Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a true American patriot who has committed his entire career in the service of the American people. Colonel James E. Pallas III, United States Air Force, is retiring from duty bringing to a close his admirable 30-year military career.

A 1970 graduate of the University of Georgia, Colonel Pallas has served his country in the extreme temperatures of the globe as director of housing and services for the Alaskan Air Command Headquarters, at Elmendorf AFB, Alaska, and as food and service officer for the 43rd Combat Support Group, at Andersen AFB, Guam. IN HONOR OF THE NORTH
BETHESDA MIDDLE SCHOOL

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 2002

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and congratulate the students, faculty, and parents of the North Bethesda Middle School on a meaningful and exciting achievement. Over the past 6 years, the North Bethesda Middle School community has collected over 10,000 new and used books to donate to needy children in Montgomery County and throughout the greater Washington area.

This year alone, the program donated over 2,000 books to disadvantaged children in their fight against illiteracy. The school community has been recognized for their charitable efforts by the Montgomery County Sentinel and by many other local organizations. Today I add my voice to all those saying "thank you" to the North Bethesda Middle School community for all their hard work.

These students, teachers, and parents understand that excellent reading skills and a quality education are the cornerstones of a young person's upbringing and development. The students of North Bethesda have already had a profound impact on the lives of children they may not ever meet. Their pure sense of charity, compassion, and concern should inspire all of us.

As a former teacher, I believe that each one of us can have an impact on a young person's future. It is my hope that through the continuation of this successful program, and others like it, the lives of disadvantaged children around the country will be forever changed for the better.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage all members of the education community to look towards this wonderful and successful effort as an example of an outstanding educational initiative. I encourage all young Americans seeking to serve their community to follow these students' lead. Again, Mr. Speaker, I congratulate everyone at North Bethesda Middle School, especially Principal Joan Carroll, and thank them all for their work on this great project.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO DALE
ORENDORFF

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 2002

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a solemn heart that I take this opportunity to pay respect at the passing of Dale Orendorff, who died unexpectedly at the age of 79. Dale became a pillar of the Montrose, Colorado community after relocating there in 1984 and, as his family mourns his loss, I think it is appropriate to remember him at this time and pay tribute to the contributions he made to Colorado throughout his life.

Dale Orendorff was born on September 7, 1922 in Columbus, Nebraska, the son of John and Loa Mabel Bernard. He spent his formative years in Central City, Nebraska, where he received his elementary schooling. One day after the historic Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Dale proudly heeded the call to defend our nation, enrolling in the United States Army Air Corps at the age of 19. His service to our nation in time of war served as a testament to the character of a man whose devotion to family and country was evident to all of those who crossed his path.

Dale was a shining example of civic-minded devotion to his community. He was a member of the Methodist Church of Montrose, as well as Elks Lodge No. 1053. An avid outdoorsman, Dale's love of fishing dated back to his youth. As he grew older, he took up the game of golf, which became one of his favorite avocations.

Mr. Speaker, it is my privilege to pay tribute to Dale Orendorff for his contributions to the Montrose community. His dedication to family, friends and community certainly deserves the recognition of this body of Congress. Although Dale has left us, his good-natured spirit lives on through the lives of those he touched. I would like to extend my thoughts and deepest sympathies to Dale's family and friends during this difficult time.

Don spent 2 years as a member of the Cerritos Planning Commission before being elected to the Cerritos City Council in 1980. He served as a councilman for 8 years, including two terms as mayor, and was a leader in the development and implementation of the city's General Plan during a time of unprecedented economic expansion. EXPLAINING SEPTEMBER 11TH TO FUTURE 4TH GRADERS

HON. STEVE ISRAEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 2002

Mr. ISRAEL. Mr. Speaker, I commend the following letter to you and all of our colleagues. Nicole Jean-Marie Bansen read this letter at the Lindenhurst Memorial Day Ceremony on May 27, 2002. An elementary school student from Long Island, Nicole directed the letter to future 4th graders so that they might better understand September 11 based on her own experience. Like Nicole, I believe that we must help preserve the memory of that tragic day by sharing our stories with future generations.

