HON. JERRY WELLER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 2002

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Dr. James Clark for his years of service in the educational system. Dr. Clark, who retires this year, has served as the Superintendent of the Joliet Township High Schools since July 1, 1996.

Dr. Clark started his career in Marion, Indiana where he taught speech, drama, and English. He has since taught in Harvey and Lockport High Schools. In 1999 Dr. Clark was appointed Assistant Superintendent for Educational Services at the Joliet Township High Schools. In 1996, he received the appointment as Superintendent. Dr. Clark is also an Adjunct Instructor at Aurora University and Governors State University.

Being a generous person, Dr. Clark is also involved with the community. He is active in Rotary, serves as a member of the Joliet Area American Cancer Society Board of Directors, on the Joliet Area Chamber of Commerce and Industry Board of Directors, as vice-chair of the American Heart Association Heart Walk, and in various professional school administrator organizations.

Dr. Clark and his wife Linda are the proud parents of two sons and one grandson. Dr. Clark is revered throughout the Joliet community. In fact, the City of Joliet declared Monday, May 13, 2002 as "Dr. James H. Clark Day".

Mr. Speaker, I urge this body to identify and recognize others in their own districts whose actions have so greatly benefitted and strengthened America's communities.

RECOGNIZING THE OUTSTANDING SERVICE OF COMMANDER KARL VAN DEUSEN

HON. C.W. BILL YOUNG

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 2002

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an outstanding naval officer, Commander Karl Van Deusen, who has served with distinction and dedication during the last year as a Navy Appropriations Liaison Officer in the Assistant Secretary of the Navy's (FM&C) Appropriations Matters Office. It is a privilege for me to recognize his many outstanding achievements and commend him for the superb service he has provided to the Department of the Navy, the Congress, and our great Nation.

During his tenure in the Appropriations Matters Office Commander Van Deusen provided the members and staff of my Committee on Appropriations, and our Subcommittee on Defense, with timely and accurate support regarding Department of the Navy plans, programs and budget decisions. His valuable contributions have enabled the Defense Subcommittee and the Department of the Navy to strengthen its close working relationship and to ensure the most modern, well-trained and well-equipped Naval Forces attainable for the defense of our great nation.

In addition to his professional relationship with my Committee, Karl has become like a family member to Beverly, to me, and to my sons. He is a constituent from St. Petersburg, Florida and he has served as a role model for my sons, who he has inspired to pursue careers in the United States Navy and Marine Corps.

Karl is also a recognized hero. He was recently awarded the Navy Commendation Medal for his courageous actions immediately following the September 11th attack on the Pentagon. Without regard for his personal safety, Karl time and time again helped bring fellow service members and civilians out of the burning building that terrible day.

Mr. Speaker, Commander Karl Van Deusen is the epitome of a United States Naval Officer. He now embarks on the dream job of any sailor, taking command of a ship and her crew. As he assumes command of the USS Gonzales, one of our nation's newest destroyers, I know the many friends he has made in working with the Congress will miss him greatly. Of course, our loss is his new crew's gain, and I am confident that Karl will be a great Captain who will ensure that his ship and crew are ready for whatever lies ahead.

I join with my colleagues today in wishing Commander Van Deusen, his wife, Beth, and their five children, Bonnie, Jon, Margaret, Todd, and Cora the very best in one of the best jobs in the world. This great American family has made many sacrifices during a Navy career in which Karl has distinguished himself with an unselfish service that exemplifies the Navy's core values of honor, courage and commitment. Clearly Commander Van Deusen is one of the best our nation has to offer and as he departs the Pentagon to return to sea duty, I call upon colleagues to wish Karl and his family every success and "fair winds and following seas" for the captain and crew of the USS Gonzales.

MAY 28 REPUBLIC DAY

HON. DAN BURTON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 2002

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of my remarks is to congratulate, on behalf of myself and my colleagues, the Republic of Azerbaijan on the May 28 Republic Day. After the break-up of the Soviet Union we have all seen Azerbaijan's strife not only to occupy its rightful place in the international community, but, first and foremost, to preserve its sovereignty, independence, and territorial integrity, to promote the energy projects on the Caspian, as well as to establish relations of friendship and cooperation with the United States and the European nations.

Now we consider Azerbaijan to be one of the strongest U.S. allies among the post-Soviet countries. The reforms in Azerbaijan, both economic and political, as well as this nation's role in the international antiterrorist campaign, prove its dedication to the democracy, free market economy, its intention to pursue cooperation, not confrontation.

I extend my congratulations to President Aliyev and the people of the Republic of Azerbaijan and express my belief that the bilateral relations between our two countries will further develop and strengthen for the well-being of both our peoples, as well as with the purpose of furthering the U.S. interests in the South Caucasus, where Azerbaijan has become a stabilizing force.

IN RECOGNITION OF MARGO
CATSIMATIDIS

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 2002

Mrs. MALONEY of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to Margo Catsimatidis on the occasion of the 11th Annual Hellenic Times Scholarship Dinner Dance. Ms. Catsimatidis's contributions to the Hellenic community have touched countless lives. It is a pleasure to pay tribute to this illustrious community leader.

Ms. Catsimatidis is Vice-Chairperson and one of the founders of the Hellenic Times Scholarship Fund, which this year will be granting $150,000 in scholarships to young Greek-American students from across the country. Established in 1990 for the education of Greek-American students, the Hellenic Times Scholarship Fund has awarded over $700,000 to more than 400 students to date.

