IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 30, 2001

Mrs. TAUSCHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a very special leader in my district. Timothy P. Ryan has served the Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District for over two decades. Mr. Ryan has successfully worked for the betterment of the entire school community as President of the Livermore Board of Trustees, Board Clerk, member of President of the Alameda County School Boards Association, member and President of the Tri-Valley Special Education Local Plan Area Board, and the Regional Occupational Program Board.

Timothy Ryan has served admirably as a leader and advocate for our children and our community. He has helped Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District through some of the most difficult times. Mr. Ryan has proven to be an effective member of the Board, always seeking resolution to Board differences by discovering the wide areas of agreement. His fairness and his Irish humor continues to win over groups.

I take great pride in honoring Timothy P. Ryan's dedication and leadership. His hard work has improved the opportunities for all students throughout the District. Under his direction, Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District has served as a model for schools in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties and throughout the State of California. I believe that school districts across the country should follow Timothy Ryan's example and take the opportunity to learn from his successful and innovative ways.

A TRIBUTE TO HAROLD H. GRAY

HON. BOB SCHAFFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 30, 2001

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, It is my privilege to stand before this great House to honor a man from Colorado's Fourth Congressional District. On January 30, 2001, Mr. Harold H. Gray, of Brush, Colorado, will celebrate his 100th birthday.

Born in the small farming town of Braddyville, Iowa, Mr. Gray and his family moved to the Eastern Plains of Colorado while he was just a small boy, to accommodate for his ailing mother's respiratory problems. During his young and formative years, Harold learned many valuable lessons while helping out with his family's businesses. These lessons prepared him for an active community role of prudent leadership. Whether working at his father's grocery store in Loveland, or at the Riverdale Ranch, near the South Platte River, Harold learned to meet the challenges of small-town commerce along with the difficulties of ranch life.

As an adult living in Brush, Colorado, Harold became a business man, whose dedication to community was marked by great accomplishment. Owner of the Carroll Motor and Carroll Oil companies, Harold was an active participant in the Colorado Auto Dealers Association, Colorado Auto Dealers Insurance Trust along with the Colorado Ford Dealers Advertising Association. Furthermore, he was part of a committee for the Brush Rodeo and the Brush Racing Association. As a result, he joined the Board of Directors and was voted President of the Centennial Race Track. Harold's other community activities have included the Brush Chamber of Commerce, Highway 71 committee, Brush Industrial Park, Rotary Club and the Brush Methodist Church.

Mr. Gray's contributions have been significant. Truly he represents the rural values of Colorado's Fourth Congressional District—hard-work and commitment to the community. Please join me in wishing Harold H. Gray a magnificent 100th birthday. May he enjoy this day and those to come with his family and friends.

JANUARY SCHOOL OF THE MONTH

HON. CAROLYN MCCARTHY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 30, 2001

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Mr. Speaker, I have named Mineola High School in Garden City Park as School of the Month in the Fourth Congressional District for January 2001. I am a proud graduate of Mineola High School in 1962.

I especially want to commend John R. Lewis, Principal of Mineola High, and Dr. Harry Jaroslaw, the Superintendent of Schools for the Mineola School District.

I loved my time at Mineola High and my solid education there prepared me for the rest of my life. I still use the lessons I learned at Mineola.

Unique opportunities await Mineola High students. They can participate in the Work Experience Program for school credit, while simultaneously earning a paycheck. The Student Service Center harnesses the energy and devotion of students to their community. Within the center, they can volunteer at the Children's Museum, the Ronald McDonald House and nursing homes, just to name a few. Also, programs such as the leadership council and peer support and mediation foster student-to-student involvement.

Each year, I present an award in the name of my late husband, Dennis McCarthy, to a Mineola High School student who has struggled through adversity and difficult times and made the best of it. This award is one of the things I do to keep Dennis' memory alive. At Mineola High, there are so many special students it's so hard to choose!

Mineola High has received numerous awards in recognition of the school's excellence, including the Eleanor Roosevelt Community Service Award, Newsday's Long Island High School of the Year for Community Service and the New York State Governor's Commendation. All of the awards demonstrate the school's dedication to involving students in the community.

In 2000, 84 percent of Mineola's senior class went to college, 57 percent to 4-year colleges. Of the last graduating class, 55 percent of all students received Regents seals on their diplomas, including 14 students who earned Regents diplomas with honors.

The outstanding academic record and the dedication of Mineola's administrators and staff demonstrate it is indeed a school of the month and a school vital to Long Island's future.

HONORING EDNA GARABEDIAN,
BORIS NIXON, AND DIANE NIXON

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 30, 2001

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Edna Garabedian, Boris Nixon, and Diane Nixon for their contributions to the California Opera Association.

The California Opera Association was incorporated as a California non-profit corporation May 4, 2000. The association is dedicated to enhance public awareness of the role of arts in California through activities and services in the field. In addition to forming partnerships with community organizations, California Opera Association will participate in local, regional, national and international events designed to enhance good will and to support and encourage civic and community growth.

Edna Garabedian is one of the founding directors of the California Opera Association. She is a world-renowned Mezzo-Soprano who has performed throughout the U.S. and Europe. Ms. Garabedian was the founder of the Fresno International Grand Opera and has held the distinction of chairperson of voice and opera at several major universities.

Boris Nixon is a featured cellist with the Fresno Philharmonic Orchestra. He has performed with various symphony orchestras throughout the United States and he is also one of the founding directors of the California Opera Association. Mr. Nixon has collaborated with the Music Performance Trust Fund of America and Young Audiences of America to stress the importance of keeping music in the schools and expanding work and career opportunities for professional musicians.

Diane Nixon is an educator and musician, who is currently completing her pre-med requirements to become a physician. Ms. Nixon is also a founding director of the California Opera Association and has traveled extensively throughout the United States and Europe attending and studying International Operas and Special Arts Festivals for the disabled. Her goal is to focus on integrating and embracing the often-neglected populations, such as the disabled, disadvantaged and elderly, into the creation and consumption of the performing arts.

Mr. Speaker, I want to congratulate Edna Garabedian, Boris Nixon and Diane Nixon for their contributions to the California Opera Association. I urge my colleagues to join me in wishing Ms. Garabedian, Mr. Nixon and Ms. Nixon many more years of continued success.
