

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

TRIBUTE TO TRAVIS HAYWARD

HON. BOB SCHAFFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Mr. Travis Hayward of Ft. Collins, Colorado. Travis looked to the needs of our nation's children by organizing a toy and book drive to benefit those affected by the September 11th terrorist attacks. For this, Mr. Speaker, the United States Congress should commend him.

Travis donated toys and books to the East Harlem Tutorial Program after his elementary school teacher asked her students to donate one stuffed animal to the program. Travis thought this was a good start, but wanted Colorado students to give more. Through a valiant effort, Travis organized his peers to participate in this program. Travis believes a simple stuffed animal could make a difference to a suffering child because it gives them something to hug when they are upset. With the help of his family, Travis hopes to collect 220 stuffed animals and books.

In a recent edition of The Coloradan, Travis' mother, Pat Hayward, said, "We know there are many ways that the community is getting involved, but this is just one of our ways of connecting. We wanted to do a kid-to-kid thing." Travis' dedication and empathy toward children in need epitomizes the compassion of America's youth.

As a citizen of Colorado's Fourth Congressional District, Travis Hayward is truly an amazing, young role model. He not only makes his community proud, but also his state and country. I ask the House to join me in extending its warmest congratulations to Mr. Travis Hayward.

TRIBUTE TO ST. LOUIS CATHOLIC CHURCH 75TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to recognize the St. Louis Catholic Church, which celebrated its 75th Anniversary on Sunday, September 16, 2001. Truly a milestone occasion, this celebration gives testament to the outstanding dedication and commitment of the entire church and community.

Established with the generous donation of four and a half acres by Louis and Mathilda Charbeneau in 1926, the parish of St. Louis began humbly with worship services in a temporary church and a Gym-Church until its final move to Crocker Boulevard. Decades later, with much prayer, sacrifice and hard work, the parish of the St. Louis Catholic Church continues to provide love, care and concern for the entire community.

Active with many organizations, including the Parish Council, Men's Club, Ladies Circle, Senior Club and the Music Ministry, members demonstrate outstanding dedication to community involvement. With Stewardship and Worship Commissions, a Youth Group, and Religious Education for all ages, St. Louis Catholic Church is committed to building sound religious education and service for all its members. Additionally, parishioners have worked hard through the years to reach out to the entire community with charitable services under MCREST and the St. Vincent de Paul Society, as well as serving meals at the Salvation Army. With a devotion to religious education, church activities, and official services, this community will continue to move forward in the mission to improve the lives of people through faith and God.

Although history and time have changed the parish, the spirit of the church has remained strong. I would like to personally congratulate the St. Louis Catholic Church on their 75th Anniversary, and I urge my colleagues to join me in recognizing them on this landmark occasion.

NATIONAL PEARL HARBOR REMEMBRANCE DAY (S. CON. RES. 44)

SPEECH OF

HON. PATSY T. MINK

OF HAWAII

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 27, 2001

Mrs. MINK of Hawaii. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of S. Con. Res. 44, which calls for a National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day in celebration of the 60th anniversary of the December 7, 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor. S. Con. Res. 44 reminds us of the thousands of lives lost that bleak December morning when the Japanese Imperial Navy launched a sneak attack on America. S. Con. Res. 44 is a fitting tribute in remembrance of the lives lost that day and of the more than 12,000 members of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association to whom this Day is also dedicated.

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt said December 7, 1941 was "A day that will live in infamy" and to this very day we remember Pearl Harbor for the thousands of lives that were lost tragically that morning.

Today, Americans old and young find themselves united by the two tragic attacks against this country, 60 years apart. The events of September 11th have presented many with first hand experience of the shocking and frightening realities of a terrorist attack. December 7, 1941 was no less an act of terror and treachery as was September 11, 2001.

Each year on December 7th thousands of people journey to Pearl Harbor, to pay tribute to those who lost their lives on that day. The USS Arizona Memorial sits in Pearl Harbor as a final resting place for more than 900 of the 1,177 men who lost their lives that fateful day in Pearl Harbor. Twelve ships were sunk or beached and nine others were damaged.

Families of deceased members of the crews of the ships lost on December 7, 1941, come to Pearl Harbor to place ashes in the hull of the Arizona memorial or have them scattered in the harbor, tightening the bond of valor and sacrifice for all time.

But December 7, 1941, is much more than just a tragic day in American history. The bombing of Pearl Harbor thrust the United States into World War II, galvanizing our country to fight for freedom in two continents from which America emerged as an international leader.

