No. 30

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We pray, O God, that the gift of faith will find fulfillment in good deeds and that the blessings of this day will be shared by us and all people. In Your name we pray. Amen

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

A message from the Senate by Mr. Lundregan, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed a bill of the following title, in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, February 25, 1999.

Hon. J. DENNIS HASTERT,
The Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: I have the honor to transmit herewith a facsimile copy of a letter received from Linda W. Beazley, Director, Elections Division, Office of the Georgia Secretary of State, indicating that, according to the unofficial returns for the election held February 23, 1999, the Honorable Johnny Isakson was elected Representative in Congress for the Sixth Congressional District, State of Georgia.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

JEFF TRANDAHL,
Clerk.

election in Georgia's 6th Congressional District. He received 65 percent of the vote in a crowded field of contenders.

Mr. ISAKSON brings with him a wealth of experience, having served in both the Georgia House and Senate. Back home, JOHNNY has developed a reputation as a bridge builder, a man who has strong beliefs but is also willing to work with others to get things done. I believe that trait will serve him very well here in Congress.

JOHNNY, on behalf of all the members of the Georgia delegation, Democrats and Republicans, we welcome you to this great institution, the people's House. We look forward to working with you to improve the lives of the people of the 6th Congressional District, of Georgia, and the people of the Nation.

Welcome. Welcome here. Work hard and enjoy yourself and have some fun as you work.

OPENING REMARKS OF THE HONORABLE JOHNNY ISAKSON

(Mr. ISAKSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ISAKSON. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, distinguished Congressman JOHN LEWIS and all of my friends in the Georgia delegation, I am very honored and privileged to be here today.

I am particularly honored that 150 of my closest family members are in the gallery. I have the most wonderful family a man could have and the most wonderful friends in the world. And anytime you get 65 percent of the vote, there are a lot more than 150 folks back home that helped you. But I could not be prouder than to be associated with and to represent these people.

 1030

I am sure there are probably a lot of wise words I ought to say today, but I can only really think of two things that seem appropriate. One is an admonition I got from a great friend of mine by the name of Carl Harrison who on the first day of my swearing in to the Georgia House of Representatives said, "JOHNNY, the best way to learn is to keep your mouth shut." And so I intend to be a very good listener and learn.

And then from my father and mother who always admonished me to do what was right and always talked about Mark Twain's great quote: "Just do what's right. You'll gratify few but you'll astonish the rest."

I will do the very best I can to do what is right in the service of my State and in cooperation with you. I am well aware that to all of you I am nothing more today than the fellow that replaced Newt. I hope in the years to come I will be a respected friend and one who joined with you to make a difference for the United States of America.

SWEARING IN OF THE HONORABLE JOHNNY ISAKSON OF GEORGIA AS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. JOHNNY ISAKSON, be permitted to take the oath of office today. His Certificate of Election has not yet arrived, but there is no contest, and no question has been raised with regard to his election.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. Will the Representative-elect and the Members of the Georgia delegation present themselves in the well.

Mr. ISAKSON appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter, so help you God.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations, you are now a Member of the 106th Congress.

WELCOMING THE HONORABLE JOHNNY ISAKSON TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise this morning, as the dean of the Georgia delegation, to welcome our newest Member to the House of Representatives. JOHNNY ISAKSON won an impressive victory in Tuesday's special
