

of Fort Scott, about 40 miles away. It was an old Indian fort early on. Then it was used, obviously, as well, during the Civil War.

In a concession to make space for veterans wanting to be buried at the Fort Scott National Cemetery, burial spots are currently being made smaller, and sloping land that originally was deemed unusable is now being used.

Thanks to the extraordinary efforts of these veterans I have mentioned, these 13 veterans, working as the Fort Scott National Cemetery Expansion Committee, 10 acres of land will be added to the cemetery. This land, just across the old stone wall from the cemetery, was purchased by the 13 veterans, who took out a loan, and who then sought contributions and worked the crowds at American Legion and VFW halls throughout the region to raise money to pay off the loan. Once the loan was paid off, the veterans donated the land to the Department of Veterans Affairs.

On Veterans Day, this year, November 12, 2001, this land will be dedicated and ready to handle about 3,300 burial sites. I applaud the initiative of these Fort Scott veterans who have successfully undertaken the effort to expand this historic cemetery and provide a place of honor for veterans and their eligible dependents for several decades to come.

I point this out because Fort Scott National Cemetery is one of the oldest veterans cemeteries in the country, dedicated by Abraham Lincoln. It is filled up—or soon will be full. These veterans, by their own initiative, secured the loan, purchased the land, got the loan paid off, and donated it to the Department of Veterans Affairs, which is receiving the land, and now will be able to provide an additional 3,300 burial sites for veterans.

I think that this is such a commendable thing that these veterans have done. I will be there on November 12, along with a number of other people, to recognize and honor what these men have done. I think it is wholly appropriate to recognize what they have done in this body as well.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Morning business is closed.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2002—Continued

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, there are now 20 minutes of debate evenly divided on the Hutchison amendment. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Louisiana.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I understood it was 30 minutes equally divided.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I suggest the Senator from Connecticut be recognized—and this has been cleared on both sides—as in morning business for 7 minutes.

(The remarks of Mr. DODD are printed in today's RECORD under "Morning Business.")

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has used his 7 minutes.

Mr. DODD. I thank my colleagues.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, so there is no misunderstanding, I have spoken with Senator LANDRIEU and Senator HUTCHISON, and the unanimous consent request Senator LANDRIEU made takes 3½ minutes off each side.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is the Chair's understanding.

Who yields time?

The Senator from Texas.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, I want to use 5 minutes and be informed at the end of 5 minutes so Senator DURBIN may take the floor, and I would like to reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator will be notified.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. I thank the Chair.

Mr. President, my amendment attempts to be a compromise between those who wish to take the caps off the attorney's fees for suing the District of Columbia School District and what I think is a quite reasonable approach, which is to keep the caps but raise them.

For the last 3 years, we have had caps on attorney's fees. That was made necessary because of the exorbitant fees that were being charged to the District, and that was money coming directly out of the education system. In fact, before the caps were put in place, attorney's fees represented $14 million of the DC school budget. Since the caps have been put in place, we have had a figure of $3.5 million per year average for attorney's fees, and the extra $10.5 million has been able to go into the services we are seeking to provide for handicapped and special needs children.

Moreover, we have been informed by the District of some of the excessive fees that were being billed before the caps. This is billing the school district for plaintiff's lawyer fees when the plaintiff has been successful. One attorney before the caps individually made $1.4 million in fees in 1 year suing the District of Columbia schools.

Another law firm billed over $5 million in a single year to the District of Columbia schools. Submission of a variety of questionable expenses, including flowers, ski trips, and even a trip to New Orleans ostensibly made to scout out private schools far from the District that might be able to accommodate special needs students.

The reason we are trying to put some reasonable caps on these attorney's fees and excessive billings is so the money will go into education. Our amendment has a cap of $150 an hour. If a lawyer billed 2,000 hours at $150 an hour, that would be a $300,000 annual income.

So, we are not saying lawyers should not make a reasonable amount, and we are certainly not subjecting parents to lawyers who cannot make a living. I think $150 an hour is quite respectable. That is why we have tried to reach out to the other side and do something that is reasonable but not exorbitant.

We are trying to help the District of Columbia schools. We have a letter from the superintendent of schools and the president of the school board requesting us to take this action. They are very concerned that millions of dollars will go into lawyer's fees rather than to improve the services they give. In fact, they are increasing the number of teachers for special needs students. They are increasing the amount of medical equipment for these special needs students, and that is exactly what we want them to do. So I am trying to be helpful to the DC schools. Educators are the ones who can best determine need.

Our amendment also has an out; that if the District itself believes the caps are too low, they have the ability to override this amendment and this act of Congress and increase the fee caps, with the mayor and the school district working together.

I think that takes care of letting the local people have a final decision, doing what they have asked us to do in putting on reasonable caps, as they are trying to do the very difficult job of providing a quality education for all the students of the District of Columbia.

I was the chairman of the DC Subcommittee and I want so much to do what is right for the District. I learned their needs, and I worked with the mayor and the school representatives to try to give them the tools to do the job they are doing. That is why I feel strongly enough to offer this amendment so the millions of dollars that have been actually assessed against the school, even though it was against the law by one of the judges, will not be able to be collected. It would be against the Federal law for retroactive fees to be collected.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has used 5 minutes.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. I will stop there, and I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

The Senator from Illinois.

Mr. DURBIN. I believe the chair of our subcommittee has yielded her remaining time in debate to me.

I ask the Senator from Texas a simple question, and a yes or no answer would suffice. We are talking about limiting the fees paid to attorneys who represent children who are trying to get into special education. Could the Senator from Texas tell me, is there a law in her home State of Texas limiting the fees paid to attorneys in her State who represent children in special education cases?

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, I thank the Senator for the question because, of course, there are not those kinds of limits in Texas, but neither does the State of Texas get 20 percent of its budget from the Federal Government. The Federal Government has the constitutional role of making sure the District runs. That is why we have taken on 23 percent of the Federal budget.

Mr. DURBIN. I thank the Senator from Texas for responding to my question.

Reclaiming my time, Mr. President.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. That is why we make sure the Federal taxpayer dollars are used wisely.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois has the time.

Mr. DURBIN. I thank the Senator from Texas.

The answer was no. It was a long answer, but the answer was no, in Texas there is no limit on the amount of money paid in her home State to attorneys representing the families of children who are seeking special education. But she is saying with her amendment we are going to change that rule in the District of Columbia. No other State in the Nation has done what the Senator from Texas wants to do to the District of Columbia.

What is this all about? It is about a law passed by Congress which said we want to give kids with disabilities a chance for an education. We know sometimes when they try to seek that education they have to put up a fight. The school board says, no, we cannot put them in a special education class. If they put up a fight, they have to hire a lawyer to go through an administrative hearing.

