

DEMONSTRATE PEACE WITH 72-HOUR CEASE-FIRE IN KOSOVO

(Mr. CLEMENT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CLEMENT. Mr. Speaker, I am as concerned as we all are about what is going on in Kosovo. This conflict bothers me more than the Persian Gulf, Haiti, Bosnia and many of the crises that we have had.

I think it is time for us to have a 72-hour cease-fire. Let us let the Russians try to work out a peace settlement. I support the mission. I support our troops. I support NATO. I have seen firsthand the hostility, the destruction of lives and the destruction of property in my visits to Bosnia and Macedonia. I know the ethnic Albanians have suffered greatly. I want them to have the opportunity to go home.

I realize the United States now is the only superpower. But the United States and NATO need to show some real courage, some humility, and do what the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. BLAGOJEVICH) has done. He showed real leadership by going to Belgrade and demonstrating to the world that we want peace. The best way to demonstrate peace is to have a 72-hour cease-fire, and let us do it now.

NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

(Mr. QUINN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to take some time today during National Police Week to pay tribute to the men and women who serve our country in law enforcement. This is a time when we are given the opportunity to thank our friends in law enforcement for their commitment to our safety and to honor them for the sacrifices they have made.

Unfortunately, police officers are often called upon to make the ultimate sacrifice so that the rest of us may remain safe. Police officers risk their lives every day of the week to ensure safety in our communities.

I just want to take a moment to recognize and pay tribute to the tens of thousands of law enforcement officers that have given their lives to protect our families and communities. We do not take enough time often enough to honor the lives of fallen law enforcement officials.

□ 1015

I was proud to vote yesterday, as the whole House did, on a resolution that officially expresses the sense of the Congress that all police officers slain in the line of duty be honored and recognized.

On May 15, more than 15,000 law enforcement officers and their families will gather in the Capitol to honor their comrades that have fallen in the line of duty. We are honored to join our voice with theirs in paying respect to the great men and women who have served our country.

ULTIMATE SACRIFICE MADE BY RUSSELL STALNAKER

(Ms. MCKINNEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. MCKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, peace officers across the country make the choice to serve our communities in order to enhance the good and protect us from evil. Tragically, senseless actions of violence directed against our peace officers can and do happen at any time.

The family of Russell Stalnaker, who served on the Atlanta Police Department, know all too well the painful reality of the dangers confronting the men and women on the police force. Several weeks ago Mr. Stalnaker was shot while trying to protect the citizens of Atlanta. He and his family paid the ultimate price so that we all might live in a society that values order and discipline. Sadly, as our country violates international law in Europe, cities across the United States are plagued by violence and lawlessness.

Yesterday, I cast my vote in support of H. Res. 165 in honor of Russell Stalnaker and his family. The resolution states that peace officers killed in the line of duty should be honored. We will never forget the sacrifice Russell made in protecting the people of Atlanta. He is a shining example of a good police officer and his sacrifice deserves to be remembered.

THE TAX MAN HAS MOVED OUT, BUT NOT SOON ENOUGH

(Mr. FOSSELLA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOSSELLA. Mr. Speaker, there is a guy who has been living in my house from January 1 until yesterday. He has not paid any rent, has not paid for food, has not paid for boarding, has not paid for gas. Heck, he does not even take us out to dinner. That guy was the tax man. And he finally moved out. Each year it gets worse. He overstays his welcome.

Now, I do not mind him stopping by from time to time, but the time has come to get him out of my house. And it is not just my house, it is every American who pays taxes across this country. Every American who works hard every single day and sees less and less of their paycheck because of this guy who stays in their house.

It is unbelievable that we have to work from January 1 to May 11 just to pay the tax man. The time has come for broad-based tax cuts for the American people so they can have the opportunity and the freedom to spend the money as they see fit and to get that unwanted guest out of their house.

REAUTHORIZE COPS PROGRAM

(Mr. HOLT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Speaker, later today the Department of Justice will award a grant for its 100,000 new police officers hired under the COPS program.

For 6 years, in neighborhoods all across the Nation, the COPS program and the idea of community-oriented policing have been creating a breakthrough in law enforcement. COPS have helped local police fight crime, upgrade their equipment and crack down on school violence. COPS has empowered citizens and made our streets safer and more livable.

In New Jersey, the COPS program has helped hire over 3,500 police officers and contributed $213 million to our law enforcement agencies. In my own district, communities in Hunterdon, Monmouth, Mercer, Middlesex, and Somerset Counties have all benefited from the COPS program.

Most importantly, COPS has created a partnership between citizens and police joining them together in efforts to fight and prevent crime.

Mr. Speaker, community policing has been a tremendous success for our Nation and the people we represent. Congress should reauthorize the COPS program.

REPUBLICAN BUDGET PROPOSAL PUTS MORE ASIDE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY THAN ADMINISTRATION BUDGET

(Mr. HERGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HERGER. Mr. Speaker, the Republican budget proposal puts more money aside for Social Security and Medicare than does the Clinton administration's plan. Let me repeat that. Our budget proposal puts more money aside for Social Security and Medicare than does the Clinton administration plan.

In fact, the President spends $52 billion of the Social Security surplus in 2000 and $247 billion of that same Social Security surplus over the 5 years. But do not just take my word for it. I urge concerned American citizens to verify for themselves the truth of these facts.

The Republican proposal puts 100 percent of the retirement surplus aside for Social Security and Medicare. Our proposal puts that money aside in a lock box so that 100 percent of that money goes for Social Security and Medicare. The President's proposal, on the other hand, puts only 62 percent surplus aside for Social Security. American seniors deserve better.

