WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1999

No. 100

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We affirm in the ancient Psalm of David "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." Oh gracious God, as You are the shepherd of our souls and are with us in all the concerns of life, we ask Your blessing on all who are sick or infirm and who desire to find wholeness and health. Either for ourselves or those who are near and dear to us, we pray that Your healing power will visit all those in need and that our hearts and minds will be open to Your redeeming love. May Your strong arm, O God, give fortitude and strength and assure us always of that peace that passes all human understanding. In Your name we pray. Amen.

TRIBUTE TO AIR FORCE SERGEANTS ASSOCIATION

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, today I rise with great honor to pay tribute to the Air Force Sergeants Association, a private, not-for-profit organization that diligently represents this Nation's active and retired enlisted men and women of the United States Air Force and their families.

I would like to commend the Air Force Sergeants Association for their extraordinary efforts informing Congress on key personnel and readiness issues and also for promoting programs and policies which recognize the sacrifices of our "Sierra Hotel" Air Force enlisted members.

This year, from August 29 through September 3, the Air Force Sergeants Association will convene its annual international convention at the Silver Legacy and Eldorado Hotels in Reno, Nevada. As an Air Force veteran, who knows firsthand the outstanding contributions of our enlisted force, I will be proud and honored to celebrate this occasion with them.

Mr. Speaker, for 38 years, the Air Force Sergeants Association has been an outspoken advocate for Air Force enlisted members, and I thank them for their wonderful efforts. I also want to thank the enlisted men and women from every service who truly are the backbone and soul of our fighting forces.