The law we passed, for which many of us voted, said if the family prevails, if the child goes into special education, the court can decide to pay the attorney's fees for the family. Otherwise, what would happen? Exactly what has happened in the District of Columbia right now because of Senator HUTCHISON's amendment the previous years.

Poor kids from poor families cannot afford lawyers. As a result, they do not get representation. They do not get a chance to go into special education classes.

Senator HUTCHISON wants to limit the attorney's fees to stop the poor children in the District of Columbia who are seeking special education to have a legal voice in the process. That is just plain wrong. If the Senator wants to repeal the Children with Disabilities Act as it applies all across America, let her offer the amendment. I would vote against it, but it would be a fair amendment.

What she is doing is zeroing in on this town because some Members of the Senate and the House cannot help themselves from playing the role of city councilman and mayor. They just love it. They will not leave to the District of Columbia the power to make its own decisions. They want to make the decisions for it. Whether we give the District of Columbia 10 percent or 20 percent of the money it spends, the fact is it is responsible under the same laws as every State in the Union.

My colleagues ought to see the letters I received in opposition to the Hutchison amendment. The Senator from Texas would have us believe this is a battle over whether or not lawyers get paid. This letter I received from the Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities makes it clear all of these organizations—and these are not bar associations, I might say for the record: Easter Seals, the American Occupational Therapy Association, Higher Education Consortium for Special Education, Council for Learning Disabilities, Council for Exceptional Children, Epilepsy Foundation, Helen Keller National Center—oppose the Hutchison amendment.

If it was such a wonderful idea to stop paying the attorney's fees so we could give money for special education, would you not think these groups that represent disabled kids would be in favor of this amendment?

They know better. They know what Senator HUTCHISON is doing. She is taking away the legal voice of the poorest kids in the District of Columbia.

Then we received letters from some lawyers, and the lawyers tell us what has happened as a result of the Hutchison amendment over the last 3 years. The number of hearings filed in 1998, before the Hutchison amendment, for special education purposes in the District of Columbia: 2,140. As of last year, that number was cut more than 50 percent to 1,011—more than a 50-percent drop.

Why? Because the poorest kids in the District of Columbia who cannot afford to have their families pay for a lawyer cannot get to court, cannot get into special education. Imagine the life of that small child which has been decided at an early age, which says that whether they have a learning disability, a physical handicap, or a mental disability, they do not have a chance. If the District of Columbia school system turns them down, they are finished because under Senator HUTCHISON's amendment they would limit the attorneys to being paid $3,000 and not one penny more.

I want to say something about the attorneys who are involved in this. I made a statement earlier, but I want to make sure it is clear in the RECORD. The men and women involved in this practice are doing a great service to the families and a great service to our Nation, giving these kids a chance for special education to receive their fullest potential. The fact is, if we hold the fees to $3,000 as a maximum in these cases, many attorneys cannot afford to take the case and, sadly, some taking these cases are not prepared to deal with them because they frankly cannot put in the time necessary to be successful.

The worst part of the Hutchison amendment is the fact that even though each year she continues to pass this along, to stop the poor kids in the District of Columbia from having access to special education, the courts have said they are going to ignore it. They continue to award attorney's fees to these firms. Now the District of Columbia cannot pay out anything more than Senator HUTCHISON has allowed them, but the amount of money that the District still owes to these attorneys is there and continues to earn interest and grow. It is a huge element of debt for the District of Columbia that is not being served by the amendment of the Senator from Texas.

I urge all Members to think about the simple justice of this situation. Senator HUTCHISON says she is just declaring war on trial lawyers. Very few trial lawyers are going to take on cases involving special education. It takes a special attorney with a special dedication to make it happen. She may pick or choose some of the attorney's fees, if a particular fee is excessive, but each has to be approved by the court. If that court and that judge make a decision under the law, we have said that is the way it will apply to Texas, to Louisiana, and to the State of Illinois. But at this point in time, to take this city, the Nation's Capital, and say DC children will be denied access to special education at a time when all of the major disability groups beg us to vote against the Hutchison amendment is unfair.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, how much time remains on both sides?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Texas has 6 minutes 19 seconds, and the Senator from Illinois has 6 minutes 15 seconds.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, please notify me when I have used 4 minutes. I want the right to close on my amendment. I will then yield to the Senator from Illinois.

Mr. President, I will discuss some of the issues raised by the Senator from Illinois. First, he says the number and quality of attorneys who take special education cases has declined since the imposition of the cap. This is not supported by the facts. The number of attorney representations in 1997 before the caps were put into place was over 2,000. Last year, there were 1,700 such representations. We have not seen a steep decline in the number of attorneys willing to take these cases. Most certainly, $125 an hour, which is what used to be the cap, and $150, which we are proposing, makes a good living for a person.

A lawyer working 2,000 hours in a year earns $300,000 with a $150-an-hour fee structure. It is not as if we are looking at people who would not be able to have a quality of life. This is a reasonable amendment.

Second, he made the statement that access to special education will be inhibited, that the disabled students will not be able to get access to this education. Access to special education in the District has improved since the imposition of attorney fee caps in 1999. The backlog of IDEA initial assessments shrank from 1,805 before the caps to 143 as of March 2001. The backlog of hearings has been reduced from 900 to 20 during the same period. Overall expenditures for special education in the District have increased 38 percent since the caps were imposed. The number of new special education placements, the number of children who have been able to be served, has increased from 8,120 before the fee caps to 11,991 last year. The argument that children are being denied access is not supported by the facts. More children have been able to be accommodated because the money is going into special education and not into the coffers of lawyers.

The Senator talks about who is against my amendment. Let's talk about who is for my amendment. The school board of the District of Columbia is elected by the people of the District. They are for this amendment. They have asked the caps be left in place because they know the money can go into education, and they are very concerned if the caps go off and the judge who has been awarded lawyer's fees, even against the Federal law, has said he is going to require the District to pay the fees that were illegal, which is a convoluted reasoning, at the very best, but nevertheless the judge has said he is going to do it.

We are told we better lift the caps so the judge can go ahead and do it, and we are told that will be good for the children of the District.

I have not quite gotten that line of thinking. The bottom line is the people elected by the people of the District of Columbia want the caps. They did not ask me to raise the caps. I did that because I was trying to come up with something that would be reasonable, to try to make sure we were not in any way doing something to harm anyone.

My bottom line is when the superintendent of schools and the chairman of the school board, elected by the people of the District, ask me to keep the caps and, for Heavens' sake, not allow a retroactive use of the District's funds to go to lawyers instead of education, to the children of the District, it will not wash.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, it should not come as a surprise the Senator from Texas says since she put a limitation on attorney's fees, few cases are filed. That is no surprise. The poor children in this District looking for special education cannot get attorneys who will do it for $3,000. What happens to those kids? They end up sitting in the back of the classroom, falling behind. They become discouraged and drop out. Then think of the problems that follow in their lives.

