PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 146

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2000

No. 30

Senate

The Senate was not in session today. Its next meeting will be held on Monday, March 20, 2000, at 12 noon.

House of Representatives

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2000

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Right Reverend M. Thomas Shaw, III, Bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts, Boston, Massachusetts, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, You have given us another new day. Again, today You give us the opportunity to experience Your rich and dynamic creativity. Again, today You invite us into your compassion, Your justice, Your hope, and, most of all, Your deep and abiding peace.

You tell us, God, that we are co-creators with You. Replenish us with Your life-giving spirit this morning. Open us to Your renewing power that we might be makers of peace and hope and justice and compassion with You. Draw us into the deep places of Your heart where we find the wisdom and grace to share in Your creativity. Help us to be gracious and open to one another because we know that each of us brings a share of Your creative vision.

We ask this all in Your name. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from New York (Mr. HOUGHTON) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. HOUGHTON led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

WELCOMING RIGHT REVEREND M. THOMAS SHAW III, TO U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

(Mr. HOUGHTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HOUGHTON. Mr. Speaker, every so often somebody comes into our lives that has a tremendous impact on us. And this is the case of the man who just gave the invocation, Bishop Thomas Shaw.

He left his diocese, as the largest Episcopal diocese in this country, to come down and be with us for a month, not to preach, not to tell us things, but to learn with us about this great democracy.

He has given us much, and the most important thing he has given us is his example. Everyone has words. We use a lot of words around here. His example has been extraordinary. And I only hope that the examples that he gives to us will be given to others in other parts of this country to be able to come down and understand this precious thing which we call a Republic.

So I thank Bishop Shaw for being with us.

LET US STRENGTHEN SOCIAL SECURITY AND MEDICARE

(Mr. CUMMINGS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CUMMINGS. Mr. Speaker, when some extra change comes our way, put it somewhere safe for a rainy day. As old as this adage may seem, it is a life lesson that has escaped some of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle.

Our grandmothers who planted this concept in our ears while giving us a few extra dollars might now frown upon the careless proposals set forth by the GOP with respect to our budget surplus.

With the rainy days that many forecast, the budget surplus should be put in the safest places. The budget surplus should be put in Social Security for the rainy day FY 2023, where some predict the fund may face depletion. It should be placed in Medicare to protect us from the rainy day of rising costs in the area of cost care for our elderly. It should be used to begin wiping away the cloud of our national debt.

The grandparents who shared their wisdom are the same people who will benefit from our responsible actions. Let us follow the advice of those who know best. Let us strengthen Social Security and Medicare. Let us pay down the national debt. Let us use our budget surplus to safeguard against a coming rainy day.
