

I will miss Sherrill Stafford as a public servant, but I will miss him even more as a good friend.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. CORRINE BROWN

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Ms. BROWN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall nos. 180, 181, 182, and 183 I was unavoidably detained and missed these votes. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on all four votes.

HONORING THE CAREER OF LINDA N. CLARK

HON. THOMAS M. DAVIS

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Mr. DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, today I honor Mrs. Linda Clark, principal of Flint Hill Elementary School in Vienna, Virginia. She has been the principal of Flint Hill Elementary for the past 25 years and will be retiring this week. From her humble start as a Third Grade teacher in Illinois to her being named the principal of Flint Hill Elementary in 1975, she has exemplified all that is good about the educational profession.

As principal of Flint Hill Elementary, Linda demonstrated and encouraged creativity and innovation in the classroom. She continually encouraged the staff, students and parents to stretch their talents and strengths and attempt new goals and endeavors, while always respecting the personality, teaching, and learning styles of staff, students, and parents.

Linda has always tried to foster cooperation between her school and her students' community. She held monthly parent coffees in various Flint Hill neighborhoods, and she created "Curriculum Nights" for various grade levels to share with parents. Linda also created "Highlights," a quarterly newsletter sent to all Flint Hill Elementary School families, which provides information on grade level curriculum activities for the upcoming school quarter. While strengthening ties between the school and the community, Linda also was an integral part of maintaining continuing dialogue between the faculty and staff in Flint Hill Elementary. Linda met regularly with staff members to discuss their professional growth and concerns. She always participated in morning and afternoon Flint Hill news programs, and she enjoyed meeting with individual and groups of students to discuss various issues, all-the-while encouraging feedback from students and staff regarding school programs and procedures.

While making Flint Hill Elementary School a friendlier place to learn, Linda took steps to keep herself, her staff, and faculty abreast of new developments in the field of education. To do this, she solicited feedback from many areas of expertise in formulating the school's curriculum. She shared reading material with the staff dealing with educational issues in particular child development: learning styles and brain development. Linda and Flint Elementary are also the proud hosts of the Area

III Technology Expo, where Fairfax County School staff and students share and learn about the latest developments in the fields of computer and technological instruction related to POS and SOL objectives. I have had the opportunity to attend this expo on several occasions and can attest to its depth and substance.

Mr. Speaker, in closing, I wish to thank Principal Clark for all she has done for Flint Hill Elementary School over the past 25 years. She has been a role model for her students and colleagues, and she exemplifies the ideal of being a "lifelong learner." Her obvious curiosity about the world, its cultures, its people and her love of learning and sharing of knowledge are contagious. I know my colleagues join me in honoring Linda for her 25 years of dedicated service to educating our children and improving our community.

HONORING ROBERT C. MCGANN, ACTING JUSTICE OF THE NEW YORK STATE SUPREME COURT

HON. JOSEPH CROWLEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Mr. CROWLEY. Mr. Speaker, today I honor Judge Robert McGann for his long career of service to the city and state of New York. Judge McGann will be the Guest of Honor at this year's Catholic Lawyers Guild annual dinner on May 24th.

Born on June 11th, 1948, Judge McGann is a native of Queens County. He is a 1969 graduate of Fordham University, where he received a degree in Political Philosophy. He served on the Editorial Board of the Law Review at New York Law School where he was awarded a Juris Doctor degree in 1972.

Upon graduation from law school, Judge McGann was appointed as an Assistant District Attorney in Queens County in 1972, serving under Thomas Mackell, Michael Armstrong and Nicholas Ferraro. In 1976, he was appointed Special Assistant Attorney General in the office of Special Prosecutor John F. Keenan. From 1981 to 1986, he was an Inspector General in the administration of New York City Mayor Edward Koch.

Mayor Koch appointed him to the New York City Criminal Court in 1986. He has served as Justice of the Supreme Court by Designation since 1995.

Judge McGann has been an Adjunct Associate Professor of Criminal Justice at St. John's University since 1977. He has lectured nationally on arson and other Fire Service related issues. He attended the National College of District Attorneys and the Cornell Organized Crime School.

