

began, 88 percent. A 1999 survey of physicians and nurses reported that 72 percent of physicians and 78 percent of nurses believed that managed care has decreased the quality of care for people who are sick.

In addition, Republican pollster, Linda Divall, did a post-election poll right after this last election of issues that the new President and the newly elected Congress should work together on to accomplish for the good of the country. In every group, men, stay-at-home moms, working women, a Patients' Bill of Rights was at the top of the list.

Madam Speaker, the American public wants and deserves a strong patient Bill of Rights now, this year. It is time for us to put on the President's desk a bill like the Ganske-Dingell bill or the McCain-Edwards bill. We need to get it signed into law, Madam Speaker.

Millions of people are having decisions that HMOs are making today. To go back to what I started about at the beginning of the speech, for anyone to say that people are not having any problems with HMO, I would just have to say, what world are they living in?
