istrator may extend the 7-year legislative authority for a period not to exceed three years from the date of expiration. Upon expiration of the legislative authority, any previous site and design approvals will also expire."; and

(2) By adding a new subsection (f) as follows:

"(f) The National Capital Planning Commission, in coordination with the Commission of Fine Arts and the National Capital Memorial Commission, shall complete its master plan to guide the location and development of future memorials outside the Reserve for the next 50 years, including evaluation of and guidelines for potential sites."

SEC. 204. PREVIOUSLY APPROVED MEMORIALS.

Nothing in this title shall apply to a memorial whose site was approved, in accordance with the Commemorative Works Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-652; 40 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.), prior to the date of enactment of this title.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I am proud and pleased that today the Senate has voted to authorize a memorial in our Nation's Capital to honor disabled American veterans.

I must say that it is humbling for me to be a co-sponsor of this bill alongside some of the very people we are honoring—my fellow Senators MAX CLELAND, DANIEL INOUE and BOB KERREY. I know there are thousands of others across our country—some of whom I know personally—and they deserve much more than a monument. They all have had their lives disrupted, sometimes painfully, as a result of their willingness to fight for America and all that it stands for.

But we cannot undo the damage to limb and spirit that has already been inflicted. So we now authorize a permanent monument that will call attention to the special esteem we hold for our disabled veterans—living and dead. It is my sincere hope that we can create a singular commemorative site that will encourage all Americans to come, pause, and reflect on the meaning of sacrifice, patriotism, and the place of disabled citizens in our society.

Mr. President, wish the Disabled Veterans' LIFE Memorial Foundation all the best in the hard work to come, and I look forward to the day when the people of America can admire the memorial and reflect on the significant sacrifices it represents.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, JULY 11, 2000

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until the hour of 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 11. I further ask consent that on Tuesday, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then begin a period of morning business until 10:15 a.m., with the time equally divided between Senators ROTH and MOYNIHAN.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, the Senate will be in a period of morning business until 10:15 a.m. tomorrow. Following morning business, a cloture vote will occur on the motion to proceed to H.R. 8, the Death Tax Elimination Act.

If cloture is invoked, the Senate will continue postcloture debate on the motion to proceed. In addition, it is expected that the Senate will resume consideration of the Interior appropriations bill in an effort to make further progress on that bill. As previously announced, it will be the leadership's intention to debate amendments to the DOD authorization bill during evening sessions this week. Any votes ordered on DOD amendments will be postponed to occur the following morning. The Senate is also expected to return to the reconciliation bill late this week. Senators can expect votes each day this week, with late nights and the possibility of a late session on Friday or a session on Saturday in order to complete the reconciliation bill.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:48 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, July 11, 2000, at 9:30 a.m.