He is a member of the Queens County Bar and the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. Judge McGann is also a member of the Catholic Lawyers Guild and is active in his parish, St. Andrew Avellino.

Judge McGann and his wife, Jane, are the proud parents of two daughters, Laura and Elizabeth.

Mr. Speaker, please join me recognizing Judge Robert C. McGann on a distinguished career, and his lifetime of commitment to Queens County and New York City.

RECOGNIZING NATIONAL BIKE TO WORK WEEK AND THE CONTRIBUTION OF THE LONG BEACH BIKESTATION

HON. STEPHEN HORN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, May 14–20 is National Bike to Work Week. As a longtime supporter of bicycling, I encourage Americans to participate in this week of safe cycling as an alternative way to commute. As concerns rise about congestion on our roads and more air pollution, many workers forget about an alternative that is good for the soul and the environment.

Many commuters must rely on cars or public transit to get to work or school. However, for many, biking to work represents an often overlooked alternative. The bicycle represents a clean and convenient method of travel that more Americans are utilizing to stay fit, avoid traffic jams, parking hassles and expense, and promote clean air.

One development that is helping to make biking more attractive to commuters is located in the district I represent. The Long Beach Bikestation offers a public bike/transit center strategically located in downtown Long Beach to help people ride their bikes to work. Fifty thousand bikes have been used by satisfied customers. This facility won the Federal Highway Administration's Environmental Excellence award for Excellence in Community Livability in 1999. The Bikestation connects to more than 30 miles of suburban bike paths, downtown employment, shopping and a dining district. Modeled after facilities in Europe and Japan, the Long Beach Bike Station is considered the first of its kind in the United States and has inspired many similar facilities across the nation.

The Bikestation was launched primarily with Congestion Mitigation Air Quality funds as part of the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991, or ISTEA. Since its opening in 1996, the facility has offered access to Metro Rail and bus/shuttle services, free secure "valet" bicycle parking, rental bikes for tourists and local businesses, a changing room, repairs and accessories shop, bike/transit information and a small cafe for refreshments.

Building upon the gains in ISTEA, Congress broadened its support for bicyclists in 1998 with the passage of the Transportation Equity for the 21st Century Act, or TEA-21. This law explicitly made bike paths and facilities eligible for federal funding. It also mandates that bicyclists and pedestrians will be included in long range transportation plans and that bicyclist access and safety must be addressed in transportation projects.

I comment those who are promoting bike safety and awareness by participating in Bike to Work Week. More information on bicycle safety can be found on the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's website at www.nhtsa.dot.gov/people/injury/pedbimot/bike.

HONORING ANDREW U. AMWAY FOR FORTY-ONE YEARS OF TEACHING

HON. JOSEPH R. PITTS

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, as the school year draws to a close, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize a teacher who has spent the last forty-one years educating students in my district.

Mr. Andrew U. Amway is a history teacher, the head of the social studies department, a coach, a club advisor and a mentor to countless Hempfield High School students. After spending one year teaching elementary students in a different school district, Mr. Amway came to Hempfield where he spent the rest of his career. Many students learned not only American history in his classroom, but also to take pride in being an American. He is an old-fashioned teacher that believes that hard work is the key to success. And he has certainly been successful in teaching and leading his students. The accomplishments of his students both in academics and in life speak for themselves.

Not only is Mr. Amway a dedicated teacher, but he served as the coach for several athletic teams at the high school—boys and girls tennis, boys and girls swimming, and cross country. During his thirty-nine years of coaching his combined record is an astonishing 1397–254–4. His teams have captured numerous district and league titles.

It is safe to say that Mr. Amway knows how to get the best out of his students both in class and on the playing field.

Forty-one years is a long time to work in any job, but it is particularly unusual in this day and age to find a teacher that has been in the classroom that long. At Hempfield High School, it is the end of an era. Thank you, Mr. Amway for your many years of service.

HILLEL ACADEMY OF PITTSBURGH'S RECOGNITION OF
SOPHIE MASLOFF AND ZVI AND RINA SHULDINER

HON. WILLIAM J. COYNE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Mr. COYNE. Mr. Speaker, today I acknowledge an upcoming event in my district. The Hillel Academy of Pittsburgh will recognize three individuals who have made significant contributions to the quality of life in our community.

