

A considerable amount of the time on this project has involved analysis and policy development to deal with broad issues that affect most of the parcels, such as rights of way and unpatented mining claims. We have developed suitable solutions for most of these issues. As for trespass situations on specific parcels, we have resolved six of them, and there are four more that we are aware of.

It has also taken a great deal of time to develop policies and procedures for land conveyance that are equitable and cost effective. As you are aware, much of this land consists of hundreds of small fragments that are most appropriately conveyed to owners of contiguous properties, since they are too costly to manage in this configuration. Each parcel must go through the zoning process, and in many cases, the subdivision exemption process to divide them, before they be conveyed. Getting these fragments into private ownership is the biggest challenge of this project.

There are some large tracts of consolidated acreage for which we need to determine disposition. If we retain any of the land (for Recreation and Public Purpose, as stipulated by the Transfer Act), it would be these tracts, since they would be affordable to manage. However, this has not been decided yet, because we are also looking into conveyance of these tracts to land trusts or conservation groups.

The Colorado Division of Wildlife has asked to purchase approximately 2,000 acres for Bighorn Sheep habitat. They are currently trying to put together funding for this purchase, and we are told that this could take several years.

If you need more information or have any questions, please call me at (303) 679-2434.

Sincerely,

MARK SPARGUE,

Project Manager, County Lands Department.

(2) REGULATIONS.—Regulations promulgated under section 203 shall provide for—

HOUSE AMENDMENT TO SENATE AMENDMENT:

Page 36, strike lines 22 and 23 and insert "and the natural parents has been terminated (and in carrying out both obligations under this subclause the Attorney General may consider whether there is a petition pending to confer immigrant status on one or both of such natural parents); and".

Mr. GILMAN (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the amendments be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the initial request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. DELAHUNT. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, and I shall not object, I yield to the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN) to describe the amendment.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. DELAHUNT) for yielding. We have reached an agreement with the Senate on H.R. 2909, the Intercountry Adoption Act. The Senate made modest amendments to this bill which the House passed on July 18, 2000, and the bill we are taking up today includes a further modification as proposed by the House Committee on the Judiciary.

This amendment has been agreed to by the relevant committees on both sides of the aisle and it is acceptable to the Senate as well. This amendment simply clarifies that the Attorney General, in carrying out obligations to satisfy herself that the purpose of a particular adoption is to form a bona fide parent/child relationship in the parent/child relationship of the child and the natural parents has been terminated, may consider whether there is a petition pending to confer immigrant status on one or both birth parents.

The pendency of such a petition may have negative evidentiary value on these issues before the Attorney General. We, therefore, think that this is a reasonable addition to the bill. Accordingly, I urge my colleagues to support this measure.

I want to thank the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. DELAHUNT) for his leadership on this bill.

Mr. DELAHUNT. Mr. Speaker, further reserving the right to object, I am very glad to join my good friend, the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN), the chairman of the Committee on International Relations, in urging support for this bill. I understand the other body has agreed to accept this amendment, and I want to express my appreciation to the chairman of the Subcommittee on Immigration and Claims, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. SMITH); the full chairman of the full Committee on the Judiciary, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. HYDE); and Senators ABRAHAM, KENNEDY and LANDRIEU for all of their efforts to help us resolve the impasse over these final amendments to this important legislation.

The Hague Convention on Inter-country Adoption is of enormous importance to adopted kids and their families, and this implementing legislation is absolutely critical to ensuring that both parents and adoptive families can participate in the intercountry adoption process with full confidence and a greater sense of security.

I want to thank the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN), the ranking member; the gentleman from Connecticut (Mr. GEJDENSON); the gentleman from Connecticut (Mrs. JOHNSON); the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. CAMP), who has worked so hard on so many issues dealing with adoption, and the many other Members on both sides of the aisle who have worked so hard on behalf of this legislation.

Again, I want to thank Senators HELMS, BIDEN and LANDRIEU for working with us in such a bipartisan and bicameral fashion to achieve this splendid result.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, I would be remiss if I did not express my appreciation to a number of staff members without whose dedication and persistence we would not be standing here today. So let me name Kristen Gilley, who is here with us, and David Abramowitz of the Committee on International Relations; Cassie Bevan of the House Committee on Ways and Means staff; George Fishman and Peter Levinson of the Committee on the Judiciary staff; and my own legislative director, Mr. Mark Agrast.

Mr. Speaker, I am very happy to withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the initial request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 6, 1999, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

WHY THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT OWE DUES TO THE UNITED NATIONS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. BARTLETT) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BARTLETT of Maryland. Mr. Speaker, I want to talk for a few minutes this evening about U.N. dues. I am not going to talk about the proposal of the U.N. to levy taxes on the countries of the world, including ours, which frightens a number of our people. Indeed, that is frightening. I am not going to talk about the proposal that
