INTRODUCTION OF THE
"QUINEBAUG AND SHETUCKET
RIVERS VALLEY NATIONAL HER-ITAGE CORRIDOR PROTECTION
ACT OF 2001"

HON. ROB SIMMONS

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 10, 2001

Mr. SIMMONS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with my colleague from Massachusetts, RICHARD NEAL, to introduce the "Quinebaug and Shetucket Rivers Valley National Heritage Corridor Protection Act of 2001."

The bill would provide for the implementation of a management plan for the Corridor to protect resources critical to maintaining and interpreting the distinctive character of the Quinebaug and Shetucket Rivers Valley National Heritage Corridor.

Created by Congress in 1999, the Quinebaug-Shetucket Rivers Valley National Heritage Corridor (QSHC) encompasses about 695,000 acres in northeastern Connecticut and south-central Massachusetts.

Called "the Last Green Valley" in the sprawling metropolitan Boston-to-Washington, D.C. corridor, the QSHC has successfully assisted in the development and implementation of integrated cultural, historical, and recreational land resource management programs that has and will continue to retain, enhance and interpret these significant features. But much more needs to be done, which is why Mr. NEAL and I introduced this legislation.

The QSHC will embark on two very significant projects. The Green Valley Institute is an expansion of the successful natural resource education program that will serve as a key educational tool for the scores of volunteers who work on the municipal boards, committees and commissions making those important decisions regarding land use and natural resource conservation. The program will also provide much needed information in estate planning, forestland management, and technical assistance in GIS training and other important technology. The Green Valley Institute may be the single most important program that the QSHC can provide its 35 towns.

The other significant project is the planning and consideration of the Gateway Center proposed for I-395 in Thompson, Connecticut. Many entities in northeast Connecticut and south-central Massachusetts are looking to the QSHC as the unifying element to carry the project forward.

The Gateway Center will fill a significant need for the communities, businesses, attractions and recreational facilities in the region.

It's imperative that the Quinebaug-Shetucket Rivers Valley National Heritage Corridor be given the resources to continue to conserve, celebrate and enhance the significant historical, cultural, natural and scenic resources in the region while at the same time promoting a quality of life based on a strong, healthy economy compatible with the region's character.

The Quinebaug and Shetucket Rivers Valley National Heritage Corridor Protection Act will go a long way toward accomplishing these important goals. I hope my colleagues will join Rep. NEAL and me in support of this worthy initiative.
