

will not provide them with an adequate level of supplemental income in retirement.

Although there is insufficient data to measure contributions and benefits, data from the Federal Reserve shows pension plan contributions declining by 50 percent in recent years. The underlying bill could be strengthened to ensure opportunities for those low- and moderate-income workers with few or no opportunities to save. We must continue to work together to improve this aspect of the bill.

Statistics confirm that low-income workers are far less likely to participate in an employment-based retirement saving plan than workers with higher incomes, even when the plan is available to them. Only 29 percent of full-time workers with earnings below $20,000 annually are covered by pensions. On the other hand, 76 percent of those earning above $60,000 annually have coverage.

During consideration of the underlying bill, my colleagues, the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL) and the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. NEAL) will offer a substitute which incorporates the text of H.R. 10, as well as provisions to encourage the participation of low-income workers.

Specifically, the substitute provides a refundable credit for low- and middle-income workers who save for their retirement; and it makes small business employees eligible to claim a tax credit for establishing a qualified pension plan. That is most important.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support these important improvements to the bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the resolution.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Ms. SLAUGHTER. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, this 15-minute vote on adopting the resolution will be followed by a 5-minute vote on approving the Journal.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 404, nays 24, not voting 3, as follows:

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, today, I was unavoidably detained and missed rollcall votes Nos. 92 and 93. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on both the rule on H.R. 10 and on approving the Journal.
