

people and animals in her community was both extraordinary and inspirational. Elizabeth selflessly gave her time and energy to her community through her intense love of all living creatures, and was a woman of unquestioned integrity and of unparalleled morality. She will be sorely missed by each and every person whose life she touched, and as her family mourns her loss, I believe it is appropriate to remember Elizabeth and pay tribute to her for her incredible contributions to her city, and her state.

Elizabeth and her husband John first came to Colorado's San Luis Valley in 1995 after riding on the Cumbres & Toltec Scenic Railroad. They decided to make the beautiful valley their home, and immediately embarked upon a mission to make it a better place for all to live—even the animals. After arriving in the San Luis Valley, Elizabeth served as the President of the Humane League, dedicating her time to organizing fundraisers for spay and neuter clinics and finding homes for stray cats and dogs. She had a strong conviction that the best way to help the plight of animals in the community was to control the population by spaying and neutering. Her efforts were critical in procuring funds from the Max Fund to assist with low-cost spay/neuter clinics in the community. In addition, she loved the outdoors, and had climbed most of Colorado's highest peaks, inspiring her husband to take up the sport as well. Elizabeth's extraordinary selflessness and dedication to all living things will be sorely missed by everyone that knew her, and by all that benefited from her incredible deeds.

Mr. Speaker, we are all terribly saddened by the loss of Elizabeth Moore, but take comfort in the knowledge that our grief is overshadowed only by the legacy of courage, selflessness and love that she left with all of us. Elizabeth Moore's life is the very embodiment of all that makes this country great, and I am deeply honored to be able to bring her life to the attention of this body of Congress.

HONORING THE UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM ON A PERFECT SEASON AND A NATIONAL TITLE

HON. NANCY L. JOHNSON

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to the outstanding accomplishments of the University of Connecticut Women's Basketball Team, who on Sunday March 31st defeated the Oklahoma Sooners to win the NCAA tournament. They finished the season with a perfect record of 39–0.

I would like to offer special congratulations to Head Coach Geno Auriemma who won his third national title, and to Seniors Sue Bird, Swin Cash, Asjha Jones, and Tamika Williams who have had a most remarkable four years.

Mr. Speaker, these extraordinary young women do not need me to tell them that they are champions, or that their accomplishments are appreciated. Surely all the sold-out games, the sea of blue and white that filled the Alamo dome during the Final Four and the 150,000 fans who turned out for the team's victory parade made that clear.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to point out that although they are young adults themselves the outstanding achievements of the this team offers a fine example to our nation's young people. I applaud them for all of their achievements both on and off the court.

IN RECOGNITION OF HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

HON. E. CLAY SHAW, JR.

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Yom Ha Shoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day. We recall now not only the more than six million Jews who lost their lives, but the human potential that was also extinguished during the dark days of World War II. We remember not just the mothers and fathers, the sons and daughters, the brothers and sisters, but also their descendants who never got to make their contributions to mankind. And we remember the heroes who gave their lives in the greatest fight for freedom and democracy the modern world has ever known.

By pausing today, we join in a solemn bond with the victims of the Holocaust to ensure that the world will never suffer such a horrific tragedy again. It is through our reflection that we acknowledge our loss and through our actions that we build a world free of such hatred and despair. Our greatest tribute to the millions who suffered at the hands of the Nazis will be to ensure that their memory will never be extinguished. By recognizing Holocaust Remembrance Day, we do just that by educating today's and future generations.

Yet the fires of hate, which burned so brightly in Europe from 1939 through 1945, never really burned out. They were smoldering in the hearts of the terrorists who flew their planes into the Twin Towers, the Pentagon and into the ground of rural Pennsylvania on September 11th. And those same fires are ablaze even today, in actions of the suicide bombers on the West Bank and in Gaza. We pray, Mr. Speaker, for a soothing rain to extinguish forever the fires of hatred.

With these examples fresh in our minds, we marvel at the strength and character of the Jewish people. Their steadfast determination to rebuild their lives following the Holocaust has given the world a remarkable model of resolve. Through their example, we can glimpse the extraordinary human spirit that rises above the fruitlessness of anger and resentment. With this day and with our deeds we honor that spirit. Mr. Speaker, we observe Yom Ha Shoah to always remember and never forget. I am proud to recognize Yom Ha Shoah and I urge my colleagues, and all Americans, to do the same.

TRIBUTE TO JULIE ROCHE ON HER U.S. CITIZENSHIP

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Julie Roche, a dedicated member of the community and of my campaign staff for officially becoming an American citizen on February 22, 2002.

