

Treasury officials and Members of Congress that at long last got the United States engaged in the rescue effort, whose greatest hero is indeed Raoul Wallenberg.

It is thus particularly appropriate for this memorial event to take place on Capitol Hill. It is Congress that for decades has insisted that the foreign policy of the United States must be infused with moral content and it has succeeded. Tom Lantos, who has been witness to the history that we recount today, has been a truly outstanding leader in this effort. We are indebted to him.

TRIBUTE TO STUDENTS OF ALL SAINTS ACADEMY IN BREESE, ILLINOIS

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the students of All Saints Academy in Breese, Illinois, and their important and heartwarming efforts to help those affected by terrorism.

On October 11th, 2001, President Bush made a request of the children of America. He challenged each of them to earn and send in one dollar. This money, sent by the kindness of the children of the United States, will be used to reach out to the unfortunate children in far off Afghanistan.

The students of All Saints heard and met that challenge. I recently received a check for $1,000, made out to America's Fund for Afghan Children—that's more than one dollar for each student in All Saints, and more than our President requested.

The students, parents, faculty, and members of the Breese community should be recognized for this fine effort. The terrorists believed they could accomplish their goals with the murder of American innocents; but the American citizens have responded with aid to the innocents of Afghanistan. Nothing else could better show how utterly Al Qaeda has failed.

Mr. Speaker, as President Bush said in his announcement of the Fund for Afghan Children, "One of the truest weapons that we have against terrorism is to show the world the true strength of character of the American people." The children of All Saints have shown that character, and they deserve our thanks. May God bless them, and may God bless the United States of America.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ANTHONY D. WEINER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. WEINER. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained in my District on Tuesday, March 12, 2002, and I would like the RECORD to indicate how I would have voted had I been present.

For rollcall vote No. 53, the bill to expand the class of beneficiaries who may apply for adjustment of status under section 245(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act by extending the deadline for classification petition and labor certification filings, I would have voted "aye."

ENHANCED BORDER SECURITY AND VISA ENTRY REFORM ACT OF 2002

SPEECH OF

HON. SOLOMON P. ORTIZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 12, 2002

Mr. ORTIZ. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank Chairman SENSENBRENNER and Ranking Member CONYERS for bringing HR 1885 to the floor today. The issue of border security and the extension of section 245(i) are truly important issues, and I'm glad that they are being addressed. I support HR 1885, the Enhanced Border Security and Visa Entry Reform Act, for many reasons, namely because it insures safety for the people within this country's borders. This bill provides the tools necessary for the U.S. Customs and the Immigration and Naturalization Service to better serve the American people.

The bill also has a provision to extend the border crossing card deadline for residents along the Southwestern border of the United States. This extension will provide a much-needed boost to the economies that have suffered since the tragic attacks of September 11th. After the attacks, Congress stopped work on a stand-alone bill with bipartisan support to extend the deadline for one year to October 1, 2002. With this extension, shop owners that were forced to close their doors after the deadline passed will once again be able to open them. People granted the extension can use their border crossing cards to go to school, to go to work, to go shopping, or to just merely visit their families. They will continue being productive members of society of the border economy.

The Southwestern border, according to a recent U.S. Chamber of Commerce report, has a population of 6.2 million people in the U.S. and approximately 4.3 million people in Mexico. The buying power of border residents is immense and the economy of South Texas depends on their participation in our market place. In my district alone, 75–80% of Brownsville's downtown retail sales normally come from people crossing the border. Since September 11th this number has dropped. This same report also cites the border crossing card deadline as one of the main reasons that fewer people are crossing the border. The economic effects of the attacks in September were bad for the country; they were devastating for the Southwestern border.

The Southwestern border is vitally important to the United States. It is the gateway to the United States from Latin America, it is the port-of-entry for one of our most valued trading partners, and it represents the rich diversity of immigrants on which this country was founded. This bill is an excellent first step in recognizing that fact. Again, I thank Mr. SENSENBRENNER and Mr. CONYERS for their actions.

TRIBUTE TO JEANNE BRADY LORENZ, FIRST ANNUAL GOVERNOR'S UNSUNG HEROINE AWARDS HONOREE

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize a woman who has dedicated so many years to serving her city and her community, Jeanne Lorenz. Her remarkable achievements have brought so many families and communities together in an effort to educate and promote racial and ethnic justice. As the Michigan Women's Commission held the First Annual Governor's Unsung Heroine Awards, they honored the contributions of women in communities across Michigan whose work has otherwise gone unrecognized. Gathering together on Tuesday, March 5, 2002, the Michigan Women's Commission chose to honor Jeanne Lorenz, a longtime friend and advocate of civil rights and community service.

