MURRAY AMENDMENT NO. 173

Mr. LAUTENBERG (for Mrs. Murray proposed an amendment to the concurrent resolution, S. Con. Res. 20, supra; as follows:

At the end of title III, add the following: SEC. ____. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON WOMEN AND

SOCIAL SECURITY REFORM.(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

- (1) without Social Security benefits, the elderly poverty rate among women would have been 52.2 percent, and among widows would have been 60.6 percent;
- (2) women tend to live longer and tend to have lower lifetime earnings than men do;
- (3) during their working years, women earn an average of 70 cents for every dollar men earn; and
- (4) women spend an average of 11.5 years out of their careers to care for their families, and are more likely to work part-time than full-time.
- (b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the levels in this resolution assume that—
- (1) women face unique obstacles in ensuring retirement security and survivor and disability stability;
- (2) Social Security plays an essential role in guaranteeing inflation-protected financial stability for women throughout their old age:
- (3) the Congress and the Administration should act, as part of Social Security reform, to ensure that widows and other poor elderly women receive more adequate benefits that reduce their poverty rates and that women, under whatever approach is taken to reform Social Security, should receive no lesser a share of overall federally-funded retirement benefits than they receive today; and
- (4) the sacrifice that women make to care for their family should be recognized during reform of Social Security and that women should not be penalized by taking an average of 11.5 years out of their careers to care for their family.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

CONFERRING OF THE FRENCH LEGION OF HONOR ON WORLD WAR I VETERANS

• Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, I rise today to salute our veterans of the First World War as the French government confers the Legion of Honor, its highest honor, on those living American veterans who served on French soil during World War I. I salute these brave men and women for their courage and for their sacrifice. For the past eighty years, they have taught several generations of Americans what it means to be an American.

Our World War I veterans fought because they believed in something beyond themselves, a greater good. They fought to preserve the best of humanity—democracy, compassion, and liberty. Unfortunately, their fight exposed them to the worst of humanity, the first modern war, with its machine guns, its trenches, its very inhumanity.

"The Great War," "The War to End All Wars" is what they called it. It was so terrible, so inhuman that we believed that a calamity of that magnitude could never happen again. But it did. The Great War became known as World War I as a second inhuman war consumed our world.

Today, we owe it to those who fought in World War I, who we promised that it would never happen again, that we will make sure that it doesn't. These medals and this promise are for our World War I veterans and for everyone who fought alongside them in the trenches.

I offer this promise to our veterans, but I also ask for their help in keeping it. I ask them to teach their grand-children and their great-grandchildren about what it meant to fight for such a great and costly cause. Together, we can make sure that our children and our children's children never have to fight another Great War. •