In the end 16,112,566 went to fight in WWII and 405,399 lost their lives in battle.

The bombing of Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, brought war to the doorsteps of America and drastically challenged our resolve as a nation. It is fitting that we commemorate the 60th anniversary by declaring December 7, 2001, as National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, not only as a reminder of the sacrifices thousands made that this Nation could triumph, but to reflect upon the spirit that continues to sustain us as we face new challenges today in a very dangerous world.

TRIBUTE TO CLIFFORD E.
LAMPMAN

HON. GARY G. MILLER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. GARY G. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep regret that I rise to pay tribute to Clifford Erle Lampman, who passed away on October 28, 2001, leaving the cities that he served in California to mourn the loss of a respected business associate and friend.

After his honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps, he graduated from the University of North Dakota and Denver University with civil engineering degrees. He obtained his Master's degree in Structural Engineering at the University of Southern California and attended Loyola Law School in Los Angeles, California. With the support of his wife, Gwen, he eventually established his own business, Lampman and Associates. Mr. Lampman's expertise in consulting and engineering soon opened doors to contracts with many California cities. Major projects that he successfully completed include the Alameda Corridor Railroad Lowering for Huntington Park and a massive three bridge project for the city of Corona. At the time of his passing, he was working for the city of Placentia as an executive advisor to the first railroad-lowering project in Orange County, known as the Orange Gateway Railroad Lowering Project.

Family, friends and business associates described Mr. Lampman as a visionary, charismatic leader, an inspirational optimist and a devout Christian who opened his heart and home to those in need of support, guidance and prayer. Four brothers and sisters, his wife, Gwen, seven children, nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive him, all who will experience a void that was once filled by his loving personality.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that this 107th Congress join me in celebrating the life and legacy of Mr. Clifford Erle Lampman.

HON. GRACE F. NAPOLITANO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mrs. NAPOLITANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and salute a heroic WWII Navy veteran and a forty-six year resident of the 34th district, Authur Edward Unzueta. Arthur represents the best of what it means to be an American; an individual devoted to both family and country. He served his country courageously and it is because of countless veterans like him that we are able to enjoy the freedoms we do today.

Arthur has had a distinguished naval career in service to his country achieving the rank of Gunner's Mate Third Class UNSR. His awards include, the Navy Good Conduct Medal for exhibiting outstanding performance and conduct during three years of continuous active enlisted service. He was also awarded the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with one silver and four bronze campaign stars for service in the Asiatic-Pacific Theatre and the World War II Victory Medal for service in the United States Armed Forces during the period 1941-1946. In addition, he earned the Philippine Liberation Ribbon, the Philippine Presidential Unit Citation and the American Campaign Medal for service in the American Theatre during WWII. After three years, two months and six days of dedicated service, Arthur was honorably discharged from the United States Navy in January 19, 1946.

The selfless attitude that characterized Arthur during his time in the military is evident in his devotion to his family and home. A resident of the 34th district since 1955, Arthur is the proud parent of three, Gary, Sally and Paula and devoted husband of fifty-three years to Patricia. Today Arthur takes pleasure in his retirement from a long employment at Owen's Illinois, a glass and china manufacturing company, surrounded by his four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and his two beloved boxers.

Arthur is a model American citizen and one I am proud and honored to represent. His bravery and courage have earned him our most heartfelt appreciation and respect. Please join me in thanking Arthur for his service to our country, dedication to the community and devotion to family and home. He remains an example to us all of a true American.

TRIBUTE TO ADVENTIST CHURCH SCHOOLS

HON. BOB SCHAFFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the children of the Adventist Church Schools of Colorado. These children are donating two dollars each to support the children in Afghanistan and victims of the September 11th terrorist attacks. For this, Mr. Speaker, the United States Congress should commend them.

The children in the Colorado division of the Adventist Church Schools have responded to President Bush's call to have America's youth donate one dollar to the children of Afghanistan. Moreover, they are giving an additional dollar to support the children of New York City. There are twenty-one schools in Colorado participating in this program. The money raised will significantly help those in need.

In recognizing these children, Pat Chapman, of the Rocky Mountain Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, said, "The program will benefit a lot of children in Afghanistan, as well, as many children in New York." These exemplary children are excellent role models for our country.

The children in the Colorado division of the Adventist Church Schools are committed to helping in this time of tragedy. They are an example of the dedication and piety of America's youth. I ask the House to join me in extending our warmest congratulations to the children of the Adventist Church Schools of Colorado for their honorable efforts.
