SEC. 5. SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT ACCESS FOR WOMEN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(1) women-owned small businesses are a powerful force in the economy;
 (2) between 1987 and 1996—

(A) the number of women-owned small businesses in the United States increased by 78 percent, almost twice the rate of increase of all businesses in the United States;

(B) the number of women-owned small businesses increased in every State;

(C) total sales by women-owned small businesses in the United States increased by 236 percent;

(D) employment provided by women-owned small businesses in the United States increased by 183 percent; and

(E) the rates of growth for women-owned small businesses in the United States for the fastest growing industries were—

(i) 171 percent in construction;

(ii) 157 percent in wholesale trade;

(iii) 140 percent in transportation and communications;

(iv) 130 percent in agriculture; and

(v) 112 percent in manufacturing;

(3) approximately 8,000,000 women-owned small businesses in the United States provide jobs for 15,500,000 individuals and generate almost $1,400,000,000,000 in sales each year;

(4) the participation of women-owned small businesses in the United States in the procurement market of the Federal Government is limited;

(5) the Federal Government is the largest purchaser of goods and services in the United States, spending more than $200,000,000,000 each year;

(6) the majority of Federal Government purchases are for items that cost $25,000 or less; and

(7) the rate of Federal procurement for women-owned small businesses is 2.2 percent.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that, not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General of the United States should—

(1) conduct an audit of the Federal procurement system regarding Federal contracting involving women-owned small businesses for the 3 preceding fiscal years;

(2) solicit from Federal employees involved in the Federal procurement system any suggestions regarding how to increase the number of Federal contracts awarded to women-owned small businesses; and

(3) submit to Congress a report on the results of that audit, which report shall include—

(A) an analysis of any identified trends in Federal contracting with respect to women-owned small businesses;

(B) any recommended means to increase the number of Federal contracts awarded to women-owned small businesses that the Comptroller General considers to be appropriate, after taking into consideration any suggestions received pursuant to a solicitation described in paragraph (2), including any such means that incorporate the concepts of teaming or partnering; and

(C) a discussion of any barriers to the receipt of Federal contracts by women-owned small businesses and other small businesses that are created by legal or regulatory procurement requirements or practices.

SEC. 6. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall take effect on October 1, 1999.

The Senate bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

CORRECTING ENROLLMENT OF H.R. 1180, TICKET TO WORK AND WORK INCENTIVES IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 1999

Mr. ROGERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker’s table the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 236) to correct the enrollment of the bill H.R. 1180, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the concurrent resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Kentucky?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the concurrent resolution, as follows:

H. CON. RES. 236

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That, in the enrollment of the bill (H.R. 1180), to amend the Social Security Act to expand the availability of health care coverage for working individuals with disabilities, to establish a Ticket to Work and Self-Sufficiency Program in the Social Security Administration to provide such individuals with meaningful opportunities to work, and for other purposes, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall make the following correction: Strike section 408 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

“CLIMATE DATABASE MODERNIZATION

“SEC. 408. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration shall initiate a new competitive contract procurement for its multi-year program for key entry of valuable climate records, archive services, and database development in accordance with existing federal procurement laws and regulations.”

The concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

SANDRA DAY O’CONNOR UNITED STATES COURTHOUSE

Mr. COOKSEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker’s table the Senate bill (S. 1595) to designate the United States courthouse at 401 West Washington Street in Phoenix, Arizona, as the “Sandra Day O’Connor United States Courthouse”, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Louisiana?

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I shall not object, but I will ask the gentleman from Louisiana for an explanation of the bill.

Mr. COOKSEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. OBERSTAR. I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana.

Mr. COOKSEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me.

Mr. Speaker, S. 1595 designates the United States courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona, as the Sandra Day O’Connor United States Courthouse. This legislation was introduced by Senator KYL and passed the Senate on October 8.

Sandra Day O’Connor grew up on a ranch founded by her grandfather in southeastern Arizona. The ranch house was a simple four bedroom adobe that did not have running water or electricity until she was 7. Justice O’Connor stayed with her grandmother and attended school in El Paso, Texas, until she graduated at the age of 16. She then entered Stanford University and in 1950 earned a degree in economics, graduating magna cum laude. Upon graduation, she entered Stanford Law School and graduated third in her class in 1952.

Justice O’Connor accepted a position as deputy county attorney in San Mateo, California. On her experience in San Mateo, Justice O’Connor was quoted as saying the job “influenced the balance of my life because it demonstrated how much I did enjoy public service.” She then spent 3 years in Frankfurt, Germany, as a civilian lawyer for the Quartermaster Corps while her husband was serving in the United States Army Judge Advocate General Corps.

In 1957, Sandra Day O’Connor and her husband returned to the United States and settled in Maricopa County, Arizona. While maintaining a partnership in her law firm and raising her three children, O'Connor wrote questions for the Arizona bar exam, helped start the State's lawyer referral service, sat on the zoning commission, served on the County Board of Adjustments and Appeals, served on the Governor's Committee on Marriage and Family, worked as an administrative assistant on the Arizona State Hospital, was an adviser to the Salvation Army, and volunteered in schools for African American and Hispanic children.

