

TRIBUTE TO ATK AMMUNITION PLANT

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. GRAVES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate ATK and its Lake City Ammunition Plant located near Independence, Missouri, for their efforts in providing the United States Military with high quality ammunition while at the same time reducing their impact on the environment.

This week, the U.S. Army will present Lake City Ammunition Plant with its Secretary of the Army Environment Quality Award for an industrial installation. The Secretary of the Army recognizes the efforts of the Lake City Army Ammunition Plant to improve the environment. The Plant has reduced its hazardous waste generation rate by sixty percent eliminating twenty tons of air emissions per year. At the same time, it has operated in compliance with twenty-five different environmental permits and recycled over fifty-five hundred tons of material.

Through the hard work of nearly eight hundred fifty employees, the Lake City Ammunition Plant has proven that it can continue to be the largest supplier of small caliber ammunition to the United States Department of Defense, while retaining a superb record on the environment.

Again, I congratulate and commend ATK and the employees of Lake City Ammunition Plant for their excellent record on the environment and congratulate them for receiving the Secretary of the Army Environmental Quality Award.

TRIBUTE TO PROFESSOR THERKEL
STRAEDE

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, I invite my colleagues today to join me in paying tribute to Professor Therkel Straede, a remarkable scholar who has put together an important exhibition of photographs of the rescue of Danish Jews in 1943. The exhibition shows how the Danish people acted as the keepers of basic human decency and saved almost the entire Jewish community of Denmark. At a time when most of Europe was oppressed by Nazi tyranny, which was the antithesis of humanity, decency, and brotherhood, the Danes showed great humanity despite tremendous personal risk.

Mr. Speaker, since 1995 Dr. Therkel Straede has been a Professor of Modern German History and Holocaust Studies at Odense University in Denmark. During the period 1988–1992 he was a member of a research team at Ruhr-University at Bochum, Germany. There he researched the history of the German automobile company Volkswagen A.G., and the use of forced labor by Volkswagen during the 3rd Reich. He has recorded testimonies of more than a 120 survivors and is producing a monograph on the subject.

Dr. Straede has focused most of his work and studies on the Holocaust, and he is a founding member of the Danish National Committee for the Counseling of Victims of Nazi German Persecution, Forced Labor and Genocide. He has received scholarships at the Technical University of Berlin (1986) and the Institute for German History in Tel-Aviv (1992). He was a Fulbright visiting researcher at the Georgetown University at the Center for German and European Studies in 1998–99 and an associate scholar of the Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the US Holocaust Memorial Museum in 1999. Currently, Dr. Straede is writing a series of articles on a number of German concentration camps for the US Holocaust Memorial Museum's Encyclopedia of Nazi Camps.

The traveling exhibit on the rescue of the Danish Jews, of which Dr. Straede is the curator, has been displayed in more than 100 locations in 27 different countries. On May 2, 2001, it will be on display in the Rotunda of the Russell Senate Office Building. With the help of Project Judaica Foundation Inc., the exhibition will hereafter be on display at a number of locations in the United States.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all of my colleagues to take a moment out of their busy schedules to visit this worthwhile exhibit while it is here in Washington at the Russell Rotunda.

Mr. Speaker, I want to pay tribute to Dr. Therkel Straede for his thorough work on the history of Holocaust, and his diligent documentation of the details of the Nazi use of slave labor. We can all learn a valuable lesson from Dr. Straede's work; even a force of evil as powerful as the Nazi regime can be beaten by dedicated people committed to common human decency. I believe this is best shown in the spontaneous and courageous rescue action of the Danish people in 1943.

TRIBUTE TO MS. LEE REEVES

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. ROGERS. Mr. Speaker, today, I rise to honor the accomplishments of Ms. Lee Reeves of Pinckney, Michigan. Ms. Reeves has recently been named a Women of Distinction by the Girl Scouts of the Huron Valley Council of Ann Arbor, Michigan. This honor is in recognition of her excellence in business ethics and volunteerism. As the current President of the Howell Chamber of Commerce, Ms. Reeves has greatly enhanced the quality and scope of the programs offered to its members. Her work at the Chamber has increased both membership and financial capabilities.

Ms. Reeves leadership abilities have impacted not only the Chamber, but also the community at large. Her community focus is indicated through the initiation of such programs as the "Drug-Free Workplace" and the Howell Public Schools mentor program. Ms. Reeves has also participated in numerous community organizations such as the Livingston County Substance Abuse Prevention Coalition and the Livingston County Child and Family Services Board.

This brief commentary only scratches the surface of the professional and community contributions of Ms. Reeves. Above all else Ms. Lee Reeves is a woman of integrity. Her professional and community leadership demonstrates a personal vision with a societal focus which I respectfully ask my House colleagues to recognize.

HONORING THE LATE FLORIDA
GOVERNOR LAWTON CHILES AND
DR. HORACIO AGUIRRE ON BEING NAMED RECIPIENTS OF THE GREAT FLORIDIAN AWARD

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to offer my heartfelt congratulations to Florida's late Governor and United States Senator Lawton Chiles and Diario Las Americas newspaper publisher Dr. Horacio Aguirre on the occasion of being named recipients of the Great Floridian award. This award, which is presented periodically, symbolizes the everlasting contributions these two individuals have made to the state of Florida. I am proud to stand before this body and honor these two great Floridians.