A leader and an activist all her life, Jeanne Lorenz has lived her life by her principles and has dedicated her life to teaching these principles to others. As an active member of the Interfaith Center for Racial Justice in Macomb County for over 30 years and Secretary of its Executive Board for more than 20 years, her efforts for her community have been truly selfless. Beginning in 1971 with monitoring the local newspapers and courts and organizing a program called Peaceful Schools during anti-bussing demonstrations, Jeanne participated in a wide variety of activities to promote civil rights. As one of the primary cooks for the first few annual Martin Luther King Holiday Celebrations in Macomb County, an event which raised money to purchase books on racial diversity for school libraries, Jeanne was integral in the fight to promote racial understanding in her community. This determination and commitment to civil rights led her to help defuse racial tensions at a local high school at the request of the Lake Shore Schools superintendent. Forming an advisory group to relieve racial tensions, she helped this group later evolve into the Committee for Racial and Ethnic Understanding, a group that provided a forum for communication and sponsored ethnic fairs.

Demonstrating outstanding dedication and commitment throughout the years, Jeanne Lorenz has also been active in community outreach, working in programs that have helped advance her local community. An active member of St. Gertrude's Church, Jeanne served as the first elected female president of the St. Gertrude Parish Council and served on the Christian Service Commission. Using her training as a home economics teacher, Jeanne organized a funeral luncheon program at St. Gertrude's Church in St. Clair Shores and prepares and serves meals periodically with her volunteers at the Salvation Army in Mount Clemens. She also cooks for the McRest Homeless Shelter program at her church and directs the kitchen crew at the Interfaith Care Givers' Annual Spaghetti Fund Raiser. Jeanne Lorenz's crusade to raise the standards of activism and community outreach programs is one that will be remembered by citizens of this community for years to come.

I applaud Jeanne Lorenz for her leadership and commitment, and thank her for dedicating her life to serving her city and her community. I urge my colleagues to join me in saluting her for her exemplary years of service.

TRIBUTE TO DALY CITY FIRE
CHIEF BOB O'DONNELL

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, I invite my colleagues to join me today in paying tribute to one of the San Francisco Bay Area's most dedicated and distinguished public servants, recently retired Daly City Fire Chief Bob O'Donnell. During Chief O'Donnell's remarkable thirty year career in the Fire Department he left an indelible legacy on the community he served with extraordinary passion and professionalism.

In the wake of September 11th, the American people have come to better understand the heroic commitment of our nations firefighters in serving the public. Risking life and limb to protect the community is part of their daily job. Bob O'Donnell lived up to the highest ideals of public service through his thoughtful leadership, and we should all thank him for his outstanding labors on behalf of the people of San Mateo.

As a young boy, Bob O'Donnell dreamed of becoming a fire fighter, and that dream was realized when, in 1972, at the age of twenty-six, he joined the San Mateo Fire Department. His leadership skills and talent did not go unnoticed and was promoted to Fire Engine Operator in 1979, and then quickly rose to Fire Captain. By 1985, Bob was awarded the highest of honors when he was named firefighter of the year of Daly City. A year later, he was named Administrative Battalion Chief and then Operations Battalion Chief.

In 1997, his service record and leadership skills brought him to the pinnacle of his profession, Fire Chief of Daly City. During his thirty years in service, Bob became a forerunner in the field of fire safety by becoming one of the state's most active proponents of fire prevention and community fire safety education programs. From 1989 through 1996, he served as the department's Public Education Coordinator and led numerous efforts to educate the community on fire safety.

Chief O'Donnell's list of accomplishments is long. In the mid-80's he successfully fought for grants which secured smoke detectors for low-income citizens. His integrity as well as the respect he garnered from his fellow firefighters made him the natural choice to lead efforts in integrating women into the Daly City fire department in 1986. His sensitivity and leadership in the matter made Daly City a model for other fire departments. As Fire Chief, Bob O'Donnell's leadership was pivotal in developing a nationally recognized Joint Partnership Agreement engine-based paramedic program, which involved seventeen in-house paramedics. He coordinated the Vegetation Management Program to remove the highly flammable gorse plants in Daly City's Southern Hill section, thereby changing the area from a very high fire hazard zone to a low hazard zone. Daly City was the first to achieve this feat in California.

