(a) SHORT TITLE AND FINDINGS.—

(1) This Title can be cited as the “Iraq Petroleum Import Restriction Act of 2001”.

(2) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

(A) the government of the Republic of Iraq—

(i) has failed to comply with the terms of United Nations Security Council Resolution 687 regarding unconditional Iraqi acceptance of the destruction, removal, or rendering harmless, under international supervision, of all nuclear, chemical and biological weapons and all stocks of agents and all related subsystems and components and all research, development, support and manufacturing facilities, as well as all ballistic missiles with a range greater than 150 kilometers and related major parts, and repair and production facilities and has failed to allow United Nations inspectors access to sites used for the production or storage of weapons of mass destruction.

(ii) routinely contravenes the terms and conditions of UNSC Resolution 661, authorizing the export of petroleum products from Iraq in exchange for food, medicine and other humanitarian products by conducting a routine and extensive program to sell such products outside of the channels established by UNSC Resolution 661 in exchange for military equipment and materials to be used in pursuit of its program to develop weapons of mass destruction in order to threaten the United States and its allies in the Persian Gulf and surrounding regions.

(iii) has failed to adequately draw down upon the amounts received in the Escrow Account established by UNSC Resolution 986 to purchase food, medicine and other humanitarian products required by its citizens, resulting in massive humanitarian suffering by the Iraqi people.

(iv) conducts a periodic and systematic campaign to harass and obstruct the enforcement of the United States and United Kingdom-enforced “No-Fly Zones” in effect in the Republic of Iraq.

(v) routinely manipulates the petroleum export production volumes permitted under UNSC Resolution 661 in order to create uncertainty in global energy markets, and therefore threatens the economic security of the United States.

(B) further imports of petroleum products from the Republic of Iraq are inconsistent with the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States and should be eliminated until such time as they are not so inconsistent.

(b) PROHIBITION ON IRAQI-ORIGIN PETROLEUM IMPORTS.—The direct or indirect import from Iraq of Iraqi-origin petroleum and petroleum products is prohibited, notwithstanding an authorization by the Committee established by UNSC Resolution 661 or its designee, or any other order to the contrary.

(c) TERMINATION/PRESIDENTIAL CERTIFICATION.—This Act will remain in effect until such time as the President, after consultation with the relevant committees in Congress, certifies to the Congress that—

(1) The United States is not engaged in active military operations in—

(A) enforcing “No-Fly Zones” in Iraq;

(B) support of United Nations sanctions against Iraq;

(C) preventing the smuggling of Iraqi-origin petroleum and petroleum products in violation of UNSC Resolution 986; and

(D) otherwise preventing threatening action by Iraq against the United States or its allies; and

(2) resuming the importation of Iraqi-origin petroleum and petroleum products would not be inconsistent with the national security and foreign policy interests of the United States.

(d) HUMANITARIAN INTERESTS.—It is the sense of the Senate that the President should make all appropriate efforts to ensure that the humanitarian needs of the Iraqi people are not negatively effected by this Act, and should encourage through public, private, domestic and international means the direct or indirect sale, donation or other transfer to appropriate non-governmental health and humanitarian organizations and individuals within Iraq of food, medicine and other humanitarian products.

(e) DEFINITIONS.—

(1) 661 COMMITTEE.—The term “661 Committee” means the Security Council Committee established by UNSC Resolution 661, and persons acting for or on behalf of the Committee under its specific delegation of authority for the relevant matter or category of activity, including the overseers appointed by the U.N. Secretary-General to examine and approve agreements for purchases of petroleum and petroleum products from the Government of Iraq pursuant to UNSC Resolution 986.

SEC. 1. SENSE OF CONGRESS CONCERNING COASTAL IMPACT ASSISTANCE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

(1) the United States continues to be reliant on fossil fuels (including crude oil and natural gas) as a source of most of the energy consumed in the country;

(2) this reliance is likely to continue for the foreseeable future;

(3) about 65 percent of the energy needs of the United States are supplied by oil and natural gas;

(4) the United States is becoming increasingly reliant on clean-burning natural gas for electricity generation, home heating and air conditioning, agricultural needs, and essential chemical processes;

(5) a large portion of the remaining crude oil and natural gas resources of the country are on Federal land located in the western United States, in Alaska, and off the coastline of the United States;

(6) the Gulf of Mexico has proven to be a significant source of oil and natural gas and is predicted to remain a significant source in the immediate future;

(7) many States and counties oppose the development of Federal crude oil and natural gas resources within or near the coastline, which opposition results in congressional, Executive, State, or local policies to prevent the development of those resources;

(8) actions that prevent the development of certain Federal crude oil and natural gas resources do not lessen the energy needs of the United States or of those States and counties that object to exploration and development for fossil fuels;

(9) actions to prevent the development of certain Federal crude oil and natural gas resources focus development pressure on the remaining areas of Federal crude oil and natural gas resources, such as onshore and offshore Alaska, certain onshore areas in the western United States, and the central Gulf of Mexico off the coasts of Alabama, Alaska, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas;

(10) the development of Federal crude oil and natural gas resources is accompanied by adverse effects on the infrastructure services, public services, and the environment of States, counties, and local communities that host the development of those Federal resources;

(11) States, counties, and local communities do not have the power to tax adequately the development of Federal crude oil and natural gas resources, particularly when those development activities occur off the coastline of States that serve as platforms for that development, such as Alabama, Alaska, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas;

(12) the Mineral Leasing Act (30 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), which governs the development of Federal crude oil and natural gas resources located onshore, provides, outside the budget and appropriations processes of the Federal Government, payments to States in which Federal crude oil and natural gas resources are located in the amount of 50 percent of the direct revenues received from the Federal Government for those resources; and

(13) there is no permanent provision in the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1331 et seq.), which governs the development of Federal crude oil and natural gas resources located offshore, that authorizes the sharing of a portion of the annual revenues generated from Federal offshore crude oil and natural gas resources with adjacent coastal States that—

(A) serve as the platform for that development; and

(B) suffer adverse effects on the environment and infrastructure of the States.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that Congress should provide a significant portion of the Federal offshore mineral revenues to coastal States that permit the development of Federal mineral resources off the coastline, including the States of Alabama, Alaska, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas.