In 1965, Justice O'Connor became an assistant State attorney general and continued her volunteer work. In 1969, she was appointed to fill a vacated seat in the State senate. She won reelection in two successive terms and served as majority leader in 1972. In 1974, O'Connor was elected to a State judgeship on the Maricopa County Superior Court before being appointed to the Arizona Court of Appeals.

In 1981, while serving in the Court of Appeals, Ronald Reagan fulfilled his campaign pledge of nominating a female justice to sit on the Supreme Court and nominated Sandra Day O'Connor. Justice O'Connor was confirmed 99 to 0 by the Senate as the Supreme Court's first female justice.

Justice O'Connor has had a major impact on the court and has distinguished herself as a justice, a public servant, volunteer and mother. This naming is a fitting honor to a person who has dedicated her life in so many ways to public service. I support the bill and urge my colleagues to support it as well.

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, further reserving the right to object, I yield to the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. SHADEGG).

Mr. SHADEGG. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding, and I simply want to add a few remarks for the record.

I want to thank the chairman of the committee, the ranking member of the committee, and all those involved in this effort. S. 1595 is a fitting tribute to Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, a native of Arizona and a woman who has distinguished herself.

As my colleagues know, we have constructed a new United States courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona, and many of us active on this issue have been most anxious to designate this courthouse and to name it after Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. As my colleague, the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. COOKSEY), has just recited, her career has been a distinguished one.

For a moment I would like to brag about the fact that Arizona has many women leaders. Five of the top elected officials in Arizona today are women, including our governor, our secretary of State, our attorney general, our superintendent of public instruction, and our State treasurer. But before they were elected as distinguished women leaders of Arizona, Justice O'Connor was a distinguished member of the Arizona bar, and my colleague, the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. COOKSEY), has read off a litany of her accomplishments.

I simply want to say that as a young man growing up in Phoenix and taking the Arizona bar and some of the questions that Justice O'Connor wrote, she went on to distinguish herself and to set an example which I believe all people should follow, and to distinguish herself in the legal field. I am thrilled that Ronald Reagan appointed her to the United States Supreme Court as the first woman Justice on that court, I am thrilled that she continues to do Arizona well and to demonstrate the leadership of the women of Arizona and the women of this Nation, and I simply wanted to express my sincere appreciation and thanks to both the chairman and the ranking member of the committee for allowing this legislation to proceed through this evening.

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, further reserving the right to object, I join with delight in supporting this legislation to honor the first woman to serve on the Supreme Court, Justice O'Connor, who has indeed distinguished herself. I have had the delight and privilege of meeting and visiting with her on several occasions.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill, which designates the courthouse at 401 West Washington Street in Phoenix, Arizona, as the Sandra Day O'Connor United States Courthouse.

Justice O'Connor is the first woman to serve on the Supreme Court. She was nominated by President Reagan and was confirmed by a unanimous vote of the U.S. Senate in September of 1981. Ever since, she has served as a distinguished jurist on our Nation's highest court.

In addition to her outstanding legal career and dedication to judicial excellence, Justice O'Connor also devotes many hours as a volunteer for various charitable organizations, and she has a long history of participation in numerous civic and legal organizations.

Justice O'Connor has spent her career serving the public trust. She began her public career in legislative positions, including serving in the Arizona State Senate from 1969 until 1975, during which time she served as majority leader and a member of the Arizona Advisory Council on Intergovernmental Relations. Earlier in her career, from 1952 to 1953, Justice O'Connor served the public in California as the Deputy County Attorney in San Mateo County, and as Assistant Attorney General in Arizona from 1965 until 1969.

Her civic activities are numerous and reflect her broad interests and public services. She is a member of the National Board of the Smithsonian; she is President of the Board of Trustees of the Heard Museum; and she serves on the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army. Justice O'Connor has been Vice President of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and a member of the Board of Trustees of her alma mater, Stanford. She has worked with the Arizona Academy, Arizona Junior Achievement, and Phoenix Historical Society.

Justice O'Connor has been active in the training and education committees for the judicial conference, and holds memberships in the America Bar Association and several state associations.

Amid all these accomplishments, Justice O'Connor has also been a devoted wife and mother. She and her husband, John, have been married almost 50 years and have three sons.

Her life has been filled with challenge, hard work, and promise. It is with great pleasure that I support S. 1595 in honor of Justice O'Connor, and urge my colleagues to join me.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to further add to the comments of the gentleman from Arizona who listed a number of women who serve in public office. The State of Arizona is very privileged to have my cousin, Rose Oberstar, serve as its governor.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Louisiana?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate bill, as follows:

S. 1595

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. DESIGNATION OF SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR UNITED STATES COURTHOUSE.

The United States courthouse at 401 West Washington Street in Phoenix, Arizona, shall be known and designated as the "Sandra Day O'Connor United States Courthouse".

SEC. 2. REFERENCES.

Any reference in a law, map, regulation, document, paper, or other record of the United States to the United States courthouse referred to in section 1 shall be deemed to be a reference to the "Sandra Day O'Connor United States Courthouse".

The Senate bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ROBERT C. WEAVER FEDERAL BUILDING

Mr. COOKSEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the Senate bill (S. 67) to designate the headquarters building of the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Washington, District of Columbia, as the "Robert C. Weaver Federal Building", and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Louisiana?

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I shall not object, but take this reservation for the purpose of an explanation of the bill.

Mr. COOKSEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. OBERSTAR. I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana.

Mr. COOKSEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me.
