FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ON THE BUDGET, FISCAL YEAR 2002

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON). Pursuant to the order of the House of Thursday, March 22, 2001, and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for further debate on the subject of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2002.

□ 1859

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for further debate on the subject of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2002, with Mrs. BIGGERT (Chairman pro tempore) in the chair.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. When the Committee of the Whole rose earlier today, the following time remained for debate:

The gentleman from Iowa (Mr. NUSSLE) has 47 minutes remaining; the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. SPRATT) has 51 minutes remaining; the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SAXTON) has 10 minutes remaining; and the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK) has 23½ minutes remaining.

The Chair understands that the time remaining for the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SAXTON) is to be yielded to the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. NUSSLE). Without objection, that will be the order. Therefore, the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. NUSSLE) has 57 minutes remaining.

There was no objection.

Mr. NUSSLE. Madam Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Arizona (Mr. STUMP), the chairman of the Committee on Armed Services, for the purpose of a colloquy.

Mr. STUMP. Madam Chairman, I understand that the resolution before us contains a provision that would establish a reserve fund for fiscal year 2002 that would permit Congress to consider a possible amended budget request from the President for additional defense spending.

Mr. NUSSLE. Madam Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. STUMP. I yield to the gentleman from Iowa.

Mr. NUSSLE. Madam Chairman, the gentleman is correct.

Mr. STUMP. Madam Chairman, as the gentleman knows, the Secretary of Defense is engaged in a top down strategic review of the missions, processes and requirements of the military. I expect that this review will lead to an amended budget process for national defense by the President later this spring or early summer.

Could the gentleman clarify the processes by which resources from the strategic reserve fund would be made available to support such an amended budget request and how this process would apply to the annual defense authorization legislation?

Mr. NUSSLE. Madam Chairman, if the gentleman will again yield, the resolution permits the adjustment of the 302(a) allocation aggregates and functional totals to reflect authorization and appropriations legislation reported by July 11 of this year if such legislation exceeds the allocations contained in this concurrent budget resolution. The appropriation totals for the reported bills would be adjusted by the chairman of the Committee on the
