

of Nebraska, Mr. SESSIONS, Mrs. CARNAHAN, Ms. COLLINS, Mr. DAYTON, Mr. BUNNING, Mr. BINGAMAN, Mr. DASCHLE, Mr. LOTT, Mr. LEAHY, Mr. BOND, and Mr. ROCKEFELLER) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was considered and agreed to:

S. CON. RES. 93

Whereas the National Guard is the oldest component of the Armed Forces of the United States, founded on December 13, 1636, as the militia of the Massachusetts Bay Colony;

Whereas the citizen soldiers and airmen of the National Guard have fought in every major American conflict, from the colonial wars of the 17th century to the ongoing operations against the al Qaeda terrorist network and the Taliban regime in Afghanistan that harbored those terrorists;

Whereas the National Guard traditionally has served with distinction as America's first line of defense against the consequences of natural and man-made disasters within the United States;

Whereas the men and women of the National Guard serve as an indispensable part of critical United States military operations around the world, including patrolling the no-fly zones over Iraq and peacekeeping in the Balkans;

Whereas headquarters elements of National Guard combat divisions lead the United States' participation in the multinational Stabilization Force in Bosnia;

Whereas the men and women of the National Guard were among the first to respond to the terrorist atrocities of September 11, 2001, including Air National Guard fighter crews who scrambled on that day and Army National Guard personnel who deployed to assist with rescue and recovery efforts in New York and Virginia;

Whereas the men and women of the National Guard, in keeping with the National Guard's historic mission of homeland defense, are flying combat air patrols to protect the safety of American airspace and are performing critical security roles in their State capacity at airports and other important sites around the Nation; and

Whereas the citizen soldiers and airmen of the National Guard serve a critical role in protecting the freedom of American citizens and the American ideals of justice, liberty, and freedom, both at home and abroad: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That, on December 13, 2001, the occasion of the 365th anniversary of the founding of the militia of the Massachusetts Bay Colony that was the precursor to the force of citizen soldiers and airmen now proudly known as the National Guard, Congress—

(1) recognizes that anniversary of the National Guard as an important milestone in the military tradition of the United States;

(2) honors the commitment and sacrifices made by the 458,400 citizen soldiers and airmen of the National Guard, their families, their employers, and their communities;

(3) recognizes the critical importance of the National Guard, at home and abroad, to the national security of the United States;

(4) salutes the citizen soldiers and airmen of the National Guard for their service on September 11, 2001, and their continuing role in homeland defense and military operations against the al Qaeda terrorist network and the Taliban regime in Afghanistan that harbored those terrorists;

(5) supports a policy of providing the National Guard with resources necessary to ensure its continued readiness; and

(6) expresses the deep gratitude of the American people to the men and women of the National Guard for their dedication and commitment to the security and freedom of the United States.