What a great solution offered by the Senator. We are keeping out of special education kids who have learning disabilities, mental and physical handicaps. That is the outcome. We can tighten up the system even more, I say to the Senator from Texas, by limiting how many children can go into special education. Then think of how much money would be spent per pupil. That is not fair. It is not just.

When she says we ought to do this because the DC public school board wants it done, I am sorry, I have seen the DC public schools. I have seen reports on them for years. And I frankly think the management of the DC public schools could be a heck of a lot better. It is one of the reasons the District of Columbia, year in and year out, has such poor ratings by the Annie Casey Foundation when it comes to the quality of life for children.

Let me tell you something else the DC public schools did not tell you. The average cost per case before the Hutchison cap for attorney's fees, for those representing kids going into special education, was between $7,500 and $10,000. That is the average. Senator HUTCHISON gives reference to $1 million here and $1 million there. That is not the case.

What you have here is as a result of the Hutchison amendment, the DC city council has said we should keep in mind in voting against the Hutchison amendment—8 out of 13 members of the city council said by putting the Hutchison cap on the payment of fees for those who want to get kids into special education, it makes it more difficult for the kids to get the education to which they are entitled.

It discriminates against low-income families. Make no mistake, if you live in the DC area and you want to get your child into special education, and you are wealthy, you will hire a lawyer. But if you are poor, you are out of luck under the Hutchison amendment. The effect of the cap is to treat the children in the District of Columbia differently than any other State, including the State of Texas.

The way to improve special education, according to the District of Columbia city council, is programmatic. Improve the programs rather than limit the advocacy. The fact is, the inefficiency of the DC public school system, their inability to deal with the legal challenges that face them, has led to this problem.

Although the Hutchison amendment in the last 3 years may have made us feel good about limiting DC liability, we have not done it. During that period of time, the amounts awarded to attorneys for the work they have done have continued to grow and interest has continued to grow. There will be a day of reckoning for the District of Columbia. It is time for us to face reality. These are legitimate debts of the District for attorneys who have represented some of the poorest kids in the District of Columbia. If a cap on attorney's fees in the State of Texas is not a good idea, it is not a good idea in the District of Columbia.

I ask Members to remember the simple fairness that if we stand for special education and access for all children, poor and rich alike, you cannot deny for those poor children the voice and the process they need to get into school. The Hutchison amendment denies to these children and their families a chance for special education. That is wrong. It is unjust. I hope my colleagues will join me in voting against the Hutchison amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Texas.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, how much time is left on both sides?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Texas has 2 minutes and 6 seconds. The Senator from Illinois has 27 seconds.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. I ask the Senator from Illinois if he has any further use for his time or has he yielded back?

I want to address a couple of points made by the Senator from Illinois. He says it is no surprise that since the caps were put in place there were fewer lawsuits filed. No, that is not the issue. The issue is that more students are actually being served and there is no charge by anyone that there is a denial of due process.

In fact, before the caps went into place there were 8,120 special need students in the DC schools. Now there are 11,191. There are only fewer than 50 cases even left pending.

I think the District is now getting a handle on the situation. They are putting more students in the classrooms.

That is because they have the money not going to lawyers but going into education. That is why the elected representatives of the school district have asked that the caps be left in place.

We are raising the caps to keep in step with the times. One hundred and fifty dollars an hour certainly will get a quality lawyer. I think that has been proven. The fact is, before the caps, these were the kinds of abuses that the attorneys made of the system. One attorney, before the caps, earned $1.4 million in fees alone on suing the District schools. One law firm billed over $5 million in fees in a single year, suing the District schools. There were submissions of incredible expenses, asking the District to pay for flowers, for a trip to New Orleans to supposedly scout out another school where they would argue a child should be sent, a ski trip—my goodness.

We need some limitations on these kinds of abuses. That is what the amendment would do.

The District is asking us to do this. It has worked well. It has allowed the District to increase its ability to serve the special needs students and the amendment also allows the mayor and the school superintendent to increase the caps if they think it is necessary.

I urge my colleagues to vote for this amendment for the DC children, the schoolchildren of the District.

Mr. REID. I ask unanimous consent that upon disposition of all amendments to H.R. 2944, the District of Columbia Appropriations bill, the bill be read a third time and the Senate proceed to vote on passage of the bill; that upon passage, the Senate insist on its amendment, request a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses, and that the Chair be authorized to appoint conferees on the part of the Senate, with this action occurring with no intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

All time for the amendment has expired. The Senator from Illinois.

Mr. DURBIN. I move to lay the Hutchison amendment on the table and I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, didn't the unanimous consent agreement say there would be a vote on my amendment? I ask there be a direct vote.

Mrs. BOXER. Reserving the right to object, could we find out if it said "on" or "in relation to." If not, the motion would be in order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. I say to the Senator from Texas, the unanimous consent agreement said the Senate proceed to vote in relation to the Hutchison amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Let me try to clarify it. I may be confused about what we are doing. We had committed to a vote on the Hutchison amendment, which is supposed to be at this time. Then I am aware of no other amendment to this bill, and we could move to final passage.

I am also aware that Senator LEVIN had a request for a colloquy about a subject that he is very interested in. I wanted to bring that to the attention of our leader.

Mr. REID. I say to my friend from Louisiana, I guess the question is whether or not Senator DURBIN's motion to table would be in order and it is according to the unanimous consent agreement. I don't know if there was some other agreement.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant bill clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the order for the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion to table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. I ask for the yeas and nays on the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The question is on agreeing to the amendment. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant bill clerk called the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. JOHNSON). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The amendment (No. 2110) was agreed to.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. REID. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senator CLELAND be recognized to speak in morning business for up to 10 minutes and that following his statement, there be 30 minutes for debate with respect to the Durbin amendment which he will offer and that the time be equally divided and controlled and that no amendments be in order prior to the vote on the amendment.

Mr. DURBIN. Reserving the right to object, I would like to amend that so I have the same opportunity the Senator from Texas had for an up-or-down vote.

Mr. REID. That was done.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Georgia.

(The remarks of Mr. CLELAND pertaining to the introduction of S. 1650 are located in today's RECORD under "Statements on Introduced Bills and Joint Resolutions.")

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois is recognized.

AMENDMENT NO. 2111

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Illinois [Mr. DURBIN], for himself and Mrs. BOXER, proposes an amendment numbered 2111.

