

because we now are beset with industries from all over the country coming to Capitol Hill knocking on our door and saying: You gave all that money to the airlines. You bailed them out. You covered all their losses through December 31, 2001. You paid them not just for the days the Government shut them down by Government edict; you covered all their losses through the end of the year.

Other industries are now saying to leaders in Washington: Why are we different? Why shouldn't we get a bailout? We have hotels that are empty. We have car rental firms that are hovering near insolvency because they do not have any customers. We have many of the suppliers for airlines—I was approached by a company in Illinois that supplies food for the airlines, and they believed they were entitled to a bailout.

We have industries of all sorts that have come asking us for help, and because of the precedent we set in the airline industry bill, we do not know how to tell these other industries that they are not entitled to help.

We should have carved aside a generous portion in that initial bill for workers in the airline industry. Senator CARNAHAN's amendment will get this done. I support it, and I urge colleagues to vote in favor of it. It would be a miscarriage of justice; it would compound the injustice we have already perpetrated if we were to let stand a bailout for sophisticated investors while we left all the airline industry employees twisting in the wind. We cannot allow that to stand. We have to correct that injustice.

Many of these employees who have been furloughed maybe never had a nickel to invest in the market in the first place. They are worried about how they are going to pay their mortgage, or how they are going to pay their rent, or how they are going to feed their families while they are laid off. Meanwhile, many investors who should have appreciated the risk of investing in the airline industry were bailed out, but the skycap got the boot. We have to correct that.

I am pleased to stand with the Senator from Missouri in support of this legislation. I urge all my colleagues to vote in favor of it.

Mr. President, I thank you for your indulgence at this late hour and appreciate your attention. I yield the floor.