Julie graduated from the University of California in San Diego in 1992 with a degree in political Science and lived for 6 years in Washington, DC, before settling in Colorado, which is now her permanent home. Though Julie has lived in the United States for almost her entire life, she had retained her Irish citizenship until earlier this year. Giving up her Irish citizenship was a hard decision to make. Like most Americans who have come from abroad, Julie is very proud of her heritage. However, her dedication to public service, her interest in politics and her love for the United States persuaded her to make the choice.

While she is a new citizen, Julie is not a newcomer to our country or our democratic system of government. In addition to working for both my colleague, Representative DIANA DEGETTE, and for me, Julie also works for the Colorado Democratic Party. She has decided—rightly—that American citizenship would allow her to even more fully participate in public affairs and to work for the betterment of what is now fully our common country. In her free time, Julie plays on a soccer team in Denver, runs marathons and is a volunteer for the Colorado Red Cross, where she is on call one week of every month and helps victims of disaster. She is a shining example of the spirit and promise of American democracy and the diversity that makes our country so special.

On behalf of her fellow citizens of Colorado and the United States, I congratulate Julie on her becoming an American citizen.

A TRIBUTE TO SERGEANT MIKE HUMPHREY, NORTH CAROLINA HIGHWAY PATROL

HON. MIKE MCINTYRE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mr. MCINTYRE. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today and honor Sergeant Mike Humphrey of the North Carolina Highway Patrol. On March 31, 2002, Sergeant Humphrey retired after serving the people of North Carolina for over twenty-eight years.

Mike Humphrey was a decorated officer, who spent his career ensuring that the people and the roads of North Carolina were safe. In 1977, Sergeant Humphrey was honored with the Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Award. In addition, Sergeant Humphrey serves on the North Carolina Seventh Congressional District Law Enforcement Advisory Committee, where he is a positive voice for the law enforcement community. Protecting lives and patrolling our communities were not only the passion of Sergeant Humphrey, but also that of his father. The Humphreys were the first father and son to serve simultaneously in the history of the North Carolina Highway Patrol.

We owe Sergeant Mike Humphrey our sincere appreciation for his twenty-eight years of committed service to our state. His determination, devotion, and dedication to the people of North Carolina should serve as an example to us all. May God bless him and his family, and may God bless the great state of North Carolina.

IN CELEBRATION OF THE CAREER OF HON. DEE HARDISON

HON. JANE HARMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Ms. HARMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to celebrate the distinguished career of a spectacular individual—the Honorable Dee Hardison, who steps down today as mayor of the City of Torrance.

Mayor Hardison, whom I fondly and proudly call my “sister,” and I have worked together closely over the last decade to serve the citizens of Torrance and the greater South Bay community of Los Angeles County. Whether it was fighting to keep the Los Angeles Air Force base right where it is, to prevent a geographic split in the 310 telephone area code, or to support the Torrance public school system, I have always treasured Dee’s advice, passion, dedication and, most importantly, her hands-on approach. And speaking of dedication, Mr. Speaker, how many mayors do you know who would continue a 40-mile bike ride after tumbling off her bike during the first leg? Well, that is exactly what Mayor Hardison did one year during my biannual campaign bike ride!

But besides biking, being a good friend, and reaching the “gold standard” of wife, mother and grandmother, Mayor Hardison has devoted so much of her energy to her community. For nearly three decades, Dee shepherded thousands of young people through the Torrance Unified School District, including many years as a special education teacher. While a teacher, she was appointed to the City of Torrance’s Planning Commission and Parks and Recreation Commission. In 1986, she successfully ran for a seat on the City Council and served there for eight years. Having reached the limits on terms of service, she then successfully ran for Mayor, a post she has held with distinction and grace.

While holding all these “day jobs,” Dee still found time to devote to many important community organizations, including—but certainly not limited to—the Torrance Cultural Arts Center Foundation, the Torrance Education Foundation, the Torrance Sister City Association, the Rose Float Association, and the Torrance League of Women Voters. Finally, Dee distinguished herself as a regional leader, recently completing a tour as Chair of the South Bay Cities Council of Governments, which has been instrumental in developing regional solutions to the area’s transportation challenges.

Mr. Speaker, I will miss having Dee as the Mayor of the largest independent city in my district. But I know she will continue to be an active leader in the community be a ready source of advice and counsel. With more spare time, I hope she is improving her biking skills and will join me again this fall on the bike trail.

MURLI DEORA JOINS INDIA’S
UPPER HOUSE

HON. JIM McDERMOTT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, one of the architects of the growing diplomatic relationship between the United States and India received some long overdue recognition last weekend when Murlu Deora was elected to the Raja Sabha, the Upper House of India’s National Parliament.