At the appropriate place insert the following:

SEC. . The limitation on attorneys fees paid by the District of Columbia for actions brought under I.D.E.A. (20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq) (Sec. 138) shall not apply if the plaintiff is a child who is—

(a) from a family with an annual income or less than $17,600; or

(b) from a family where one of the parents is a disabled veteran; or

(c) where the child has been adjudicated as neglected or abused.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, it is my understanding, pursuant to the unanimous consent request, that there are 30 minutes equally divided. I will not use the 15 minutes on my side.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

Mr. DURBIN. I hope to bring this amendment to a vote quickly.

The purpose of this amendment is to dramatize for those who voted for the Hutchison amendment the types of children who will be affected by the limitation on attorney's fees. Without this Durbin amendment, offered by myself and Senator BOXER from California, literally children from families with less than poverty income, children from families where one of the parents is a disabled veteran, or children from families where there has been adjudication that the child has been neglected or abused would have been limited in being represented in an effort to bring them into a special education class. These kids face learning disabilities and other mental and physical disabilities.

The purpose of this amendment is to say we are making a clear exception to the Hutchison limitation, and that section applies to these three categories—children and the families as they are described in the amendment. I sincerely hope that those who vote for this amendment will pause and reflect on the fact that these are only three categories of children who will be disadvantaged by the Hutchison amendment. There are many others, I am sure, who will come to light as we consider the impact of her amendment.

To think the District of Columbia, the Nation's Capital, would be the one city in the United States of America where we would not give the full protection of the laws to the poorest children is unacceptable. At least with this amendment, children in three categories will have a fighting chance, if they need special education to have any opportunity to be successful in life.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Will the Senator yield for a question?

Mr. DURBIN. I will be glad to yield.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I know the Senator from California is here to speak on the amendment. I think the amendment the Senator from Illinois has offered has a great deal of merit. If we are called to vote on it, we will be happy to vote for this amendment because it points out some of the real problems we are trying to resolve.

My question for the Senator from Illinois is, I have some language that I am prepared to offer requesting the GAO to study some of the costs associated not just with the District but for other districts in the Nation that have comparable demographics and size. Will he mind if we discuss the possibility of including this language as we debate his amendment and perhaps decide to vote on it if that will expedite this process and get to a vote more quickly on this bill?

Mr. DURBIN. I say to the Senator, I consider this a friendly amendment. I want to have a chance to review it while the Senator from California is addressing my amendment. I hope we can find a way to deal with this issue.

I yield 4 minutes to the Senator from California.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from California.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Illinois for his leadership this afternoon on behalf of children and families who perhaps have the softest voice. Why do I say that? It is because these families are struggling with children who have disabilities, who are unable to speak for themselves, who need to get special help in school and sometimes have to fight and struggle and work to get that help.

I believe the amendment that was just adopted by this body on a narrow vote sends a very bad message. It sends a message that disabled children, children in need of special education, simply are not as important as a governmental entity that has an unlimited ability to hire the highest paid attorneys.

In the case of the District, I have learned that, in fact, the District does go to the private sector, does throw the best they can against these children and against their families. There is no limit, as my friend from Illinois pointed out, on the attorneys the school district decides to hire. Yet this onerous amendment that was just adopted quite narrowly treats these children differently.

We have the greatest country in the world, and in these days more than ever we have come to recognize that every minute of every hour of every day. One of the reasons is that before the law, everyone is equal. That is what we stand for: Before the law, everyone is equal.

But when we say to a governmental entity it can pay whatever it wants against a family who has a child in need of special help, but then we restrict the kind of attorney, the number of dollars that can go to fight that child's battle, we are setting up a playing field that is not level.

That is why I am so happy the Senator from Illinois, with the support of the chair of the subcommittee, Senator LANDRIEU, has put forward this amendment for the two of us because what we are saying is: Let's take a look at these children. Let's not just have some vague amendment that says attorney's fees shall be limited. That always looks good on a voting record, but if we dig a little bit, what do these kids look like? A lot of them are living in poverty. A lot of them are abused and neglected. Some have parents, one or two, who served in the military who may be disabled. These families need special help for these special children.

I am very proud to be a cosponsor of this amendment. I look forward to a resounding vote which will, in fact, change the amendment we just adopted and say in these circumstances, which will cover many children I am happy to note, we will not have this double standard.

I thank the Chair, and I reserve the remainder of the time for Senator DURBIN.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. Who yields time?

Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, I ask for 3 minutes to speak in behalf of the Durbin amendment.

Mr. DURBIN. I ask the Senator from Minnesota be yielded 3 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has that right.

Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, I have not had a chance to examine every word of the Durbin amendment, but my understanding of what the Senator from Illinois has said is when it comes to making sure parents of children with disabilities have legal representation if they need it to make an appeal for their children whom they believe are not receiving the support and education they need, in light of the amendment of the Senator from Texas being adopted, when it comes to a single parent or low-income or a disabled Vietnam vet or veteran and other such categories, it is clear these families absolutely should not be without legal representation. Therefore, the amendment of the Senator from Texas would not apply.

My colleague from Illinois has made an appeal to Senators to avoid the harshness, to make sure there is the legal representation for families who need it, to make sure we are on the side of vulnerable children and vulnerable families.

This amendment is compassionate. This amendment goes directly to what is at issue. I hope there will be 100 votes for the amendment offered by the Senator from Illinois. I add my support.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, we are ready to vote on this amendment. The Senator from Illinois perhaps has some additional time, but if there are no other speakers, if the Senator from Illinois wants to call for the yeas and nays, we probably can have this vote.

Mr. DURBIN. I want to make certain the other side has the opportunity, if they want, to speak. Otherwise, I am prepared to yield all my time back and ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There appears to be a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. DURBIN. Before I yield the time, I want to see if there is anyone on the other side—the Senator from Texas or others—who wants to speak to this amendment.

Mr. President, I yield back the remainder of my time under the unanimous consent request, and I ask unanimous consent that all time on this amendment be yielded back so we can go to a vote.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The question is on agreeing to amendment No. 2111. The yeas and nays have been ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The bill clerk called the roll.

Mr. NICKLES. I announce that the Senator from Nebraska (Mr. HAGEL) is necessarily absent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. NELSON of Nebraska). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 73, nays 26, as follows:

(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect 45 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, the amendment I have offered is an amendment I have offered on two previous appropriations bills. I will not go into a long and tortured explanation. The Advance Passenger Information System should now be in the law. But because of a jurisdictional issue that arose a couple of weeks ago, it is not in the law. In a couple minutes, I will explain exactly what it is.

I just came from S. 207 where I am a conferee on the aviation security issue. That conference is ongoing right now. We are dealing with the issue of aviation security which is of great importance to all people in this country. How do we make flying more safe and more secure? We are doing that because of the concern about terrorism.

