

Marsh deflects such praise. In this small farming community that he and his family call home, he has rediscovered what he loved most about Delta Force. "It's the same atmosphere," he says. "Everybody takes care of each other, and we do our jobs."

OF CALIFORNIA

TRIBUTE TO DR. JOE CRAIG

HON. SUE WILKINS MYRICK

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mrs. MYRICK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and work of one of my constituents, Dr. Joe Craig.

Dr. Craig has spent his entire life working to better the lives of others. Since 1978, he has traveled overseas to the poorest of regions, including Africa and Latin America, to provide free medical and dental care. This is a special year for Dr. Craig because he is 70 years old and will be conducting his 70th and final overseas medical mission.

Dr. Craig's altruistic work also extended to his local community of Charlotte, North Carolina. He greatly helped our local Charlotte community by providing free dental services to recovering drug users and alcoholics and by counseling dozens of families through marriage and family problems. He also volunteered in the Charlotte Police Crime Lab in the 1960s before a full-time chemist was hired.

Dr. Craig is a perfect example of the selfless call to volunteerism recently highlighted by President George W. Bush. For this reason, I am honored to recognize Dr. Craig for his life work and congratulate him and his family for his 70 years of dedication to making this world a better place.

CELEBRATING THE WOMEN OF LEWISTON/AUBURN

HON. JOHN ELIAS BALDACCI

OF MAINE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mr. BALDACCI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call my colleagues' attention to a dinner being held next week in the Lewiston/Auburn community of Maine. The event, "Celebrating the Women of L/A," will honor women who have touched the lives of others in their communities.

I am proud to have the opportunity to pay tribute to the following Women of L/A here in the House of Representatives. The Honorees are Diane Ancil, Gail Baillargeon, Kathryn Beale, Sue Capponi, Sandy Conrad, Theresa Cote, Christine Clabby, Lori Cummings, Robin Duffy, Belinda Gerry, Nancy Hinds, Patience

Johnson, Rachel Kay, Kathleen Noel King, Simonne Lavoie, Linda Mynahan, Venise Pratt, Muriel Richard, Patricia Robitaille, Trena Hamblin Steele, Linda Tanguay, Ann Tourtelotte, Dr. Luz Maria Umpierre, and Kathy Varney.

Those submitting nominations were asked to briefly describe what it was about the nominee that made her such a special and important part of the community. Here are a few examples: "She truly cares about the company's employees . . . She is interested in their lives, and she treats everyone with respect and dignity."

"My sister has been an example to me. We came from a single parent home where our father was an alcoholic. She quit school at 16 and worked as a nurses' aide to earn money so our family could stay together. No one thought she would make anything of herself. Through hard work she proved them wrong."

"Despite an extended career with many successes and contributions, she is always focused on the next opportunity to serve. . . . Her dedication to family and friends is equally as selfless."

"How can a daughter even begin to explain how much her mother means to her? There are certainly not enough words in the dictionary for me to tell you who and what my mother is to me."

"She is a loving person with a 'Heart of Gold,' who has touched the lives of many people through her love and dedication in helping others and never wanting anything in return."

"If there could be only one person that I look up to it would be my grandmother. . . . She is the bravest, most courageous person I have ever met and no one could ever replace her."

"Now that I'm grown up with children of my own, I love and appreciate my mother more than ever. I now know how much hard work is involved in being a good mother, although she always made it seem so effortless. . . . When people tell me how much I am like her I take that as the greatest compliment, for I hope I could be half of the woman that she is."

"She saw my need, reached out her hand, and impacted another life—which is just what she does on a daily basis."

These are but a few examples of the testimonials received on behalf of the honorees. They speak to the importance and influence that these women have had on their families, colleagues, and communities.

For decades, the women of Lewiston and Auburn—like those throughout Maine, the nation and the world—have raised children, served as caregivers, worked inside and outside the home, and volunteered their time and talents. They have maintained a strong and quiet foundation for our families that has nourished us all. This celebration recognizes all that women bring to families and our community.

These 24 women are all extremely deserving of this honor, and I congratulate them as they are recognized for their efforts in the home, in the workplace and in the community. I know that they are also representative of many other women throughout these communities and as we honor them, we also look around at the many other women who have made positive differences in L/A. I offer my thanks and best wishes to all the women of L/A for making Lewiston and Auburn such a strong and vibrant community.

GEORGE AND PAULINE "DIMPLES" MURILLO CELEBRATE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, it is my privilege to announce to you and to the rest of my esteemed colleagues, that on March 22, 2002, George and Pauline "Dimples" Murillo will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. I would like to join their friends and loving family in extending my most sincere congratulations.

The Murillos have devoted fifty years to each other, to their families, to their communities, and to the service of our nation. Their marriage is a true achievement.

George Murillo was born to Emilio and Vivian Murillo on July 20, 1931, in San Bernardino, California. Just a few miles away on the San Manuel Indian Reservation, Pauline was born to Martha Manuel Chacon and Pablo Ormego on February 3, 1934. The two met and later married on March 22, 1952, at St. Anne's Catholic Church in San Bernardino in a ceremony performed by Father Domas.

