

IN HONOR OF THE 22D ANNIVERSARY OF THE GRAY PANTHERS OF METRO DETROIT

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor the 22d anniversary of one of Metro Detroit's most active and valuable organizations. For more than two decades, the Gray Panthers of Metro Detroit have been organized with the goal of advancing the causes of aging Americans and social justice for all.

The Gray Panthers were established on a national level in 1970. But it wasn't until 1978 that Lillian Rosinger, inspired by the dedication to social reform of Gray Panthers founder Maggie Kuhn, organized and was elected first convener of the Metro North Gray Panthers.

In the 22 years that followed, the all-volunteer network of grass roots activists has touched the lives of citizens across the tri-county area. They are a diverse combination of both younger and older people dreaming and working together for a better society. They have long championed the idea of a single payer health care system that will cover all Americans, young and old, rich or poor. The Gray Panthers have also taken strong, well-researched positions which support the strengthening of Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid.

True to their founding, the Gray Panthers have vigorously opposed discrimination based on age, sex, and race. They have put their hearts, minds and bodies on the lines in rallies, protest marches and public gatherings nationwide. At the local level, they can be seen rallying in support of locked out newspaper strikers or organizing a "Medicare For All" petition drive. Through their newsletters, website and e-mail action alerts, members have contacted elected officials in support of causes they cherish and in opposition to legislation they deem irresponsible.

Please join me in recognizing the Gray Panthers of Metro Detroit's 22d year as a force for positive social change in the Detroit and its surrounding areas.

INTRODUCTION OF THE DRUG COMPETITION ACT OF 2000

HON. HENRY A. WAXMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Drug Competition Act of 2000.

This legislation would correct a grossly anti-competitive abuse by branded and generic drug companies of the generic drug approval process. Only recently have we learned that such companies, which usually operate as fierce competitors to the benefit of American consumers, can strike collusive agreements to trade multimillion dollar payoffs by the brand company for delays in the introduction of lower cost, generic alternatives.

These sweetheart deals have earned the scrutiny of the Federal Trade Commission and the Food and Drug Administration. The FTC recently undertook consent agreements and enforcement actions against several companies which have engaged in such deals. But more can be done to prevent them from recurring.

I am very pleased to have collaborated with Senator LEAHY of Vermont, the ranking member of the Senate Judiciary Committee, in drafting this legislation. The Drug Competition Act would simply require companies seeking to reach secret, anticompetitive agreements to disclose them to the FTC and FDA. Disclosure of these agreements would enable Federal authorities to ensure that existing antitrust and drug approval laws are enforced to the letter. In sum, American consumers can be protected from anticompetitive abuses by the application of a little "sunshine."

I am very pleased this bill is being introduced with bipartisan support, and I urge my colleagues to join us in cosponsoring the Drug Competition Act of 2000.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, due to illness, I was not able to vote during consideration of rollcall 46–476. Had I been present, I would have voted: "aye" on rollcall numbers 460–465, 469, 471–472 and 475; "no" on rollcall numbers 466–468, 470, 473–474, and 476.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE FOURTH STREET BAPTIST CHURCH'S 100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. MAC COLLINS

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Mr. COLLINS. Mr. Speaker, it has been 2000 years since our Lord was borne, and for one hundred of those years, his people have been served by the Fourth Street Missionary Baptist Church. I wish that prior obligations did not prevent me from joining you as you celebrate this milestone in your impressive new sanctuary.

But I am reminded that Jesus said his church would be built of living stones—of people—who are far more important than any structure, no matter how great and how beautiful it is.

When Fourth Street Missionary Baptist Church was founded a century ago by Reverend Willie Carter and Reverend John Bellamy, the church family worshipped under a brush arbor of vine and fig tree leaves. A man of this world would have seen a small group praying under a humble roof of green which would turn brown by winter. But a man of the spirit would have seen God laying living foundation stones for a church that would still be standing and growing 100 years hence.

Like many church bodies, the Fourth Street Missionary Baptist Church evolved over time. Originally part of the Mount Canaan Baptist Church, its members formed the New Mount Canaan Baptist Church. In 1905, a plot of land was purchased on Fourth Street, where a small shelter was built and the church body met in the home of Deacon and Sister B.A. Parker. At this time, it adopted its present name. In 1935, reflecting the growing church body, a new sanctuary was built at the corner of Third Avenue and Fifth Street.

In 1961, Reverend Johnny Flakes Jr. accepted the call to pastor the church and helped lead the church into a bright future.