One of the issues in dealing with terrorism has been to try to make mandatory something that has been voluntary with respect to all airlines that are carrying passengers into this country. Some 78 million people fly into this country each year as guests of our country. They come on visas. They are guests of the United States. Most of them are precleared. Their names are provided by airline carriers under what is called the Advance Passenger Information System, APIS. They are provided to us in advance so we can run the names of the people who are coming from other countries against a list that the FBI has, that the Customs Service has, and that 21 different Federal agencies have. It is a list to determine whether any of these people who are coming into the country are known or suspected terrorists or are people who are acquainted with and associated with terrorists because we don't want them to come to this country. People who come in are guests of ours with visas. But if they are on a list of suspected people who associate with terrorists or who are suspected of terrorist acts, we don't want them in this country.

Eighty-five percent of the people coming into the United States have their names submitted to this Advance Passenger Information System. Fifteen percent do not.

Among the airlines that do not comply with this voluntary system are airlines from Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Egypt, Jordan, and, until last week, the country of Kuwait. I could name others.

One should ask the question: Wouldn't we want passenger information from those airlines flying here from that part of the world? The answer is clearly yes. The head of the Customs Service, the Bush administration, and others say this ought to be made mandatory. I agree.

I offered the amendment in the Senate to make it mandatory on the counterterrorism bill. The Senate approved that amendment, and we would, therefore, have mandatory information about who is coming into this country, and that would be applied to the various devices we have in the Customs Service and the FBI to check these names. It went to conference with the other body, and it was kicked out of conference because of jurisdictional issues. Some believed committee jurisdictional issues were more important than national security, so they kicked it out.

I stated that I would offer it to the bills that are on the floor of the Senate until we get it passed and into law. It should have been on the counterterrorism bill the President signed. Since the day the President signed that bill, a bill that contains this provision, 180,000 people have come into this country whose names have not been precleared under the Advance Passenger Information System. A fair number of them came from Pakistan, Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and others.

Does that improve security in this country? In my judgment, no. We ought to do the right thing. This is not about committee jurisdiction; it is about national security. In my judgment, we ought to say to all foreign carriers and airlines coming into this country and bringing our foreign guests that if they do not subscribe to mandatory submission of names under the Advance Passenger Information System, they are welcome to land elsewhere; they may not land at an airport in this country.

That is all my amendment does. It is supported by the administration. It was requested by the administration and should now be law, but is not because we had a squabble here a couple of weeks ago and it was kicked out in conference. I have offered it previously. I offer it again today. My understanding is that it will be approved by a voice vote. I also intend to offer it in the conference on aviation security, of which I am a member and which is now meeting in S. 207.

I ask for immediate consideration of my amendment.

I yield the floor.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, we have no further debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. If there is no further debate, without objection, the amendment is agreed to.

The amendment (No. 2112) was agreed to.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote, and I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, we are ready to move to final passage. There are no other outstanding amendments that will require a vote.

AMENDMENT NO. 2113

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I have an amendment by Senator DEWINE and myself referencing the need for a GAO report. I ask unanimous consent that it be agreed to at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 2113) was agreed to.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 68, after line 4, insert:

SEC. . The GAO, in consultation with the relevant agencies and members of the Committee on Appropriations Subcommittee on DC Appropriations, shall submit by January 2, 2002 a report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and the Senate and the Committee on Governmental Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Government Reform of the House of Representatives detailing the awards in judgment rendered in the District of Columbia that were in excess of the cap imposed by prior appropriations acts in effect during the fiscal year when the work was performed, or when payment was requested for work previously performed, in actions brought against the District of Columbia Public Schools under the Individuals with Disabilities Act (20 U.S.C. §1400 et seq.). Provided further, that such report shall include a comparison of the cause of actions and judgments rendered against public school districts of comparable demographics and population as the District.

FOOD AND FRIENDS

Mr. SARBANES. Will the distinguished floor manager yield for the purpose of a colloquy with Senator MIKULSKI and myself regarding Food and Friends, a nonprofit organization that provides meals to adults and children battling AIDS and other life-threatening illnesses in the Washington metropolitan region?

Ms. LANDRIEU. I am happy to yield.

Mr. SARBANES. For the past 12 years, Food and Friends has been providing an invaluable and unique service to people in Washington, DC, eight counties of Maryland and seven counties in Virginia, living with HIV/AIDS and other life-challenging illnesses. The group's network of over 700 volunteers and some 45 chefs, registered dietitians and other staff provide home-delivered meals and groceries, nutrition counseling, as well as friendship and care to more than 1,300 clients daily and the number of people seeking these services continues to grow dramatically. In order to accommodate the service demands, Food and Friends has embarked on a $6 million capital campaign to construct a new facility to serve its clients. We recognize that the committee was faced with many significant funding demands in this bill and limited allocations and could not accommodate the $2 million in funding provided by the House. We hold out hope that, as the Chairwoman and the other conferees negotiate with our colleagues in the House, you could find some way to provide funding needed by Food and Friends.

Ms. MIKULSKI. We would not make this request unless we were truly convinced of the need and the terrific work that Food and Friends does. Food and Friends serves individuals from diverse economic backgrounds, but 64 percent of their clients live on incomes of less than $550 per month. With the cost of medication and treatments for critically ill individuals estimated at between $500 and $1,000 per month, the services provided by Food and Friends are critical. This funding would allow the organization to serve more than 2,000 clients daily. The organization has already raised $1.6 million for this initiative and expects to raise an additional $2 million, but needs Federal support to complete the project. For me this is a hand-up to Food and Friends, not a hand-out.

Ms. LANDRIEU. I thank the Senators from Maryland. I am certainly aware of this wonderful organization and this project and the good work that they do delivering meals to people suffering from terminal illnesses and AIDS. I know that the Senators from Maryland are very concerned about this matter and I will certainly be willing to work with you both to see if we can include this worthy project in conference with the House.

Mr. SARBANES. I thank the Chair and look forward to working with her.

Ms. MIKULSKI. As an appropriator, I appreciate the efforts of the chairman, and also look forward to working with her.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, since the late-1980s, I have urged the mayors of the District of Columbia and Commissioners of the DC Taxicab Commission toward implementation of recommendations from numerous District of Columbia studies to replace the current taxicab zone fare with a meter system. According to the nationwide Taxicab, Limousine, and Paratransit Association, the District of Columbia is the only major city in the Nation where taxi fares are calculated by a zone system rather than a meter system. The use of the zone system is especially unfair to our great number of out-of-town tourists who have to cope with a complicated, confusing zone fare system with no basis on which to judge the accuracy of a particular fare. In my own experience, as a DC resident, I have encountered at least 10 different cab fares for the exact same trip to and from National Airport. A metered system would eliminate this problem.

