

Modern Healthcare selected her one of the 50 individuals in the USA to shape the future of health care in the country. In addition, University Hospitals of Cleveland has been the recipient of many awards under her leadership, including, the North Coast 99 Diversity Award from the Employer Resource Council and Enterprise Development and the Exemplary Voluntary Effort Award from the U.S. Department of Labor.

Ms. Walters serves on a variety of national and local boards and is active in civic affairs. She has served on a number of key committees of the Association of American Medical Colleges in Washington, DC. She also serves on the board of Cleveland Tomorrow, Greater Cleveland Roundtable and Ohio Business Roundtable. In 1994 Ms. Walters was appointed by Governor Voinovich to serve on the 15 member Commission to Study the Ohio Economy and Tax Structure. Within the community, she has served as Chairman for the 1997 United Way Campaign, the first woman and first CEO of a non-profit organization to be selected for the position.

My fellow colleagues, I ask you to Join me in rising to honor this truly remarkable woman who has dedicated her life to the betterment of health care, and is one of Cleveland's finest citizens.

PAUL SIMON CHICAGO JOB CORPS CENTER

SPEECH OF

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 7, 2002

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill 378, which will rename the Chicago Job Corps Center, located at 3348 South Kedzie Avenue, in Chicago, Illinois, as the Paul Simon Chicago Job Corps Center after former U.S. Senator Paul Simon of Illinois. Senator Simon was not only a great U.S. Senator for the state of Illinois, but he is a champion for working people across the nation.

Senator Simon has dedicated his life to helping the people of this country. As a scholar, writer, and public servant, Senator Simon has worked hard to battle against the social injustices that haunt our nation. During his congressional service, Senator Simon was a strong supporter of the federal Jobs Corps program and was instrumental in the chartering of a Jobs Corps center in Chicago. The Center provides opportunities in a campus environment to gain a valuable education with advanced career training, to learn a skilled trade, so that individuals may reach their full potential. Job Corps provides up to two years of hands-on work-based training and internships, in areas ranging from bricklaying to computer repair. The Center also provides academic training in remedial math and reading, GED preparation, and English as a second language, and outreach to those in the community that may not have the opportunity to attend college. It is these things that define the goals Senator Simon has set to achieve for the millions of Americans looking for skilled employment in the workplace.

Senator Simon has been a dear friend of mine for many, many years. His contributions and dedication as a public servant have always inspired me. He has not only made great contributions to this country and the state of Illinois, but he continues to play a vital role as Director of the Public Policy Institute at Southern Illinois University. He is a leader in strengthening democracy and in addressing key global issues such as the looming water shortage crisis. I feel that renaming the Chicago Job Corps Center as the Paul Simon Chicago Job Corps Center is an appropriate recognition of what he has done for the Chicago area and all of us. Thank you Paul, for everything.

WORLD ASTHMA DAY

HON. DIANE E. WATSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Ms. WATSON of California. Mr. Speaker, asthma has become epidemic. Over 2.3 million Californians have asthma, a chronic illness that makes breathing difficult and causes symptoms such as shortness of breath, coughing, wheezing and chest tightness. Nationwide, the number of asthma sufferers has increased 50 percent since 1980.

Nearly one in thirteen children in the U.S. have asthma and this percentage is growing more rapidly in preschool age children than in any other group. Between 1982 and 1995, incidents of childhood asthma increased by 87 percent and is now the most common chronic illness among children. Asthma accounts for approximately 17 percent of children's emergency room visits and is the major cause of school absences.

Asthma can be fatal. Rates of death from asthma, hospitalizations and visits to emergency rooms have been increasing for more than 20 years, particularly among children and African Americans. During 1979 to 1982, the death rate from asthma for all blacks has increased 71 percent while for whites it has increased 41 percent.

Asthma episodes can be triggered by dust, pets, mold, air pollution, tobacco smoke, some insects, certain chemicals, cold air and stress. Managing asthma includes proper diagnosis, access to high quality medical care and monitoring the condition and avoiding the things that trigger attacks.