Under his leadership, the church was renovated in 1966. In 1977, a new two-story education building with a kitchen and banquet hall was built. In 1999, work was finished on your new state of the art sanctuary. More importantly, he was working, with God's grace, to build the real body of the church. Membership is over 3000, and growing, both in numbers and in spirit.

This church is a living demonstration of the power of God to work in men and women's lives. Rev. Flakes, your church has had a glorious first century, and God willing, it will have many more to come. Congratulations.

PARTNERSHIP FOR INTERNATIONAL FOOD RELIEF, H.R. 5224

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the International Food Relief Partnership Act, H.R. 5224, legislation that authorizes the stockpiling and rapid transportation, delivery and distribution of shelf stable pre-packaged foods to needy individuals in foreign countries. This legislation creates a public-private partnerships to leverage the donation of nutritious food by volunteers to needy families around the globe at times of famine, disaster and other critical needs. I am pleased to join the Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, Mr. COMBEST, the distinguished gentleman from Texas, and the Ranking Member of the Committee on Agriculture, the distinguished gentleman from Texas, Mr. STENHOLM, and the distinguished Chairman of the Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific of the International Relations Committee, the distinguished gentleman from Nebraska, Mr. BE-REUTER, in introducing this important legislation.

There is a gap in the United States' traditional international food relief effort and food reserve program that makes participation by non-profit organizations that want to contribute donated food extremely difficult. The major barrier to these volunteer contributions is the high cost of providing these donated food products to international relief organizations that transport and distribute food overseas. Agri-business efficiently and effectively provides assistance at times of greatest need through international food relief organizations that work through the Agency for International Development (AID). However, non-profits have a much more difficult time reaching international relief organizations to provide food assistance because of the high cost of processing, packaging, maintaining and shipping donated food. Consequently, food donated by non-profits is often delayed from reaching affected populations, or is simply not used for this purpose.

The International Food Relief Partnership Act will fill this gap by providing grant assistance outside the traditional food relief program to non-profits that should be matched 50 cents on the dollar by funds raised by non-profits. These grant funds will be used by non-profits to ensure that food donated by farmers can be processed, packaged, stored, and transported overseas at the time of need. AID would be responsible for the administration of this program, although funding for it would be made available through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food for Peace program.

Non-profits such as Breedlove, Child Life International, and Feed the Starving Children provide direct hunger assistance at times of disaster, famine, or other critical need. Organizations such as these are located throughout the United States. These organizations accept gleaned crops donated by regional farmers, and help transport and distribute this food overseas. Once the donated food is processed, it can be stored for years for use in food emergencies. Donated food reduces the cost of famine and disaster assistance because these products cost only pennies to process and ship and supplement the traditional food basket.

We need to encourage more volunteer efforts from non-profits. The International Food Relief Partnership Act accomplishes this objective by providing a means for non-profits to accept donated food and process it into a product for use in times of disaster, famine, or other critical need.

Through the enactment of this bill we create a new and inexpensive mechanism that provides more food relief for less money. The fifty-percent matching preference included in this legislation also ensures that viable and deserving organizations earn the grant funds that they seek.

I have introduced the "International Food Relief Partnership Act of 2000" today because the time to plan for a food crisis is before it occurs. I look forward to working with my colleagues in supporting the spirit of volunteerism and goodwill by rapidly passing this important legislation.

HONORING PHIL RAMONE

HON. KAREN MCCARTHY

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Ms. MCCARTHY of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring the incredible philanthropy and achievement of Phil Ramone. On September 24th Mr. Ramone will be awarded the Michael Bolton Charities Lifetime Achievement Award. Michael Bolton Charities, Inc. was established in 1993 to assist children and women at risk from the effects of poverty, homelessness, domestic violence, and physical and sexual abuse. Mr. Ramone's indefatigable generosity has enhanced the lives of countless women and children around the world for over three decades. This honor stands as a testament to Mr. Ramone's selfless acts which reflect his inherent benevolence and vision of life.

Throughout his remarkable career Mr. Ramone has produced award winning works by some of the world's most talented recording artists. His genius embraces all aspects of the entertainment business, working brilliantly in both the technical and creative sides of the industry. Mr. Ramone is one of the recording industry's most well respected and prolific producers with a resume so vast and encompassing that his peers have deified him as the undisputed "Pope of Pop." Mr. Ramone has produced galas for several U.S. Presidents and has been the driving force behind megastars such as: Frank Sinatra, Billy Joel, Paul Simon, Barbara Streisand, Madonna, B.B. King, Elton John, Gloria Estefan, Jon Secada, Fito Paez, Sinead O'Connor and Paul McCartney to name a few. Phil Ramone is invaluable to the artists he works with, such as Michael Bolton, and is an eight time Grammy Award winner, including Producer of the Year. As Chairman Emeritus of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, he is recognized by his peers as the most transcendent audio technician and stylistic creator in the music industry today. His grasp of technology revolutionized the recording studio with his first use of the Dolby four-track discrete sound system, satellite links, optical surround sound, fiber optic systems, and digital live recording.