STOP THE SNEAK ATTACKS AGAINST OUR ENVIRONMENT

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, we have seen this before. At the last minute, when they think nobody is looking, the special interests are launching a sneak attack on our environment.

A bill that is supposed to provide support for our pilots overseas is being hijacked in a secret assault on our environment here at home. These so-called riders could never pass on their own.

These so-called riders would open up the pristine waters of Alaska's Glacier Bay National Park to destructive commercial fishing; another would throw open the American west to more giant strip mines, with the dangers of chemically bleached waste leaching into our waters and the specter of cyanide poisoning in our rivers and streams. And the list goes on and on.

These anti-environment riders have no place in the emergency supplemental conference report. We need to pass the bill to support our troops this week, not drag it down with a series of unpopular, unrelated and unacceptable anti-environmental riders.

TAX FREEDOM DAY

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, today is the first day of the rest of our life. Kind of an old 1960s pop culture saying that Jonathan Livingston Seagull was very proud of.

If we look at this week, today is the first day of the rest of our taxpaying year to be tax free, because as of yesterday we start working for ourselves. We have paid off our debt as a serf for Uncle Sam and big government. We will all continue to pay lots of taxes here and there, but generally speaking we are through. From now on we get to keep our money.

Think about the tax burden just in income tax. Today, the average American family pays 24 percent. In the 1970s, it was 16 percent. In the 1950s, it was 5 percent.

Now, what does that mean? Everybody is busy. Everybody is busy as heck in the 1990s. I know, I have four kids, and all my friends are running around. It is nothing but a treadmill. Because of that, we do not have enough time as families to sit down and impart information to each other, to train our kids, to help them with their homework and bring them up with the good moral values we need to run a country.

One of the by-products becomes tragedies such as what happened in Littleton. Families need to spend more time with each other, particularly with their children, and our tax burden prohibits it right now. We need to lower taxes.

INTELLIGENCE SERVICES DO NOT NEED MORE MONEY

(Mr. DEFAZIO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, on the other side they are talking about lower taxes. That means saving money. On the other side they are talking about dumping more money into the intelligence services, who already have a $30 billion a year budget. Sometimes this place reminds me of Alice in Wonderland.

Think of a parallel. When our kids fail the achievement tests, what do they say, more money for education? They say, no, we need to reorganize, we need to overhaul, we need to revitalize, we need vouchers, we need change. Now, when the CIA fails in its most basic mission on a multibillion dollar budget, they say they need more money.

Guess what? Here is the information they needed. Where did I get it? This came from the Congressional Research Service. It is publicly available. Maps of Belgrade on line. Here is the embassy. That is where it has been for 5 years. Here is where it used to be 5 years ago.

Well, maybe they did not know the current address. They could have gone to the web site, which is put up by the City of Belgrade and the government of Yugoslavia, which has the address. They could have got a phone book, but they probably do not have anybody who can read Serbian. I guess that is why they need more money. Maybe they need more money to go down to the bookstore and pay $19.95 for a Michelin map.

They do not need more money. They need to spend it better, they need to be reorganized, and some people need to be fired.

WILL CHINESE ESPIONAGE SCANDAL BE DISMISSED AS EASILY AS OTHER SCANDALS

(Mr. SCHAFFER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I can only guess what the response of the knee-jerk Clinton defenders will be as the whole country learns just how bad the Communist Chinese espionage scandal is. Will they dismiss this scandal, too, claiming, "Everyone lies about treason."

We have heard so many excuses so many times about so many scandals during the most unethical administration in history. It does not matter, they say. Everyone does it.

The President stated he was unaware of any Chinese espionage and that it had taken place on his watch. But now we have Energy Secretary Bill Richardson admitting that, in fact, a report was prepared and delivered to the President on exactly that subject in November of 1998.

Even more amazing is that the President's and the Vice President's first reaction to the news of this Chinese spying scandal was to, that is right, blame it on Ronald Reagan.

Then we find out the most serious stuff occurred during the Clinton years of 1994 and 1995. Why? Why, I ask, did the Justice Department sit on its hands for 3½ years, 3½ years, while Americans have to rely on a New York newspaper to get to the bottom of it?

NUCLEAR WASTE AND THE ATOMIC TRAIN MOVIE

(Ms. BERKLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. BERKLEY. Mr. Speaker, not only are the nuclear power industry lobbyists trying to conquer common sense with dollars in Congress, they are trying to do the same thing to the entertainment industry.

I was shocked and dismayed to read in The Washington Post TV column that NBC has caved in to nuclear industry pressure and politely changed the name of the atomic train's cargo from nuclear waste to hazardous materials. What semantic nonsense.

If anyone is able to tell the difference between the two, it would be the people of the State of Nevada, who are fighting a bill that would dump all of the Nation's nuclear waste in our backyard, 77,000 tons of it.

This just is not Nevada's fight. Most of America would be put at risk by H.R. 45, the Nuclear Waste Transport bill. On April 28 I sent a "Dear Colleague" letter to my fellow Members of Congress, pointing out that although the movie is fiction, the threat is real.

Let me ask my colleagues this: When the first inevitable crash occurs, where would they want to be living? Would they want to be living in that neighborhood?

I challenge NBC to stand up for public health and safety rather than caving in to the nuclear power industry lobbyists.

REPUBLICANS STAND FOR EMPOWERING INDIVIDUALS BY LOWERING TAX BURDEN

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I have been listening to some of the speeches from my very distinguished colleagues on the other side of the aisle, and I have yet to hear anyone talk about this issue of tax freedom day.

I was stunned when I first saw the chart the gentleman from Staten Island, New York (Mr. Fossella) used during his speech, which sees this continued increase in the time during which people have to work for the government before they can keep even a nickel for themselves.
