

language in the supplemental bill is just another example of what happens when we allow big money to talk louder than kids' lives on Capitol Hill.

CHINESE INFLUENCE FOR SALE TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER

(Mr. HAYWORTH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I listened with great interest to the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. MEEHAN), and I think there are goals that all Members of this House share in terms of public health policy. But when the gentleman from Massachusetts starts talking about campaign finance, the gentleman from Massachusetts and many on that side of the aisle would do well to heed the testimony yesterday of one Johnny Chung and would do well to connect the dots because of the relationship of the People's Republic of China to the Clinton-Gore campaign in 1996.

Mr. Speaker, there may be those who smile wistfully, but I do not believe our national security is something to be toyed with and to fiddle around with while this Nation is in danger of burning.

The fact is we should stand up, remain vigilant, have the Cox committee report released and get to the bottom of Chinese influence for sale to the highest bidder, sadly, it seems at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue.

GUN SAFETY

(Mrs. JONES of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. JONES of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise as a wife, mother, former judge and former prosecutor to urge the Speaker to bring to the floor the debate on the issue of gun safety and gun control before Father's Day.

As women, mothers and grandmothers, our goal is to prevent any more gun-related deaths. I joined with other members of the Women's Caucus to send a letter to the Speaker prior to Mother's Day seeking him to set the debate prior to Father's Day.

Our children are killing one another with guns at an ever-increasing rate. From 1993 to 1997, the death rate by guns increased 182 percent for children. To stop the death of our children, we urge the Speaker to bring this issue to the floor for debate prior to Father's Day.

VIOLENCE BEGETS VIOLENCE

(Mr. STEARNS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, after the terrible tragedy in Littleton, Colorado, there has been much soul-searching and hand-wringing in America's public circles and in the media about violence and our youth. It has led to the President holding a conference Monday at the White House to discuss these topics. But are we truly surprised as a Nation about the atmosphere of violence that surrounds our children when our children are taught by our society that it is all right to kill the innocent unborn?

A Nation that allows the lives of babies to be taken for convenience will breed a disrespect for all life in our children. But where is the discussion about the effects of abortion on our society? I did not hear from the White House yesterday, and I have not heard it from one talk show that discussed this matter.

If we ignore the violence of abortion as a society, who really has the trouble of discerning fantasy from reality, our children or the adults in this Nation?

TAXPAYERS ARE STILL TAXED OFF

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, we have taxes on income, death, gifts, investment, fuel and energy, capital gains. We have excise taxes, surtaxes, retroactive taxes, old taxes, new taxes. Unbelievable. Is it any wonder the American people are taxed off?

I say today, tax this. It is time to abolish the IRS, abolish income taxes and pass the National Retail Sales Tax Plan. It is time to reward work and savings for a change. Think about that.

I yield back what freedom and liberty we have left as taxpayers.

TAX FREEDOM DAY 1980-1999

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, in line with what the previous speaker had to say, the chart here is labeled "Tax Freedom Day 1980-1999." But maybe a better title for this chart would be "President Clinton's Road to the 21st Century."

He was elected in 1992. In 1993, Tax Freedom Day was April 30. Tax Freedom Day is the day when the average taxpayer has finished off paying what he owes to Uncle Sam and begins to work for himself.

In 1994, Tax Freedom Day was May 2. In 1995, it was May 3. In 1996, it was May 5. In 1997, it was May 7. Last year, it was May 10. This year, yesterday, May 11 was the day when taxpayers began working for themselves.

This is the road to the 21st century under a Democrat administration. Ronald Reagan was able to push back Tax Freedom Day from May 4 to April 27. But since then we have lost ground.

It is considered progress to the tax and spenders in this body; but for middle-class taxpayers, it just means less freedom and more power in Washington.

GUN SAFETY

(Ms. CARSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, Mother's Day just passed, a day for celebration for some and, unfortunately, a day of mourning for too many women who no longer have a child to call them mother.

In Indianapolis, a young mother named Michelle Miller mourned her young son who was killed while playing with a loaded firearm.

In Littleton, Colorado, 12 mothers mourned their children, killed by two teens who found access to deadly firepower all too easy.

We have a number of good proposals pending before this 106th Congress on gun safety. I have a common-sense bill, H.R. 515, that has already been joined with 49 cosponsors, that will require child safety devices on handguns and establish standards for those devices.

We can move now to enact common-sense gun regulations that does not violate anybody's constitutional rights to bear arms but does protect the lives of a lot of innocents.

Mr. Speaker, let us celebrate Father's Day in a more profound way, by passing gun safety legislation.

NATIONAL SECURITY EMERGENCY CREATED BY CUTTING DEFENSE BUDGET

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, the Clinton administration has created a national security emergency by cutting the defense budget while spreading our troops all around the world.

Between 1960 and 1991, the Army conducted 10 operational events. In the past 8 years, the Army has conducted an astonishing 26 operational events. Strangely enough, this increased activity has occurred during a period in which our military has been shrunk by 40 percent.

This misguided policy is playing itself out in Yugoslavia. Already the President has had to call up thousands of reserves and divert planes from the strategically important Iraqi No-Fly Zone to carry out strikes on Milosovic's regime.

Mr. Speaker, it is time for Congress to replenish our national defense which has been substantially weakened by the Clinton administration. The Republican majority stands ready to provide the resources to address the problems related to troop morale and readiness. I implore my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to join in this effort.

