Members of Congress are furious and outraged, but we will be thoughtful and deliberative in our response. Above all, we will support our Commander-in-Chief.

As Congress and our President decide how America should respond, we must be sure to remember Benjamin Franklin's warning that those who "give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate by Mr. Monahan, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate has passed a bill of the following title which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S.J. Res. 22. Joint Resolution expressing the sense of the Senate and House of Representatives regarding the terrorist attacks launched against the United States on September 11, 2001.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION WAIVING REQUIREMENT OF CLAUSE 6(a) OF RULE XIII WITH RESPECT TO CONSIDERATION OF CERTAIN RESOLUTIONS

Mrs. MYRICK, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 107-204) on the resolution (H. Res. 236) waiving a requirement of clause 6(a) of rule XIII with respect to consideration of certain resolutions reported from the Committee on Rules, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

AMERICA WILL NOT REST UNTIL TERRORISTS ARE BROUGHT TO JUSTICE BEFORE THE WORLD

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, as the profound tragedies in New York, Pennsylvania, and Washington flashed before the world, I was struck again by the greatness of our people, their valor, their order, their dignity; indeed, their actions of honor, one by one, shown to the world, loving mercy more than life itself.

As one Member, I can certainly say our Nation will not rest until the terrorists responsible for yesterday's carnage are brought to justice before the entire world.

I have also been overwhelmed by the outpouring of sympathy that our office is receiving from throughout the world. We thank President Putin. We thank the Prime Minister of Great Britain, Tony Blair, and all the world leaders who are sending us condolences and sympathies to our people.

But yesterday I received another offer of sympathy, this time from a Roman Catholic vicar general from the nation of Ukraine:

I would like to present to you and through you, Congresswoman, to all the American people our condolences because of the terrible tragedy that has stricken the whole world.

As the profound tragedies in New York, Washington, and Pennsylvania flashed before the world, I was struck again by the greatness of our people—their valor, their order, their dignity. Indeed, their acts of honor—one by one shown to the world. At every turn loving mercy more than life. To America's enemies let me say; our Nation will not rest until the terrorists responsible for yesterday's carnage are brought to justice before the entire world.

I have also been overwhelmed by the outpouring of sympathy coming to our people from throughout the world—President Putin, Prime Minister Blair of Great Britain.

I would like to present to You and Through You—to all the American people—our condolences because of the terrible tragedy that has stricken the whole world.

We have been very shaken to learn about a series of acts of terrorism that happened in the United States of America yesterday.

It has been an awful blow by its cruelty and scale that struck not only the USA but all humanity. I received the notice during spiritual retreats in our Higher Spiritual Seminary [in Vorzel] where all priests of our Diocese came. As a sign of our unity and sympathy in your grief we celebrated Holy Mass for the souls of the departed and prayed for all victims. May the Lord strengthen them by His grace that they may outlive this horrible disaster.

In all our churches there are Divine Services and prayers said for the souls of the departed victims and for all those who have suffered.

These days our hearts and our prayers are with your people.

Sincerely Yours,

BISHOP STANISLAW SHYROKORADIUK,
Roman Catholic Vicar General Ukraine.
