

During his tenure as pastor, Hurley Coleman played a pivotal role in the struggle for racial equality and other civil rights causes. In these efforts, he has been able to unite people of different races and denominations around the common goal of improving life for all people.

I believe that nothing bears witness to the depth and integrity of Pastor Coleman's ministry and life more than his family. Pastor Coleman and his wife Martha were married for 51 years. During this time they served the community and were able to raise 10 children. These children: Hurllette Dickens, Hurley Jr., Charles, Ritchie, Ronnie, E. Yvonne Lewis, Myra Williams, Elaine Bonner, Evelyn Yeager and Edna Coleman, are pillars in their community who have followed their parent's example of service to others.

The vitality and strength of our Nation is due, in a large part, to the dedication and efforts of individuals like the Reverend Hurley J. Coleman Sr. Reverend Coleman and his wife were a dedicated couple whose love for one another and their family touched the entire community that they tirelessly sought to serve. I am sure that my Senate colleagues will join me in honoring the memory of the Reverend Hurley J. Coleman Sr., and in wishing his family well in the years ahead.●

Whereas there are more than 1,029 of these health centers serving nearly 12,000,000 people at 3,200 health delivery sites, spanning urban and rural communities in the 50 States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands;

Whereas these health centers have provided cost-effective, quality health care to the Nation's poor and medically underserved, including the working poor, the uninsured, and many high-risk and vulnerable populations;

Whereas these health centers act as a vital safety net in the Nation's health delivery system, meeting escalating health needs and reducing health disparities;

Whereas these health centers provide care to 1 of every 9 uninsured Americans, 1 of every 8 low-income Americans, and 1 of every 10 rural Americans, who would otherwise lack access to health care;

Whereas these health centers, and other innovative programs in primary and preventive care, reach out to 600,000 homeless persons and more than 650,000 farm workers;

Whereas these health centers make health care responsive and cost-effective by integrating the delivery of primary care with aggressive outreach, patient education, translation, and enabling support services;

Whereas these health centers increase the use of preventive health services such as immunizations, Pap smears, mammograms, and glaucoma screenings;

Whereas in communities served by these health centers, infant mortality rates have been reduced between 10 and 40 percent;

Whereas these health centers are built by community initiative;
