and technological advancement throughout the world; and

Whereas the United States is eager to share with the global community the vast and promising public and private efforts being made to prepare for the next century: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring). That it is the sense of Congress that the United States Government—

(1) should fully participate in EXPO 2000, a global town hall meeting to be hosted in the year 2000, in Hannover, Germany, for the purpose of providing a forum for worldwide dialogue on the challenges, goals, and solutions for the sustainable development of mankind in the 21st century; and

(2) should encourage the academic community and the private sector in the United States to support this worthwhile undertaking.

Mr. LUGAR. Mr. President, I rise today to submit a concurrent resolution on behalf of myself and Senator ROCKEFELLER.

This concurrent resolution expresses the sense of the Congress that the United States Government should fully participate in EXPO 2000 in the year 2000, in Hannover, Germany. It further states that the United States should encourage the academic community and the private sector in the United