In addition to all of these accomplishments and accolades, Mr. Ramone possesses a kindness and humility that make him one of the recording industry's most profound humanitarians. Since his earliest success Mr. Ramone's charitable commitment has helped children living in poverty around the world improve their education and their lives. It is with great respect and appreciation that we acknowledge Mr. Ramone's lifetime charitable achievements and his exemplary character on September 24. I commend Michael Bolton Charities, Inc., for their recognition of Phil Ramone's lifelong contributions to both music and humankind.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in expressing gratitude to Grammy winner Michael Bolton for his steadfast efforts to educate the Congress on the need to assist women and children at risk from the dangerous effects of poverty, domestic violence, homelessness, and physical and sexual abuse. With programs that foster self esteem, leadership skills, job training, and social awareness his charity provides the access and education that underprivileged women and children need for a better life.

Phil Ramone has a positive outlook and steadfast commitment to a better future for all our children when he notes that, "Our kids won't even think about virtual reality—it will be a regular part of their lives. Sometimes it's just so obvious to me, the future. It shows its face to me ever so often and then I say, 'Oh, of course. Why shouldn't we do this . . . ' It's like an inner vision that lets you understand that there's something better, more beautiful just ahead." Thank you, Phil Ramone.

HONORING THE 112TH BIRTHDAY OF WORLD WAR I VETERAN JOHN PAINTER

HON. BART GORDON

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Mr. GORDON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to wish a happy 112th birthday to Tennessee's oldest surviving World War I veteran, John George Painter of Hermitage Springs. He is also believed to be the nation's oldest surviving veteran.

Born on September 20, 1888, in the Keeling Branch community of Jackson County, Tennessee, Mr. Painter enlisted in the U.S. Army at the age of 29 to fight what was then called the "War to End All Wars".

Mr. Painter saw action in France's Argonne Forest where he hauled ammunition and field guns to the front lines with teams of horses and mules. He was honorably discharged on April 12, 1919, and returned home to Jackson County where he resumed his career as a blacksmith. There he married his childhood sweetheart—the former Gillie Watson—and raised two daughters.

Mr. Painter's courage during that brutal war earned him one of France's highest honors, the Order of the Legion of Honor. Only five other Tennesseans have received the distinguished award.

As we celebrate Mr. Painter's birthday today, I congratulate him for the tremendous contributions he has made to the United States and to the never-ending fight for freedom.

NAUGATUCK VALLEY TOWNS

HON. JAMES H. MALONEY

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 20, 2000

Mr. MALONEY of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I wish to bring to the attention of the U.S. House of Representatives the noteworthy accomplishments of the lower Naugatuck Valley towns located in my congressional district in Connecticut. After being chosen as a finalist in the National Civic League's All-American City competition in 1999, the Naugatuck Valley's 2000 delegation sharpened its presentation and on June 3, 2000, was awarded the League's highest honor, that of an All-American City.

The Naugatuck Valley is comprised of seven municipalities: Ansonia, Beacon Falls, Derby, Naugatuck, Oxford, Seymour and Shelton. Delegates from each community traveled together to Louisville, Kentucky to compete for recognition as an All-American City. Started in 1894 by President Theodore Roosevelt and U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis, this award recognizes municipalities and regions where governments, citizens, businesses and volunteer organizations work together to address important local problems.

Moving beyond its background as an old industrial area, the Valley's entry in the competition highlighted the region's recent initiatives to address its needs. The delegation presented a 10-minute skit touting the region's Alliance for Growth, a nonprofit development corporation that has attracted business to the Valley and has created jobs for its residents. The judges were also told about Project Co-N-N-E-C-T, an organization founded to assess the Valley's economic health. The skit recounted the achievements of the Valley in an effort to rebuild the local Boys and Girls Club after its destruction by a fire eight years ago. In that effort, the seven communities came together to raise $4.5 million to obtain and renovate an old factory site for the youth organization.

What most set the Naugatuck Valley apart from the other entrants was its sense of community and family. Valley residents have a long history of supporting each other and