In Los Angeles, the Asthma and Allergy Foundation of America—Southern California chapter, working in conjunction with the California Department of Health Services—Childhood Asthma Initiative and the Los Angeles County Department of Health Services, is sponsoring a community-based initiative to identify ways to control inhalation exposures that trigger children's asthma attacks. The Healthy African American Families has established an asthma intervention program called "Breathe Free" that is targeted for African American children in South Los Angeles communities.

I applaud the efforts of these organizations to identify the asthma risk factors, educate the public, provide intervention measures in homes and child care centers and make progress in reversing the terrible trend of childhood asthma.

TRIBUTE TO RETIRING CHAIRMAN
ROBERT W. GIARRUSSO

HON. JAMES T. WALSH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to highlight the public service of a longtime local business leader in my Central New York district. From 1988 until just recently, Mr. Bob Giarrusso served as Chairman of the Onondaga County Republican Committee. I write to congratulate him on his retirement and to thank him for his fourteen years of service to our community. He is the longest serving chairman in the committee's history.

During Bob's tenure, the Onondaga County Republican Committee flourished. He made the committee more democratic and more inclusive and expanded committee members' involvement and influence. His efforts supported Republican candidates at all levels of government, and his leadership encouraged some of our community's best and brightest individuals to run for public office.

Most importantly, Bob Giarrusso led local Republicans with an unique style all his own that was both endearing and dignified. Through Bob's longtime political service, our community certainly has been enhanced.

Many new challenges await Central New York Republicans as we enter a new year. I applaud Bob for his strong leadership and believe that his decision to step aside will only infuse the local Republican Party with new energy and new life.

It's my pleasure to thank Mr. Giarrusso for his service to the Central New York community and to congratulate him on a job well done.

HONORING CITRUS HEIGHTS, CALIFORNIA CITY COUNCILMAN TIM RANEY

HON. DOUG OSE

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. OSE. Mr. Speaker, tonight, Tim Raney will be recognized for his service as a councilman in my hometown of Citrus Heights, California. Though the peaceful transition of officials into and out of elective office is not a unique occurrence in this great nation, this particular event is worthy of our recognition.

Tim Raney was elected to the Citrus Heights City Council in November of 1996, on the same ballot that a proud community voted to make formal its desire to become an incorporated city. Tim was an active leader in the drive for Citrus Heights cityhood, an effort that was more than a decade in the making, going to the United States Supreme Court to affirm the right of its residents to self-governance.

As a member of the first city council, Tim and the four other council members were responsible for negotiating the contracts for police and public safety services, garbage and waste management services, and all other services that make a city responsive to its citizens.

In his six years on the council, he was a tireless advocate for the community. He served on the Sacramento Transportation Authority, Sacramento Regional County Sanitation District, and the Sacramento Metropolitan Fire District. In 1998, then Governor Pete Wilson appointed him to the Commission on Local Governance for the 21st Century. From naming a blue-ribbon panel to improve school test scores, to championing economic development issues and working to bring consensus to regional transportation issues, his mark on the community is clear.

As Councilman Raney steps down from the city council to pursue professional goals and commit more time to his growing family in their new home, he does so as more than a former councilman. He will be remembered as one of the founders of the City of Citrus Heights, and as a solid example of a true public servant.

HONORING THE WOODMERE SISTERHOOD OF CONGREGATION SONS OF ISRAEL

HON. CAROLYN MCCARTHY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise in honor of the past, present and future female congregants of Congregation Sons of Israel—Woodmere Synagogue.

For over 70 years, the Woodmere Sisterhood organization has promoted ideals that lie not only at the core of Judaism, but at the core of humanity. Their involvement on Long Island has affected individuals on many levels. Hundreds of women have dedicated themselves to bettering our community and on June 2, members of the Congregation will honor the Sisterhood at the annual Journal Dinner Dance.

These women led other congregants in perpetuating the rich heritage of the Jewish people through a variety of community outreach programs. These included trips to various museums, "Lunch and Learn" Sabbaths, screenings of pertinent films and lecture series.

They established and maintained a Judaic library and Video Center for the use of the congregation and Hebrew School. They also created several scholarship funds. One offers teens the opportunity to spend a summer in Israel; one offers partial tuition to the Hebrew High School; one offers needy children partial tuition to the Morgenstern Hebrew School; and one subsidizes camp tuition. They also have a Torah Fund for the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York City.