There is a lot of correspondence that has transpired over the years on this matter. I would like to share with the Senate the letter I recently received from Mayor Williams. I would also like to include earlier correspondence I received from Representative ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON, who I have kept informed at every stage of the taxi meter issue, as well as several letters from the Barry and Kelly administrations. There have been broken promise after broken promise. Mayor Williams' letter sets out a course of action. If it is not followed, I intend to bring this matter to a head next year—after two decades of broken promises.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, let me just say from the outset that I appreciate my colleague's comments. The District of Columbia is the only major city that does not have a meter system in place. The current zone system compromises the integrity of the DC taxicab system. The apparent variance among cab fares to the same destination shows how the current system can be misunderstood and even abused. I deeply appreciate Senator LEVIN's decision to withhold an amendment at this time based on the mayor's letter. And I certainly understand that Senator LEVIN will be back with his amendment if meters are not in place, as indicated in Mayor Williams' letter, early next year, and I intend to support Senator LEVIN's efforts to end the current intolerably confusing situation.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the letters to which I referred be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letters were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

OCTOBER 10, 2001.

Hon. CARL LEVIN,
Russell Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR LEVIN: In accordance with your request, I am writing to advise you of the status of the introduction of a meter system for District of Columbia taxicabs. Let me state at the outset that I support a change from the current zone system to a meter system. A proposal to that effect was approved by the District of Columbia Taxicab Commission and transmitted to the Council of the District of Columbia for review in 1999. At that time, the Council requested that the proposal be withdrawn and resubmitted with more detailed information on the potential impact of increased fares on the riding public.

Since that time, the District of Columbia Taxicab Commission has developed a proposed fare structure and conducted the analysis requested by the Council. In addition, the Chairman of the Commission has held a number of meetings with drivers, individual taxicab owners, taxicab companies, and others in the industry to explain the impact of the planned change and allay any fears regarding implementation of the new system. The most recent of those meetings was held last week.

It now appears that the Commission is prepared to act on the proposal. The matter is expected to be referred to the Commission's Panel on Rates and Rules for a vote as early as next week and will thereafter be acted upon by the full Commission and transmitted to the Council for final approval. It is anticipated that meters could be required in District taxicabs by early next year.

I thank you for your interest in this matter and for sharing my commitment to improve the District's taxicab industry. Should you require any additional information, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

ANTHONY A. WILLIAMS.

MARCH 15, 1999.

Hon. LINDA W. CROPP,
Chairman, Council of the District of Columbia,
Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN CROPP: I am transmitting for the consideration of the Council of the District of Columbia (Council) a proposed resolution entitled the "District of Columbia Taxicab Commission Metered System for Determining Fares Approval Resolution of 1999." The proposed resolution is submitted in accordance with D.C. Law 6-97, the "District of Columbia Taxicab Commission Establishment Act of 1985," as amended, specifically, D.C. Code §40-1707(b)(1)(B) (1998 Repl. Vol.). The law provides that the Commission's Panel on Rates and Rules shall not authorize a metered system for determining taxicab fares without a 60-day period of Council review of the proposal.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact George W. Crawford at the Taxicab Commission.

I urge the Council to take prompt and favorable action to approve the Commission's proposal for the use of meters for determining taxicab fares at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

ANTHONY A. WILLIAMS,
Mayor.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, September 22, 1998.

Senator CARL LEVIN,
Russell Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC.

DEAR CARL: Thank you for coming in to see me last week regarding the failure of the District to adopt a meter system for cabs, following the recommendations of several studies. I very much appreciate your willingness to discuss the matter with me and to give the District the opportunity to consider the matter before you consider any action. I write to provide you with a status report on my efforts since our meeting.

I have spoken directly with the new Chair of the Taxicab Commission, Chairman Novell Sullivan and with the Chair of the D.C. City Council, Linda Cropp. Chairman Sullivan has agreed to submit the matter to the full Commission at its next regularly scheduled meeting on October 6th to consider whether the District should adopt a meter system. Although Chairman Sullivan could not say what the outcome of the vote will be, he is eager, as I know you are, to resolve this matter without further study or delay. The Commission's recommendation must be submitted to the City Council for its final review and approval. I have assigned my Legislative Director, Jon Bouker, to follow-up with the Commission's General Counsel, Mr. George Crawford, and with staff from the office of City Council Chair Linda Cropp to ensure that the process moves forward as expeditiously as possible.

I hope that this information is responsive to your concerns. I appreciate that you want the District and the Taxicab Commission to resolve this matter at the local level. As always, if I can be of further assistance on this or any other matter concerning the District of Columbia, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, October 20, 1998.
Re Taxicab Issue Follow-up.

JACKIE PARKER,
Deputy Legislative Director (Senator Carl Levin).

This memo is a follow-up to our recent conversations on the taxicab issue. As you know, Senator Levin came in to see the Congresswoman regarding the D.C. Taxicab Commission's reluctance to forward to the City Council the previous Commission's recommendation to move to a meter system for D.C. cabs. Following the meeting with Senator Levin, the Congresswoman called Taxicab Commission Chair Novell Sullivan and City Council Chair Linda Cropp. Council Chair Cropp confirmed that the new Taxicab Commission had not yet forwarded a recommendation to the full Council for its consideration. However, Commission Chair Sullivan agreed to schedule the meters issue for a vote before the full Commission at its next regularly scheduled meeting. That vote occurred on October 6, 1998, and the Commission voted unanimously to recommend meters to the Council. Once the Council receives the transmission (after the Corporation Counsel reviews the legal sufficiency of the transmission and the Mayor gives his approval), it has 60 days to decide whether or not it will approve the recommendations of the Commission. The Commission does not have the authority, on its own, to effectuate a change to a meter system for D.C. cabs.

I hope that this information is useful. Please do not hesitate to call me if you have any further questions.

JON BOUKER,
Legislative Director and Counsel
(Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton).

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF
COLUMBIA, TAXICAB COMMISSION,
Washington, DC December 1, 1998.

JACKIE PARKER,
Senator Levin's Office.

This is to inform you that the Office of the Corporation Counsel has approved the Taxicab Commission's proposal to convert to a meter system for determining fares. The Office of Chief Financial Officer is reviewing the proposal for fiscal impact on the District. It is anticipated that the proposal will be transmitted to the City Council within the next few days. Should you need additional information, please let me know.

GEORGE W. CRAWFORD,
General Counsel and Secretary.

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF
COLUMBIA, TAXICAB COMMISSION,
Washington, DC September 9, 1993.

