

days to introduce himself and explain the events which took place in Brcko, Bijelina, and Banja Luka. Such time will be unedited and not commented on in advance or after airing by TV commentators.

Fourth, Republika Srpska will participate in a full and consistent manner in a Media Support Advisory Group conducted by the Office of the High Representative to discuss and regulate the work of the media in accordance with the spirit and the letter of the General Framework Agreement for Peace, the formal name of the Dayton accord.

I ask that a copy of the Memorandum of Agreement that contains these conditions be printed in the RECORD at the conclusion of my remarks.

If fulfilled, these commitments should reduce the threat to United States, allied forces, and the personnel of the various international organizations in Bosnia. They will also ensure that the views of Karadjic's opponents will be heard, which is very important, particularly in the run-up to the municipal elections.

Mr. President, I am skeptical that Karadjic and his henchmen will live up to the terms of this agreement. It is most important to note, however, that Pale has for the first time formally acknowledged its media obligations and cannot complain if NATO uses force if it doesn't meet them. The ball is in Pale's court and I, for one, will strongly support decisive action by NATO, such as the use of Commando Solo, if Pale continues to misuse the media.

STATEMENT BY THE NORTH ATLANTIC COUNCIL,
30 AUGUST 1997

The North Atlantic Council met today to continue its consideration of the developing situation in the Republic Srpska. It reaffirmed yesterday's statement by the Secretary General condemning recent violence and confirming that SFOR will continue to carry out its mission firmly but fairly and will not tolerate the use of force or intimidation.

Council responded positively to a request by the High Representative to authorize SFOR to provide the necessary support to suspend or curtail any media network or programme in Bosnia and Herzegovina whose output is in persistent and blatant contradiction of either the spirit or the letter of the Peace Agreement, in accordance with the Sintra Declaration.

In addition, Council reaffirmed that SFOR will not hesitate to take the necessary measures including the use of force against media inciting attacks on SFOR or other international organizations.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT FOR RELEASE OF
UDRIGOVO TOWER (CQ334489)

As per coordination between Ambassador Klein and Mr. Krajisnik, the turn over of the tower will occur with agreement of the following points:

1. RS media, TV, radio, print media, refrain from making inflammatory reporting against SFOR and international organizations supporting the execution of the Dayton Accord.

2. RS TV will regularly provide one hour of programming during prime time each day without exception, during which other political views will be aired.

3. RS TV will provide Ambassador Westendorp ½ hour during prime time in the next few days to introduce himself and explain the events which took place in Breko, Bijelina and Banja Luka. Such time will be unedited and not commented on in advance or after airing by RS TV commentators.

4. RS agrees to participate in a full and consistent manner in a Media Support Advisory Group conducted by OHR to discuss and regulate the work of the media in accordance with the spirit and the letter of the GFAP.

The signing of this document by the signatures below will release SFOR from the Udrigovo tower as soon as they can safely depart the morning of 2 September. The crowds at the tower will depart tonight, and 10 RS police and technicians may remain.

SUBMITTING CHANGES TO THE BUDGET RESOLUTION ALLOCA- TION TO THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE

● Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, to comply with the provisions of Public Law 105-33, the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, that amend the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, I hereby submit a revised allocation for the Appropriations Committee pursuant to section 302(a) of the Budget Act.

This revised allocation includes all previous adjustments made to section 201 of House Concurrent Resolution 84, the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998, and to the Appropriations Committee budget authority and outlay allocations pursuant to section 302 of the Budget Act.

This revised allocation also includes an adjustment to the Appropriations Committee budget authority and outlay allocations pursuant to section 205 of House Concurrent Resolution 84 regarding priority federal land acquisitions and exchanges.

The revised allocation follows:

	Budget authority	Outlays
Defense discretionary	269,000,000,000	266,823,000,000
Nondefense discretionary	255,909,000,000	283,122,000,000
Violent crime reduction fund	5,500,000,000	3,592,000,000
Mandatory	277,312,000,000	278,725,000,000
Total allocation	807,721,000,000	832,262,000,000●

SENATE QUARTERLY MAIL COSTS

● Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, in accordance with section 318 of Public Law 103-283, I am submitting the frank mail allocations made to each Senator from the appropriation for official mail expenses and a summary tabulation of Senate mass mail costs for the second quarter of fiscal year 1997 to be printed in the RECORD. The third quarter of fiscal year 1997 covers the period of April 1, 1997, through June 30, 1997. The official mail allocations are available for frank mail costs, as stipulated in Public Law 104-197, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1997.