Former Mayor of Pittsburgh Sophie Masloff will be honored for her many years of public service. Under her leadership the City weathered some difficult challenges and laid the groundwork for the prosperity that it is enjoying today. I had the honor and pleasure of working with Mayor Masloff during that time, and I was always impressed by her energy and her dedication to the people of the City of Pittsburgh.

Hillel Academy will also honor Zvi and Rina Shuldiner, who have served Hillel in a number of capacities, including their work as faculty members and as volunteer chairpersons for major school events. They have been involved in a number of activities that have benefited the Jewish community in Pittsburgh. The Shuldiners, it should be noted, are also the proud parents of three Hillel alumni.

I congratulate Mayor Masloff and Zvi and Rina Shuldiner, and I want to thank both them and the Hillel Academy for their efforts to improve the quality of life in Pittsburgh.

CONSERVATION AND
REINVESTMENT ACT OF 1999

SPEECH OF

HON. DEBBIE STABENOW

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2000

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 701) to provide Outer Continental Shelf Impact Assistance to State and local governments, to amend the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965, the Urban Park and Recreation Recovery Act of 1978, and the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act (commonly referred to as the Pittman-Robertson Act) to establish a fund to meet the outdoor conservation and recreation needs of the American people, and for other purposes:

Ms. STABENOW. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in support of H.R. 701, the Conservation and Reinvestment Act of 1999, and in support of the motion to recommit the bill to guarantee that any expenditure of funds will not jeopardize Social Security and Medicare. I strongly believe that eliminating the national debt and securing the financial future of Social Security and Medicare should be our top priorities. We must take advantage of our economic good times to secure these successful programs and rid this nation of its public debt.

During consideration of H.R. 701, Congressman Shadegg offered an amendment that purported to accomplish these goals. While I strongly supported the spirit of my colleague's amendment, it appears that its real intent was to prevent the strong conservation programs in the bill from being funded. The amendment stated that the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) must provide "certification" that the public debt will be fully paid by 2013, that there will not be an on-budget deficit, and that the Social Security and Medicare trust funds will not fall into a deficit in the next five years before any CARA funding could be dispersed. As the CBO has asserted, it is not able to make such certifications, but can only provide estimates. Because of these technical imperfections in the Shadegg proposal, I believe his amendment would permanently block all CARA funding. For this reason, I joined 207 of my colleagues in voting against this amendment, and supported the motion to recommit the bill to ensure that Social Security and Medicare would truly be protected.

I am a cosponsor of the Conservation and Reinvestment Act CARA, because I strongly support increasing the federal investment in conservation. This bill will make an important, dramatic change in the funding of conservation programs. It establishes a permanent funding source for these programs by setting aside royalties earned from off-shore oil and gas drilling. This funding will be directed toward, coastal conservation, land acquisition through the Land and Water Conservation Fund, wildlife conservation, urban parks and recreation, historic preservation, federal and Indian land restoration, and endangered species recovery. Additional funds are also designated to increase federal payments for the Payment in Lieu of Taxes payments and the Refuge Revenue Sharing programs. I urge my colleagues to support his bipartisan legislation.

IN RECOGNITION OF SAVE THE CHILDREN'S WORK TO STAVE OFF A LOOMING FAMINE IN ETHIOPIA

SPEECH OF

HON. SAM GEJDENSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 18, 2000

Mr. GEJDENSON. Mr. Speaker, today I call attention to the exemplary work of Save the Children, a relief organization based in my home state of Connecticut. For nearly seventy years, Save the Children has worked to relieve the suffering of millions of men, women and children worldwide. Save the Children has been on the front lines of humanitarian crises in Africa, Asia and Latin America, delivering humanitarian assistance to millions in need. In the United States, and specifically in Connecticut, Save the Children's relief workers have lent their assistance to both adults and children in underprivileged communities.

Save the Children represents the best of what America has to offer. Today, Gary Shaye, Vice President of International Programs for Save the Children International, testified before the House International Relations Committee on the organization's efforts to stave off a looming famine in Ethiopia. Save the Children's relief workers were among the