Hon. CARL LEVIN,
Chairman, Subcommittee on Oversight of Government Management, Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN LEVIN: Thank you for taking time from your very demanding schedule to meet with me on August 5th. Let me assure you again that both Mayor Kelly and I understand and share your concerns about taxicab service in the District of Columbia. The Mayor has directed me to resolve the long standing issues and problems as quickly as possible. We sincerely appreciate your support and patience as we work toward this goal.

When we met, you requested a description of specific strategies we are undertaking, including timeframes, to fulfill congressional mandates and to improve regulation of the taxicab industry. Our strategies will accomplish three major goals by the end of fiscal year 1994:

- (1) establishment of an appropriate mechanism—zones, meters, a new technology or a combination—for calculating taxi fares;
- (2) development of a rate-setting methodology; and
- (3) improvement of the Commission's regulatory and enforcement efforts.

Funding for these initiatives is being provided by fees imposed by the Commission for the Taxicab Assessment Fund; no appropriated funds will be used. Descriptions of the strategies and timeframes for each goal are enclosed.

Much needs to be done, and I am excited about the prospects for improving taxi service in the District. My plans and goals for the Taxicab Commission, and an overview of the issues facing the Commission, are provided in my testimony that was recently submitted to the House Appropriations Subcommittee on the District of Columbia. A copy of that testimony is also enclosed for your information.

Let me thank you again for your longstanding support of the District of Columbia, and your continuing interest in the District's taxicab policies and services. I am available to you and your staff if you have any questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

KAREN JONES HERBERT,
Chairperson.

THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,
Washington, DC, August 18, 1993.

Hon. CARL LEVIN,
Russell Senate Office Building, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR LEVIN: I understand you recently met with Karen Herbert, our new chairperson of the D.C. Taxicab Commission. Ms. Herbert has developed an ambitious, but long overdue reform agenda for the D.C. Taxicab Commission. In addition, she has taken steps to improve driver training and testing, complaint resolution and enforcement activities.

I fully understand your concerns and frustrations and want to assure you that we are aggressively seeking consultants who specialize in taxicab regulation and transportation economics to assist us in developing a rate methodology and a definitive analysis of meters versus zones. The selection is scheduled to be made before the end of September and I will be certain that you will be provided with a timeline that will enable you to track the progress of this effort.

In the months ahead, I intend to work closely with Ms. Herbert and will be pursuing initiatives designed to make a visible difference in our regulation of the vehicle for hire industry. Your continued interest and support of this issue are helpful and have been greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

SHARON PRATT KELLY.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I rise today in support of the FY 2002 District of Columbia appropriations bill. I want to congratulate Senator LANDRIEU and Senator DEWINE for their hard work in crafting this annual appropriations bill for the District of Columbia. This is an important piece of legislation and they have done their best to help ensure that the District of Columbia gets the resources it needs to run our Nation's capital.

In addition to many important policy provisions and essential funding provisions, this legislation removes several restrictions Congress has placed upon the District of Columbia during the last several years. These congressional provisions have prevented locally passed laws and initiatives from being implemented even with the use of local funds. With the leadership of Senator LANDRIEU, the underlying legislation takes the necessary steps to correct those past wrongs.

I am particularly pleased with Senator LANDRIEU's leadership in lifting the restriction limiting the autonomy of the local government in the District of Columbia and the rights of domestic partners who reside here. For the past 9 years, Congress has prohibited the District from using Federal or local funds to enact the locally passed Health Care Benefits Expansion Act. This law, passed by the D.C. City Council in 1992, would allow domestic partners to register with the Mayor's office. The Health Care Benefits Expansion Act would require all health care facilities to grant domestic partners visitation rights, and allow District employees to purchase health insurance at their own cost for domestic partners.

This law recognizes the legal and civil rights of domestic partners in the District of Columbia and is similar to laws passed by more than 100 jurisdictions and city governments throughout this country—including my own State of Vermont. Vermont passed its version of a domestic partnership law for health benefits in 1994. Last year, our State went even further when it took the bold and courageous step of extending the same legal State benefits already enjoyed by married couples to same sex couples.

This restriction Congress placed on the D.C. Government sent the wrong message to District residents and local officials by telling the people of Washington, DC, that the U.S. Senate knows best how local officials should spend their local dollars. This restriction sent the wrong message to the American public by disregarding the rights of domestic partners. I am pleased that the Senate has not continued down the unfortunate path of dictating social policy for the District of Columbia.

During consideration of the D.C. appropriations bill last month, the House Appropriations Committee approved an amendment to remove the ban on the use of local funds to implement the Health Benefits Expansion Act. During the House debate on the legislation, the provision prevailed, despite an effort similar to the one before us today to reinstate the ban on local funds. Our colleagues in the House have spoken on this measure, and the Senate has concurred.

This is a challenging time for our entire Nation. During this time, leaders at all levels of government—especially our local leaders—are working to ensure the safety and preparedness of their communities. Mayor Anthony Williams and the local government of the District of Columbia should be provided the same opportunity to perform those duties, and others, as are enjoyed by other cities and jurisdictions throughout the Nation. With the hard work of Senator LANDRIEU, the underlying bill recognizes the rights of D.C. residents and their elected officials to debate and decide for themselves the same policy questions that each of the states and cities in our country may debate and decide for themselves.

The issue of the rights of domestic partners—like rights for women, racial minorities, and people with disabilities—is one of basic civil rights for all people. Individuals should be evaluated on the basis of what they can offer and what they can contribute—not on irrelevant considerations like their race, gender or sexual orientation. It is a question of fundamental fairness. The United States Congress did not interfere with Vermont's approach to providing equal access to health insurance benefits, or with any of the other cities and localities throughout the country that passed their own laws governing domestic partnership. I strongly believe that Congress should follow its own example set in those instances, and should not treat the District of Columbia any differently.

Again, I applaud Senator LANDRIEU for her leadership in drafting this bill and I encourage my colleagues to vote in support of the FY 2002 District of Columbia appropriations bill.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, as we move to final passage on this bill, I again thank my ranking member for his very extraordinary and dedicated work over the weeks and months to bring this bill to the floor and to work out many important and challenging issues. Together, we have tried to focus our efforts on post-control board financial discipline and laying a foundation so that the District, which is in a surplus today because of a lot of hard work that has been done, will remain in a surplus. Together, we have tried to enhance local decisionmaking, where appropriate. I believe we have made a lot of progress along that line.

In addition, particularly with Senator DEWINE's excellent leadership, we are reforming the child welfare system in the District and working with the mayor and the local government officials to do that. We have put significant investments in this bill to accomplish that end.

In addition, because of the September 11 attack, we have provided additional resources for the mayor and the local government and for regional public officials—our own Senators representing Virginia and Maryland—of course, to be a part of that to enhance the security of the District and this region.