From the moment he was first elected to the Florida State House of Representatives in 1958, until his untimely death in 1998, Lawton Chiles was a household name in Florida politics. As a boy, Lawton Chiles dreamed of becoming a United States Senator. In 1970, after eight years in the Florida House and four years in the Florida State Senate, his dream came true when he was elected to the first of three consecutive terms in the United States Senate. After deciding not to run for reelection in 1988, Lawton Chiles successfully ran for governor of Florida in 1990, a position he proudly held until 1998. Throughout his career, Governor Chiles represented the people of Florida with honor and conviction. Whether it is providing health insurance for all children or working to restore Florida's Everglades, the work Governor Chiles did, and the programs he supported, made the lives of millions of Floridians better. It is for his hard work and dedication to the issues he cared about, that Governor Chiles is considered by many to be one of the most successful and respected public officials in the later half of the 20th century.

Dr. Horacio Aguirre, co-founder of Miami's oldest Spanish-language newspaper, is one of the most influential Hispanics in Florida. Dr. Aguirre was born in 1925 in New Orleans, Louisiana, to two Nicaraguan parents. In 1950, Dr. Aguirre completed his studies at the University of Panama, where he earned degrees in law and political science. In 1953, with the help of his brother Francisco, Dr. Aguirre founded Diario Las Americas. As the editor and chief editorial writer, Dr. Aguirre has helped shape the views and images of Miami's Spanish-speaking community. He has served as President of the Inter American Press Association, as well as a member of various newspaper and editorial organizations. Today, Diario Las Americas is read by thousands of South Floridians every day. Spanish and non-Spanish speakers alike look to Diario Las Americas for the views and concerns of Miami's Hispanic community.

Mr. Speaker, the people of Florida have benefitted from the actions and accomplishments of the two gentlemen I speak of today.

The late Governor Lawton Chiles and Dr. Horacio Aguirre are worthy of the praises of the people of Florida as well as the members of the House of Representatives. They are both great Floridians and Americans.

TRIBUTE TO THE COMMUNITY HEALTH AGENCY OF ATTLEBORO, MASSACHUSETTS

HON. JAMES P. McGOVERN

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. McGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to applaud the Community Health Agency of Attleboro, Massachusetts. In 1910, town and church officials approached Rena Rounselle, President of the Murray Church Mission Circle, with a challenge. Would she be interested in forming some sort of nursing service for the health and welfare of the citizens of Attleboro?

The ensuing years resulted in clinics for tuberculosis, family welfare, school nurses, new baby welfare, and a myriad of other services. The local pharmacy, doctors, and dentists in the area cooperated and a network of health care professionals to care for the needs of the community was established. Funding, at best, was haphazard—running the gauntlet of tag days, tuberculosis Christmas seals, and very small patient fees.

The present day program has evolved and is now called Community Health Agency, Inc. It encompasses the nine cities and towns in the area and provides skilled nursing care, therapists, home health aids, and hospice to the region. Throughout the years, this agency has provided the citizens of this community with services during times of great stress to the patients and their families. It is important that the elderly, as well as other community members, have the resources to assist them with their health needs, and accordingly, the agency provides a network of services to assist them. Compassionate and dedicated care by professional and well trained medical staff is the foundation for quality care in the region. Thank you.

I applaud the services that they provide and look forward to the coming years with the hope that the agency will continue to provide services that are so desperately needed.

TRIBUTE TO NICHOLAS W. INMAN

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, it has come to my attention that Nicholas Inman, of Marshfield, MO, will be retiring as host of the Webster County Opry on May 4, 2001.

In 1997, as a 15 year old boy, Nicholas had a vision to bring quality entertainment and a new tradition of Ozark music to Webster County. Although he faced many obstacles and challenges Nicholas' dream has grown into a reality, known today as the Webster County Opry. His many accomplishments include increasing the Opry membership from eight to 50, welcoming numerous local celebrities and hosting and producing every show in the four year history of the Opry. Nicholas has also received and deserved praise from the late Governor Mel Carnahan and former First Lady Barbara Bush.

Mr. Speaker, Nicholas Inman dedicated himself to the establishment and growth of the Webster County Opry. The joy he brought to so many is indeed commendable. I am certain that the Members of the House will join me in wishing him all the best.

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. OLVER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate the students of Williston Northampton

School in Easthampton, MA for their excellence in academic competition. Under the tutelage of Mr. Peter Gunn, these young people have shown an acute knowledge of the Constitution and its Amendments, in particular the Bill of Rights.

HONORING TOM SAWYER

HON. GARY A. CONDIT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 1, 2001

Mr. CONDIT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the distinguished career of my good friend Merced County Sheriff-Coroner Tom Sawyer. Today, Tom retires after 34 years as a peace officer. True to his nature, he is only stepping aside from one venture to begin another.

I have had the privilege of working with Tom on a wide variety of issues since his earlier service with the California Highway Patrol. He is a respected member of the law enforcement community and is known for his dedication to the community.

Tom has worked on many statewide issues. He serves on the California State Board of Corrections and was instrumental in establishing the Central Valley High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area, where he continues to serve as the Intelligence Committee chairman. Since becoming sheriff he has overseen a department that has grown by leaps and bounds.

He has been successful working with the COPs program to put more deputies on the street. He has worked tirelessly to expand the presence of the Merced County Sheriff's Department to transform his vision of improved correctional facilities and the department's relationship with the community. He has done each of these remarkably well.

One prime example is the Explorer Scouts program. When he began his tenure as sheriff, the group consisted of 8 members. Now, I am proud to report to my colleagues, the program thrives with more than 150 outstanding young men and women. Volunteerism is up and through Tom's leadership new substations help secure and ensure the safety of our communities. He has guided the department through growth in many areas including an impressive search and rescue system on land, water and in the air.