DEMONSTRATE PEACE WITH 72-HOUR CEASE-FIRE IN KOSOVO

(Mr. CLEMENT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CLEMENT. Mr. Speaker, I am as concerned as we all are about what is going on in Kosovo. This conflict bothers me more than the Persian Gulf, Haiti, Bosnia and many of the crises that we have had.

I think it is time for us to have a 72-hour cease-fire. Let us let the Russians try to work out a peace settlement. I support the mission. I support our troops. I support NATO. I have seen firsthand the hostility, the destruction of lives and the destruction of property in my visits to Bosnia and Macedonia. I know the ethnic Albanians have suffered greatly. I want them to have the opportunity to go home.

I realize the United States now is the only superpower. But the United States and NATO need to show some real courage, some humility, and do what the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. BLAGOJEVICH) has done. He showed real leadership by going to Belgrade and demonstrating to the world that we want peace. The best way to demonstrate peace is to have a 72-hour cease-fire, and let us do it now.

NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

(Mr. QUINN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to take some time today during National Police Week to pay tribute to the men and women who serve our country in law enforcement. This is a time when we are given the opportunity to thank our friends in law enforcement for their commitment to our safety and to honor them for the sacrifices they have made.

Unfortunately, police officers are often called upon to make the ultimate sacrifice so that the rest of us may remain safe. Police officers risk their lives every day of the week to ensure safety in our communities.

I just want to take a moment to recognize and pay tribute to the tens of thousands of law enforcement officers that have given their lives to protect our families and communities. We do not take enough time often enough to honor the lives of fallen law enforcement officials.

□ 1015

I was proud to vote yesterday, as the whole House did, on a resolution that officially expresses the sense of the Congress that all police officers slain in the line of duty be honored and recognized.

On May 15, more than 15,000 law enforcement officers and their families will gather in the Capitol to honor their comrades that have fallen in the line of duty. We are honored to join our voice with theirs in paying respect to the great men and women who have served our country.

ULTIMATE SACRIFICE MADE BY RUSSELL STALNAKER

(Ms. MCKINNEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. MCKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, peace officers across the country make the choice to serve our communities in order to enhance the good and protect us from evil. Tragically, senseless actions of violence directed against our peace officers can and do happen at any time.

The family of Russell Stalnaker, who served on the Atlanta Police Department, know all too well the painful reality of the dangers confronting the men and women on the police force. Several weeks ago Mr. Stalnaker was shot while trying to protect the citizens of Atlanta. He and his family paid the ultimate price so that we all might live in a society that values order and discipline. Sadly, as our country violates international law in Europe, cities across the United States are plagued by violence and lawlessness.

Yesterday, I cast my vote in support of H. Res. 165 in honor of Russell Stalnaker and his family. The resolution states that peace officers killed in the line of duty should be honored. We will never forget the sacrifice Russell made in protecting the people of Atlanta. He is a shining example of a good police officer and his sacrifice deserves to be remembered.

THE TAX MAN HAS MOVED OUT, BUT NOT SOON ENOUGH

(Mr. FOSSELLA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOSSELLA. Mr. Speaker, there is a guy who has been living in my house from January 1 until yesterday. He has not paid any rent, has not paid for food, has not paid for boarding, has not paid for gas. Heck, he does not even take us out to dinner. That guy was the tax man. And he finally moved out. Each year it gets worse. He overstays his welcome.

Now, I do not mind him stopping by from time to time, but the time has come to get him out of my house. And it is not just my house, it is every American who pays taxes across this country. Every American who works hard every single day and sees less and less of their paycheck because of this guy who stays in their house.

It is unbelievable that we have to work from January 1 to May 11 just to pay the tax man. The time has come for broad-based tax cuts for the American people so they can have the opportunity and the freedom to spend the money as they see fit and to get that unwanted guest out of their house.

REAUTHORIZE COPS PROGRAM

(Mr. HOLT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Speaker, later today the Department of Justice will award a grant for its 100,000 new police officers hired under the COPS program.

For 6 years, in neighborhoods all across the Nation, the COPS program and the idea of community-oriented policing have been creating a breakthrough in law enforcement. COPS have helped local police fight crime, upgrade their equipment and crack down on school violence. COPS has empowered citizens and made our streets safer and more livable.

In New Jersey, the COPS program has helped hire over 3,500 police officers and contributed $213 million to our law enforcement agencies. In my own district, communities in Hunterdon, Monmouth, Mercer, Middlesex, and Somerset Counties have all benefited from the COPS program.

Most importantly, COPS has created a partnership between citizens and police joining them together in efforts to fight and prevent crime.

Mr. Speaker, community policing has been a tremendous success for our Nation and the people we represent. Congress should reauthorize the COPS program.

REPUBLICAN BUDGET PROPOSAL PUTS MORE ASIDE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY THAN ADMINISTRATION BUDGET

(Mr. HERGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HERGER. Mr. Speaker, the Republican budget proposal puts more money aside for Social Security and Medicare than does the Clinton administration's plan. Let me repeat that. Our budget proposal puts more money aside for Social Security and Medicare than does the Clinton administration plan.

In fact, the President spends $52 billion of the Social Security surplus in 2000 and $247 billion of that same Social Security surplus over the 5 years. But do not just take my word for it. I urge concerned American citizens to verify for themselves the truth of these facts.

The Republican proposal puts 100 percent of the retirement surplus aside for Social Security and Medicare. Our proposal puts that money aside in a lock box so that 100 percent of that money goes for Social Security and Medicare. The President's proposal, on the other hand, puts only 62 percent surplus aside for Social Security. American seniors deserve better.

STOP THE SNEAK ATTACKS AGAINST OUR ENVIRONMENT

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1