Finally, we have together made some tremendous headway in providing resources to create more excellence in the public schools here in DC and reform that system, as well as to step up the environment and children's health with some of the projects with which Senator DEWINE has been particularly helpful.

In closing, I again thank publicly the mayor and the city council chairperson, Linda Cropp, and all of the members of the city council who have been so helpful in working with us on this bill.

I would like to acknowledge the work of the District chief financial officer, Dr. Gandhi, and particularly his staff, Sam Kaiser, for their work in putting the local portion of this bill together.

I want to recognize Representative ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON. She continues to work with us almost daily on these issues. I thank her, and also the shadow Senator from the District, Paul Strauss.

Our staff members, Cathleen Strotzman, Kate Eltrich, Kevin Avery, Chuck Kieffer, and Mary Dietrich on the Republican side have been terrific in their help bringing us to this point.

I have no further remarks.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Ohio.

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I thank my colleague, Senator LANDRIEU, for doing a great job on this bill. This is a bill that will make a difference for people of the District of Columbia, particularly children of the District.

I thank Senator LANDRIEU and her staff, Chuck Kieffer and Kate Eltrich, for their hard work on this bill.

I also thank my appropriations team, particularly Mary Dietrich, who has been working hard on this bill for a long time, as well as Stan Skocki from my team.

I also commend and thank the other members of our subcommittee: Senator HUTCHISON, Senator DURBIN, and Senator REED.

Mr. President, as Senator LANDRIEU has indicated, this was a bipartisan effort. This bill makes a downpayment and is a real beginning on what we said we were going to do several years ago. In Congress, we took on the responsibility of trying to improve the court system, specifically the court system that deals with our young people. I do not have to remind anyone in this Chamber of the tragedy of the children's system in the District of Columbia—headline after headline, story after story, tragedy after tragedy, of children who have died in the system in the District of Columbia. This bill provides the money to begin to change that system.

Senator LANDRIEU and I have also been working, along with some of our other colleagues, to get a family court bill passed. Money in this bill will go a long way to making the changes that we have outlined in that family court bill.

This bill we are about to vote on also provides some significant money for Children's Hospital in the District of Columbia, which serves not only children who come from the District but serves children who come from many States.

It also provides money for the Safe Kids Program, a program that saves lives. I am convinced the money we will provide will help to save the lives of young children in the District of Columbia.

We also provide money for the Green Door Program, a mental health program of which Senator DOMENICI has been a strong supporter.

Finally, the bill provides, as Senator LANDRIEU indicated, some much needed money and resources to tie our communications system together in the District of Columbia. That need has been apparent for some time. Certainly, after the events of September 11, it is even more apparent and more obvious. So this bill provides money to do that as well.

I, again, thank my colleague for her great work on the bill. I urge my colleagues to vote aye, to pass the bill. I hope we will be able to work any differences out with the House fairly quickly and get this bill on to the President.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I know of no further amendments to be offered. I believe we are ready for third reading of the bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on the engrossment of the amendments and third reading of the bill.

The amendments were ordered to be engrossed and the bill to be read a third time.

The bill was read a third time.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There appears to be a sufficient second.

The bill having been read the third time, the question is, Shall the bill pass?

The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) is necessarily absent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Ms. STABENOW). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 75, nays 24, as follows:

SEPTEMBER 11 VICTIMS' TAX LEGISLATION

Mr. TORRICELLI. Madam President, nearly 2 months have passed since the events of September 11. The tragedy and its ramifications have been part of the life of every American family in the weeks that have followed. Even American schoolchildren can recount not only the images but recite the numbers of the dead, the cost, and the consequences.

In my State there are hundreds of people who did not come home on that night. The changes experienced by average Americans cannot obviously be compared with the families themselves—wives and husbands, children, brothers and sisters who are rebuilding shattered lives. They wake up every day reminding themselves of the new reality that will follow them throughout their lives.

Recently, Senator CORZINE and I met with a number of the widows and widowers. You can only imagine, if this entire Nation has found it difficult to accept the reality of these circumstances, what it is like for a young mother still recoiling from the experience of informing her children, or a father, now left to raise children alone.

The pain of September 11 is measured on many scales. It has changed the finances of this Government. It has forever impacted our national sense of safety. But for these few thousand families, it has changed lives in ways we could never hope to understand.

There is little in terms of the things that matter that any of us can do to generally offer comfort or consolation. But in the ways that Government can measure compassion, there are things we must try to do.

Families that JON CORZINE and I met with indicated to us that when they are not dealing with the pain or the trauma, life has returned to much more mundane things: A woman who even as she buries her husband thinks about next month's mortgage; the young family who even when they are consoling their children are dealing with colleges or grade schools on next year's tuition; the young family who may have just started life together and bought a home or rented an apartment and used all their resources; and now, as a mother thinks about her children's future, she is thinking about the groceries next week.

America can afford to debate this issue philosophically and how it may have changed our laws or our lives. That luxury is not available to these young families.

It raises in the Senate an important question about how we can respond. Some weeks ago the House of Representatives passed legislation to provide tax relief to families of these victims so that as these young mothers or fathers received their last paychecks or struggled to deal with the financial realities or negotiate perhaps bonuses from employers who are themselves struggling to deal with the impact, they can at least husband these resources without concern that the Federal Government will tax what they have remaining. That legislation has been sent to the Senate Finance Committee. These weeks we have been working to prepare it and have it ready for committee consideration.

I want my colleagues to know that enough time has now passed. I am, on this day, introducing this legislation to the Senate. I will offer it as an amendment when the Senate Finance Committee meets tomorrow to consider stimulus and tax legislation as an amendment.

I commend Senator BAUCUS for not only his support but his efforts in drafting this legislation. I also understand Senator NICKLES wants to understandably change the legislation to include equitable treatment for the victims of Oklahoma City.

The victims' tax legislation will essentially extend the benefits currently offered to military personnel and Government employees who die as a result of combat or terrorism to civilians abroad. The legislation will waive income tax liability for both this year and last year and will refund any income taxes paid in those years to the family.

As I am certain my colleagues would agree, these funds are better used by families to rebuild their lives rather than used by the Federal Government at this moment.

There is, however, the question of those employees who lost their lives and their families who may have had income so modest, they did not pay Federal income tax. Under my legislation, which improves upon the version of the House of Representatives, the Senate bill I am introducing will refund 2 years' worth of payroll taxes to families of those who lost their lives on September 11.

I have also drafted legislation to include significant estate tax relief for families by exempting the first $3 million in assets from both Federal and State estate taxes and $8.5 million from Federal estate tax.

These are the funds these families will use for this generation and perhaps