Chief O'Donnell's presence will be sorely missed at the fire houses of Daly City, but his legacy of achievement will continue to inspire the brotherhood of professional firefighters. I hope he enjoys his retirement, he's earned it.

PROCLAMATION RECOGNIZING FIREFIGHTER WILLIAM L.
HENRY—RESCUE TEAM NO. 1

HON. MAJOR R. OWENS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, as a tribute to Firefighter William L. Henry of Rescue Team Number 1, a member of the Vulcan's Society and one of the fallen heroes of September 11th, I would like to insert the following proclamation into the RECORD:

Whereas, September 11, 2001 was a day of horror and tragedy that will forever live in the memory of Americans, and;

Whereas, more than 3,000 people from many occupations, nationalities, ethnic groups, religions and creeds were brutally murdered by terrorists, and;

Whereas, members of the New York City Fire Department, New York City Police Department, Port Authority and other Public Safety Personnel, through their valiant, courageous and heroic efforts saved the lives of thousands under unprecedented destructive circumstances; and;

Whereas, more than 300 New York City Firefighters lost their lives in the effort to save others, and

Whereas, Congressman Major R. Owens and the people of the 11th Congressional District salute the bravery and dedication of all who gave their full measure of devotion, and;

Whereas, we deem it appropriate to highlight the courage and valor of individuals and groups in a variety of forms and ceremonies: Now therefore be it

Resolved: That on this 10th Day of March, Two Thousand and Two, Congressman Major R. Owens, and representatives of the people of the 11th Congressional District, pause to salute the sacrifices of these honored men, and to offer their heartfelt condolences to families of these African American Firefighters who died at the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001.

That the text of this resolution shall be placed in the Congressional Record of the United States House of Representatives.

Given by my hand and seal this 10th day of March, Two Thousand and Two in the Year of our Lord.

JIM ROWAN: TIP O'NEILL'S RIGHT-HAND MAN

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to commend to my colleagues an obituary which appeared in the Boston Herald reporting on the death—and some of the attributes—of dear friend James Rowan, Sr.

I've known Jim since his years of service with Speaker of the House Thomas "Tip" O'Neill. We worked together in Washington, traveled the world together with the Speaker, and had a brotherly love and friendship that was shared by our families.

Just as I will never forget my friend Tip O'Neill, I will forever keep with me the many happy memories of my times with Jim Rowan.

My wife Alma and I extend our prayers to Francis and the family, and share in their grief over the loss of a great husband, father and friend.

[From the Boston Herald, Mar. 13, 2002]

JAMES ROWAN SR., AIDE TO HOUSE SPEAKER
O'NEILL

James P. Rowan Sr. of East Boston, a senior political aide to the late House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., died Sunday at his home, after heart failure due to a brief illness. He was 79.

"Jim Rowan was one of Tip O'Neill's right-hand guys, especially on the Massachusetts front. He was full of colorful stories and had a great heart. Few were better at hearing a working person's problem and pushing the right buttons in the federal bureaucracy to get it solved," said Herald political columnist Wayne Woodlief.

A lifelong resident of East Boston, Mr. Rowan attended the High School of Commerce in Boston, the University of Missouri and Suffolk University. He also studied at Calvin Coolidge School of Law.

He served with the Navy in the Pacific for two years during World War II.

Mr. Rowan joined the Massachusetts House member's staff in 1953 and was a senior political aide to Speaker O'Neill for 33 years. He served as O'Neill's coordinator for district service programs and political affairs until the House speaker's retirement in early 1987. He also served as a consultant for the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee for several years beginning in the late 1960s, when O'Neill was national chairman of the group.

During the past 14 years, he had served as a senior consultant to Cassidy and Associates, Washington, D.C., and specialized in international issues. He was also president of J.P.R. Consulting Inc., Boston. He had previously served as an insurance broker and a Boston area bank director.

Mr. Rowan had brief roles in two motion pictures. He was an avid racing enthusiast and owned horses that ran at several eastern state race tracks.

Mr. Rowan is survived by his wife, Francis (Brown); two sons, Daniel and James P. Jr., both of East Boston; and his sister, Frances of East Boston.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Friday at Out Lady of the Assumption Church, East Boston.

A memorial service will be conducted in Washington, D.C., at a later date.

His ashes will be scattered at Saratoga Race Course, Saratoga Springs, N.Y., during the August meet.

Arrangements by McGrath Funeral Home, East Boston.