The Sisterhood plays a crucial role in certain day-to-day operations of the Synagogue. Their participation in the local community varies from providing new floral arrangements for the sanctuary every Sabbath to gift-giving on special occasions: Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, weddings and births. The Sisterhood was also instrumental in hosting Bat Mitzvah classes for adult women in the congregation.

The Sisterhood is involved in International matters, especially those concerning Israel. The current situation has greatly affected all members of Congregation Sons of Israel—Woodmere. The Sisterhood just concluded a fund raising drive to purchase an armored school van for an Israeli school.

The list of the Sisterhood's accomplishments and contributions is endless. Today I rise in recognition of the countless women who have contributed to this effort, in particular the following past Sisterhood presidents:

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. BOB GOODLATTE

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. GOODLATTE. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 128, I was inadvertently detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

IN PRAISE OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION'S SUPPORT OF OUR 2ND AMENDMENT RIGHTS TO KEEP AND BEAR ARMS

HON. RONNIE SHOWS

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. SHOWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to offer my praise to President Bush for declaring that the Second Amendment protects an individual's right to possess a firearm and is not tied to the maintenance of state militias.

On Monday, Solicitor General Theodore Olsen made the Bush Administration's position clear when he filed briefs in the Supreme Court on two cases that are under review. In short, it is the Administration's position that the Second Amendment grants an individual the right to keep and bear arms.

I am pleased that the Bush Administration has recognized that the Constitution protects individual rights to keep and bear arms. But we must always remain vigilant against efforts to strip us of our rights. As a member of the National Rifle Association, I vigorously oppose any gun control efforts that violate our Constitutional rights, such as national registration of law-abiding gun owners or misguided law suits against gun manufacturers.

Some people believe that enacting new laws against guns will prevent school violence or crimes committed with guns. It is easy for them to equate gun violence with the need for greater gun control, but this is a complex problem with many factors contributing to it, not just guns. We should stop looking for scapegoats. Simply enacting more gun control laws on top of the many already in place does not begin to address this problem.

Again, I applaud President Bush for taking a strong stand in favor of our constitutional right to keep and bear arms.

IN HONOR OF DR. MARTY PLAX

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Marty Plax, for his 26 years of service as Director of The American Jewish Committee's Cleveland Chapter. His tenure as Area Director was characterized by integrity, character, and intelligence.

Marty Plax's academic background made him an ideal candidate to serve as director of the committee. After receiving an undergraduate degree from Washington University in 1963, he went on to the State University of New York at Buffalo where he earned a Masters Degree and Ph.D. in Political Science. Dr. Plax then embarked on a highly distinguished academic career, which included lecturing and holding professional positions at a number of major universities. In addition, Dr. Plax shared his expertise as the Visiting Scholar at the Hebrew Union College in Los Angeles and served as Adjunct Associate Professor at Cleveland State University since 1979.

Moreover, Dr. Plax is a man with a strong social conscience, who used his academic training to assist him in community involvement. He is a prolific social writer who has published several books, numerous articles, and countless "Letters to the Editor." However, his writings were only one aspect of his community work. He can be best described as a "Contemplative in Action." A leader in Community Conflict Resolution, he has been involved with mediation since 1968, served as Chairman of the Ohio Boxing Commission, as a member of the Community Relations Committee for The Cleveland Orchestra, and on the State Advisory Committee of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission.

I ask my colleagues to join me in rising to honor this truly remarkable individual for his distinguished years of service to Cleveland, the United States, and the world.

REMARKS BY BILL WEBB, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE CONGRESSIONAL FIRE SERVICES INSTITUTE

HON. CURT WELDON

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 8, 2002

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I would like to enclose in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the remarks of Bill Webb, Executive Director of the Congressional Fire Services Institute, during a ceremony honoring one of our colleagues, NICK SMITH of Michigan, for his support of our Nation's fire and emergency service personnel.

Good afternoon. My name is Bill Webb, Executive Director of the Congressional Fire Services Institute. Established as a non-profit, nonpartisan policy institute, CFSI serves a unique role in Washington, DC educating Congress about the needs and challenges of our Nation's fire and emergency services . . . not the needs of one particular facet such as the career or volunteer fire service or the chiefs, but all fire and emergency services providers.