DEAR FUTURE FOURTH GRADER, September 11, 2001 was a tragic day. I'm writing this letter to tell you what really happened. I was in school when it happened. That was the day that jet planes hit the Twin Towers, and soon both collapsed. Tower One was hit first. Within the next hour, Tower Two was also hit. Time seemed to freeze. Everyone just stopped what they were doing to see what happened in disbelief. It was like a nightmare coming true!

When I found out what had happened, my heart felt like it was shattered, just like the Twin Towers. After school, my brother and Mom told me to watch the news. I turned on the television and saw both planes crashing into the Twin Towers. A friend of our family's worked on the 72nd floor of Tower One. I was afraid that he might be killed, like so many others. He made it out of the building in minutes before it collapsed!

I was affected by this tragedy in a sad way because I will not see the Twin Towers anymore, and so many innocent people died. In the future, people should never forget this day, and always remember all the people who died. I believe parents should tell their children the truth about what happened when they are old enough to understand, so they aren't frightened. Your friends and you will learn about this day in your Social Studies class in school, if your parents didn't already tell you about it.

I hope this terrorist act never happens again. Hopefully you will never know the "evil" word, terrorism. But, if something like this does happen again, I am sure that everyone will be very sad. I am so glad to be an American, because of our freedom and people staying united through difficult times.

Sincerely,

NICOLE JEAN-MARIE BANSEN.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO MOUNTAIN STATES LEGAL FOUNDATION

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 2002

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to the Mountain States Legal Foundation, an organization that has selflessly led efforts to sustain and improve the interests of the community. I applaud the efforts of each and every individual that made it possible to build the new foundation's headquarters.

The Legal Foundation celebrates its 25th anniversary by dedicating its new headquarters on June 6, 2002. The vision and determination of MSLF, has produced a state of the art, professional building, located in the suburbs of Denver, Colorado. MSLF was established to advocate the quest for free enterprise and maintain the country's laws established and preserved by the Constitution. On June 6th, their 25th birthday, I pay tribute to MSLF's accomplishments and relocation to their new location.

MSLF extends its outreach to the communities and businesses seeking assistance. Many of MSLF's activities include conservation and preservation of our natural resources and environment. MSLF has assisted in the fight to preserve and protect our wetlands and national forests. MSLF has defended our rights and liberties within the judiciary system. It is because of foundations and organizations like MSLF, that we are able to live in this nation of freedom.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride I honor such an outstanding organization before this body of Congress and this nation. The Mountain States Legal Foundation contributes so much to our nation and community, it is fitting they celebrate 25 wonderful years. Thank you to all individuals who worked hard and diligently to reach these outstanding achievements.

TRIBUTE TO SERGEANT JOSE M. LOPEZ

HON. SOLOMON P. ORTIZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 19, 2002

Mr. ORTIZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to a special South Texan, Sergeant Jose M. Lopez, recipient of a World War II Congressional Medal of Honor. For his courageous and selfless actions on the battlefield, this man is truly a great American patriot.

In response to the call of duty, Sergeant Lopez almost single handedly engineered his company's successful withdrawal under heavy enemy small arms fire near Krinkelt, Belgium on December 17, 1944. On his own initiative, he repeatedly repositioned his heavy machine gun to critical points along his company line, which led to over one hundred enemy deaths and saved the lives of numerous American soldiers. For these efforts, Sergeant Lopez deserves the admiration and gratitude of the American people.

It is especially appropriate that we honor this soldier today on America's Independence Day. Although the American colonists were victorious in the revolutionary war two hundred nineteen years ago, the American pursuit of liberty did not end there. Throughout the past two centuries, young Americans like Sergeant Lopez have fought to preserve our country's values both inside and outside its borders. In this struggle, one of our most valuable resources has been our soldiers and their dedication to upholding American ideals.

This July 4th, as we celebrate the birth of our beloved nation and all it means to us in the 21st century, we must acknowledge the brave and selfless actions of dedicated American soldiers like Sergeant Lopez. Through his courageous military service, Sergeant Lopez has done his part to ensure that America may celebrate its independence year after year.

This year, we will honor Sergeant Lopez with a statue in front of the Veterans Memorial Bridge in Brownsville, Texas, to commemorate his contribution to American military history. Thanks to brave soldiers like Sergeant Lopez, we retain our freedom and we protect democracy around the world. I ask all my colleagues to join me in commending Sergeant Lopez's sacrifice for our nation.
