

I do not know any other industry in the United States that has that kind of legal protection. I think that if Congress brought a bill to the floor today to give that type of legal protection to Bridgestone-Firestone, I think every Member who voted for that would be voted out of office.

Now, that was what, 118 or 120 deaths caused by faulty tires. We are talking about millions of decisions made every day by the HMO industry that can affect a person's health, maybe their hands or their feet, or even their life. How can anyone reasonably argue that the House plan, the HMO, should be liable only for the cost of care denied when they make a medical judgment that is clearly negligent and hurts somebody?

I do not know what kind of responsibility we are talking about. We Republicans have been on this floor many, many times talking about how welfare recipients ought to be responsible. By George, if you are able-bodied and you get education and you get help in child care, you are going to have a limited time and you are going to go out and be responsible and get a job. But some people would argue that we ought to not have plans that are making life-and-death decisions responsible. Somehow there is an inconsistency there.

Well, my prediction for this coming year is that we are going to have a very good debate on this issue. If we see Governor Bush in the White House, I wish him the best. I want to see President Bush succeed by being a uniter, not a divider. I want to see him work in a bipartisan fashion. And one of the earliest things that we can do in this coming year is to pass the latest version of the Norwood-Dingell-Ganske bill, pass it by a big margin in the House, big margin in the Senate, send it to President Bush, and have him sign that bill. And I will tell you what. That would go a long ways to getting his administration off to a good start. And I would love to see that.

Well, Mr. Speaker, I think that we are going to have a lot to do in this coming year. It is a narrow margin that we have here in the House. It is 50-50 tie in the Senate. Some people say, oh, you know, there will just be gridlock and chaos. I am an optimist. I do not see the glass that is half empty. I see this glass as half full. And I think we have a real opportunity to do some things that will benefit our constituents.