CONFERRING STATUS AS AN HONORARY VETERAN OF THE U.S. ARMED FORCES ON LESLIE TOWNES (BOB) HOPE

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of Calendar No. 153, H.J. Res. 75.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A joint resolution (H.J. Res. 75) to confer status as an honorary veteran of the United States Armed Forces on Leslie Townes (Bob) Hope.

The Senate proceeded to consider the joint resolution.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, it is my privilege today to ask that the Senate approve legislation to confer the status of honorary veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces to Leslie Townes (Bob) Hope. This resolution, House Joint Resolution 75, which was unanimously approved by the Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs on June 12, 1997, is identical to a companion resolution, Senate Joint Resolution 36, which I, as chairman of the Committee on Veterans Affairs, was honored to introduce on July 28, 1997. I am pleased to say that the ranking member of the committee, Senator JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER IV, and 47 other Members of the Senate joined me as cosponsors of this resolution when I introduced it.

Mr. President, the Members of this body, and the American people as a whole, are acutely aware of the contributions Bob Hope has made to the Nation. His service to country—and, most particularly, to its soldiers, sailor, marines, and airmen over a period exceeding 50 years—are legion. If any person in this country merits such an unprecedented honor—and Mr. President, it is my understanding that no person has ever before been conferred the status of honorary veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces—surely, it is Bob Hope.

As I have stated, Bob Hope's contributions to this Nation are well known to all of our citizens. Less well known is the fact that Bob Hope is a naturalized American, having emigrated from his native England when he was just a boy. I am the son of a naturalized American—an immigrant who walked across Europe with barely a ruble in his pocket so that he could make his way to this country. So I know first hand that person of humble origins can scale the heights of this country. Few, though, have scaled the heights that Bob Hope has scaled.

When I say Bob Hope has scaled the heights, I am not referring to his success as an actor, a comedian, or businessman—though his success in all three areas has been considerable. When I say Bob Hope as scaled heights, I am thinking of his place in the hearts of his adopted countrymen.

Who in this country is more beloved by a broader spectrum of his fellow citizens than Bob Hope—people of all ages, races, religions, and beliefs? Perhaps none more than Bob Hope. For the past 50 years, this country's fighting men and women could count on Bob Hope to lift their spirits and moral when they faced the prospect of making the ultimate sacrifice. In World War II, in Korea, in Vietnam and, most recently, in the Persian Gulf, Bob Hope and his troupe were there to remind our fighting men and women that they were not forgotten, that their suffering was appreciated. Bob Hope was always with the troops—especially during the holidays—enduring hardship, and often significant physical danger, so that he might encourage those facing greater hardship and danger. Three generations of veterans will never forget how much he cared.

Those three generations of veterans wonder how they might properly recognize Bob Hope. He is already a recipient of the Nation's highest civilian decorations, the Congressional Gold Medal and the Presidential Medal of Freedom. President Carter hosted a White House reception in honor of his 75th Birthday. President Clinton bestowed upon him the Medal of the Arts. He has received more than 50 honorary doctorates, and innumerable awards from civic, social, and veterans organizations. But Bob Hope cannot say that he is a veteran—in my mind, one of the most honorable appellations one can carry. This legislation will remedy that.

I ask that all of my colleagues join me in approving legislation designating Bob Hope an honorary veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces. And I thank the former Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps and the current president of the USO, Gen. Carl Mundy, for spearheading this effort.

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the joint resolution be considered read a third time and passed, the preamble be agreed to, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the resolution appear at this point in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The joint resolution (H.J. Res. 75) was considered read the third time and passed.

The preamble was agreed to.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY,
SEPTEMBER 10, 1997

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today it stand in adjournment until the hour of 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, September 10. I further ask that on Wednesday, immediately following the prayer, the routine requests through the morning hour be granted and the Senate immediately resume consideration of the second-degree amendment of the Senator from Alabama, Senator SESSIONS, No. 1125, to the amendment of Senator DURBIN, No. 1078, to S. 1061, the Labor-HHS appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. SESSIONS. In accordance with the previous order, I announce that tomorrow the Senate will immediately resume consideration of Senator SESSIONS' second-degree amendment, No. 1125, to Senator DURBIN's amendment No. 1078 to S. 1061, the Labor-HHS appropriations bill.

As Members are aware, the Senate has been able to dispose of all but a few amendments remaining in order to the bill this evening. Time agreements were able to be reached on a couple of the pending amendments.

With that in mind, all Members' cooperation will be appreciated in scheduling time agreements and floor actions on the remaining amendments. Therefore, Members can anticipate rollcall votes throughout the Wednesday session of the Senate, as we attempt to complete action on this important legislation.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:20 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, September 10, 1997, at 9:30 a.m.