George served his country in the United States Army with active duty status from 1952 to 1954. He was stationed in Fairbanks, Alaska and spent six years in the Reserves receiving an Honorable Discharge in 1960.

The Murillos are a hard working American family. George went on to work for the Santa Fe Railroad for 12 years and then for Kaiser Steel in Fontana for another 18 years. He retired in 1983, but continued to work at the San Manuel Indian Bingo and Casino from 1986 to 1993. Pauline "Dimples" worked as a homemaker. She raised their three children in their house on Vine Street in Highland, California, where the couple lived from 1954 until recently.

Pauline "Dimples," an active member of the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians, has devoted herself to educating her community about the Native American Culture, identity and tradition. She travels to various public schools and colleges in the area to teach students about her culture. She practices traditional Native American crafts making Indian cradle dolls and other arts and crafts, which she sells at Indian Pow-Wows.

The Murillos have served their community in numerous organizations. Pauline "Dimples" is a member of the Highland Women's Club, and both she and George are members of the Highland Senior Center providing services for the area senior citizens. The couple has made many personal contributions to this organization and to their community over the years.

The Murillos' legacy is certainly their family. The couple has been blessed with a loving family including Pauline "Dimples" siblings Raul "Beanie" Chacon, Jr., Roy Chacon, Carla Chacon, Rowena Ramos, and Sandra Marquez, and by George's siblings, Rosie Manzano and Emily Barajas. I am joined in congratulating the Murillo's by their own children, Lynn "Nay" Valbuena, Audrey "Audie" Martinez, and George "Boy" Murillo, and their grandchildren, Rich LeRoy, Sabrina Nakhjavanpour, Robert V. Martinez III, Sheena Martinez, and Dillon, Skye and Zeny Murillo. The Murillo's are also blessed with seven great-grandchildren, Cody and Chloe Nakhjavanpour, Selina Martinez, Robert V. Martinez IV, and Jasmine, Jaylene and Alfonso Martinez.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the United States Congress and the people of California, I extend our sincere congratulations to George and Pauline "Dimples" Murillo.

FARMERS' MARKET NUTRITION PROGRAMS—A SERVICE FOR MICHIGAN COMMUNITIES

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Farmers' Market Nutrition Programs, which provide a vital link between farmers and communities in need of fresh, locally grown produce.

These programs help our small farmers sell their fresh produce, while improving access to nutritious food for seniors and low-income women and children. They play an important role in my district and in the state of Michigan. We have small produce farmers who struggle to make ends meet because they don't have enough steady customers for their products. They lose profits to the wholesalers who market their products when they cannot sell directly to their customers.

Additionally, many communities and urban areas lack grocery stores with adequate produce, which makes it hard for new mothers to provide a balanced diet for their children.

Without access to transportation, many senior citizens and low-income residents are forced to settle for less nutritious options.

The WIC and Seniors Farmers' Market Nutrition Programs bring farmers and residents together in a way that helps everyone. Program participants receive coupons to be used to purchase locally grown produce. Our small farmers stay in business, and our elderly and low-income children stay healthy.

Instead of cutting these programs, we need to find ways to improve access to fresh, nutritious foods for those who need them most. Innovative pilot programs in my home state are creating new outlets for farmers to sell their produce. Several farmers' markets have been organized at senior housing facilities. These programs eliminate the transportation barrier that prevents so many elderly people from having fresh fruits and vegetables. These and other vital programs will end without continued federal funding.

The farm bill will provide over $70 billion in funding to the farmers who feed this country. I urge my colleagues on the conference committee to work together and find a way to fund the WIC and Seniors Farmers' Market Nutrition programs to at least $15 million each.

GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

SPEECH OF

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 19, 2002

Mrs. MORELLA. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Greek Independence Day. Greece and America have remained allies since America aided Greece in its struggle for independence 180 years ago.

Americans have celebrated our connection with Greece throughout our history. Because of the many contributions from Greece and Greek-Americans, President George W. Bush declared March 25th Greek Independence Day.

Our nations share a strong common belief in democracy. The ideologies of ancient Greeks became the backbone of our Declaration of Independence. And, in turn, our beliefs were displayed in their declaration of freedom from the Ottoman Empire.

Greek culture has given us more than our form of government. Buildings and memorials in Washington, D.C., and around the country, including the Capitol building and the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, are modeled on the Greeks' own exceptional architecture. In addition, our culture has been shaped by ancient Greek philosophy and their approach to science.

In recent history Greece has been 1 of only 3 nations that have allied with the United States in every major international conflict. During World War II, 600,000 Greeks gave their lives in the fight for freedom. For more than 50 years, Greeks and Americans have had the privilege of working together in NATO.

Greek-Americans have made many contributions in American communities. Greek-Americans commonly establish communities to maintain awareness of their cultural heritage, provide opportunities for social interaction, while preserving Greek language and traditions for future generations. Additionally, the