As our colleagues may recall, relations between the United States and India went through difficult times during the 70’s and 80’s because of the Cold War. We were, as former Ambassador Dennis Kux declared, “estranged democracies.” Yet, even during the weakest of times in our relationship with India, Murlu Deora worked hard to bring our two nations together. His views were often times at odds with the foreign policy establishment in his country. Only during the past decade did the United States’ democracy finally draw close to the world’s largest democracy. In the process, Murlu Deora was vindicated.

Mr. Speaker, Murlu Deora has a long and distinguished career as a politician in India. Murlu began his career in public service more than twenty-five years ago as the Mayor of Mumbai, India’s largest city. Although Murlu’s public life has taken him to all parts of the world, he has never forgotten his roots or his love of this city of more than twelve million people. A long time member of the Congress Party, Murlu remains President of the Mumbai Regional Congress Committee, a grassroots party organization renowned in Indian politics.

Upon completing two terms as Mumbai’s mayor, Murlu was elected repeatedly to the Lok Sabha, the Lower House of India’s parliament. During his many years as a Parliamentarian, Murlu distinguished himself as a skilled legislator. Among his many accomplishments was passage of landmark legislation to open India’s insurance market to foreign investment. Murlu also used his tenure in the Lok Sabha to become a tireless advocate for stronger India-U.S. ties. He founded the India-U.S. Interparliamentary Forum and headed the Indo U.S. Initiative. When members of this body decided to band together to create the Congressional Caucus on India and Indian Americans, Murlu offered his encouragement and support. As the current Co-Chairman of the Caucus, I can attest first hand to Murlu’s dedication, energy and foresight.

Mr. Speaker, the world has always been Murlu’s forum. A former President of the Parliamentary for Global Action, Murlu has spent the last three years working as a senior official of the Indian Red Cross and as International Vice President for the Red Cross in Geneva. Therefore, it is both fitting and appropriate that Murlu has been elected without opposition to the Raja Sabha. All of us who know Murlu congratulate him and welcome his induction into this senior most legislative body in India. I am confident that Murlu will continue to immerse himself in the pressing problems of hunger, disease, the underclass and economic development. And, I am certain that relations between our two countries will also continue to occupy a central place in Murlu’s busy world. As a result, we have much to look forward to, and relations between our two countries will be the clear beneficiary.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO TED DIAZ

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to honor an extraordinary man whose passion for life and incredible human spirit is an inspiration to us all. Ted Diaz, a native Coloradan whose passion for our great state is as constant and unyielding as any I’ve ever known, recently passed an impressive milestone, celebrating his eightieth birthday with a gathering of his friends and family.

Ted was born on April 1st, 1922 in Delta, Colorado, as one of twelve siblings. He attended school in Silt, Colorado, and later moved to Rifle, where he currently resides. Throughout his life, he has been the consummate athlete and good citizen, winning accolades in basketball, softball, bowling and horseshoes, while always giving his time and energy to the community as a mentor and a friend. He coached the town’s American Legion baseball team, as well as the girls’ town team, and umpired high school games in both the spring and summer. For 27 years, he selflessly gave his time to the community by marking the football field for high school games, and by volunteering to run the yard marker. In addition, he valiantly served in the U.S. Army from his station in the Philippines.

While working for Re-2 for 27 years, Ted was also involved in a number of philanthropic activities. He is a member of the Elks, Knights of Columbus and American Legion, and served as commander of American Legion and VFW. In addition, he volunteers his time at preschool in Rifle and in Glenwood Springs. Perhaps his greatest accomplishment, however, was marrying Jo, his lovely wife of 52 years, and raising their son.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I bring to the attention of this body of Congress, the life and spirit of such an incredible man, who is always able to brighten and invigorate the lives of those around him. He is truly an inspiration to all of us, and I, along with the many people whose lives he has touched, am honored to recognize his tremendous accomplishment in reaching his eightieth birthday, and more importantly, his passion for life and indomitable spirit.

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE KOREAN WAR COMMEMORATION—
THANKING KOREAN HOSTS OF
U.S. KOREAN WAR VETERANS

HON. CIRO D. RODRIGUEZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2002

Mr. RODRIGUEZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank you for the kindness and hospitality you showed our Korean War veterans during their visit to Korea. This commemoration is an important reminder of the difficult time when the United States helped Korea fight Communist aggression, and celebrates the victory of democracy over an authoritarian dictatorship. Since that terrible war, many Americans have had the privilege of serving in Korea,