Ms. Catsimatidis joined the staff of the Hellenic Times in 1979 as head of Advertising and assumed her current position as co-publisher in 1993. In 1984, Ms. Catsimatidis founded MCV Advertising Associates, an advertising agency specializing in retail print advertising whose accounts appear in all major New York City print media. She is also the television spokesperson for Grinstead's Supermarkets in New York City.

As a civic leader, Ms. Catsimatidis served as the Coordinator of the annual Columbus Avenue Festival from 1979-1991. The 30 block festival draws a crowd in excess of one million, raising funds for the West Side of Manhattan for various schools and community projects on the West Side of Manhattan. She was also one of the founders and coordinators of the Amsterdam Avenue Festival and is a member of the West Side Chamber of Commerce.

Volunteering much of her time in an effort to better the lives of others, Ms. Catsimatidis is active on numerous committees, serving as Chairperson of the National Alzheimer's Foundation Dinner and Chairperson of the Parkinson's Disease Foundation Dinner. In addition, she serves on the Executive Committee of New York Hospital and the Police Athletic League (PAL), which helps 60,000 underprivileged children every year.

Ms. Catsimatidis and her husband, John, have used their own resources to benefit communities in need and others. Ms. Catsimatidis and her husband built a computer and science school in Jerusalem. Recognizing that Camp David had no religious sanctuary of its own, they have helped build the first Chapel at Camp David. The couple was also instrumental in building a home for the aged in New York.

A proud resident of Manhattan and mother of two, Ms. Catsimatidis is a member of the Leadership 100 for the Greek Orthodox Church and served as Chairperson of the Children's Luncheon raising funds for cancer-stricken children.

In recognition of these outstanding achievements, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Margo Catsimatidis. Ms. Catsimatidis's spirit and dedication to our community serves as a model of commitment to us all.

IN HONOR OF NATIONAL NURSING HOME WEEK AND THE NURSING
HOMES OF THE 10TH CONGRES-SIONAL DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 2002

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to recognize today National Nursing Home Week and honor the many great nursing homes located in the 10th Congressional District. This year is the 35th annual year of National Nursing Home Week and the theme is Celebrating the Seasons of Life.

I believe that this theme is indicative of all that the nursing homes of Macomb and St. Clair Counties have to offer. They strive to provide their residents a high quality of life and treat those in need with dignity and respect. The nursing homes of the 10th Congressional District work hard to provide their residents quality care, and I have met with many of those whose lives have been improved by living in nursing homes.

I have seen first hand the importance nursing homes and their staff play in the lives of residents and the families of those residents. It is hard for families when a loved one enters a nursing home, but with a caring and compassionate staff these thoughts are quickly forgotten.

Unfortunately, I have heard first hand about the burdens that Medicare and Medicaid reductions have placed on nursing home facilities. As a nation, we should be doing everything that we can to promote good, long-term care for our citizens, not compromising the care that our parents and grandparents receive. These reductions make it hard for nursing homes to continue providing quality care to those who need it.

During National Nursing Home Week, it is important to remember that our loved ones—our parents and grandparents—deserve the best in their later years. We need to ensure that our nursing homes and their staff have the resources and support to continue to provide quality care for all.

INDIAN CHILD WELFARE ACT
AMENDMENTS OF 2002

HON. DON YOUNG

OF ALASKA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 2002

Mr. YOUNG of Alaska. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce legislation with my colleague, Congressman J.D. HAYWORTH of Arizona to amend the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA). This bill clarifies Congress's intent with regard to ICWA.

Many of the bill's provisions are included in direct response to tribal comments on H.R. 2644, an ICWA bill I introduced last year in response to tribal concerns. H.R. 2644 was drafted with the input of the Association on American Indian Affairs, Tanana Chiefs Conference, National Indian Child Welfare Association, National Congress of American Indians, the American Academy of Adoption Attorneys, various tribes and other concerned organizations. The changes that the present bill makes to H.R. 2644 also reflect input from each of these named organizations, although the American Academy of Adoption Attorneys has not had the opportunity to review a number of these.

It has been my policy to have all affected parties participate in the legislative process to help finalize a bill for passage. With this in mind, it is my intent to include the American Academy of Adoption Attorneys later in the legislative process.

In 2002, we still have American Indian and Alaska Native children being adopted out of families, tribal communities and states. We continue to have this problem in Alaska and I have been asked to introduce amendments to further clarify the ICWA. The amendments include, among others, the following provisions:

Requires detailed notice to Indian tribes in all voluntary child custody proceedings and to parents and tribes in all involuntary proceedings.

Clarifies right of Indian tribes to intervene in all voluntary state court child custody proceedings, provided that the tribe files a notice of intent to intervene or a written objection within 45 days of receiving notice of a voluntary termination of parental rights or within 100 days of receiving notice of a particular adoptive placement, and certifies that a child is a member or eligible for membership at the time of its intervention.

Requires notice to extended family members and recognizes their right to intervene in state child custody proceedings.

Requires attorneys, public and private agencies to provide detailed information to Indian parents of their rights under ICWA.

Limits parents' rights to withdraw consent to an adoption to 6 months after relinquishment of the child or 30 days after the filing of an adoption petition, whichever is later.

Clarifies tribal jurisdiction in Alaska.

Facilitates ability of tribes without reservations, including tribes in Alaska and Oklahoma, or with disestablished reservations to assume jurisdiction over child custody proceedings.

Narrows the grounds upon which state courts can refuse to transfer cases to tribal courts.

Clarifies tribal court authority to declare children wards of the tribal court.

Defines the circumstances under which state ICWA violations may be reviewed by federal courts and provides for federal review of state ICWA compliance.

Provides for criminal sanctions for anyone who assists a person to lie about their Indian ancestry for the purposes of applying the ICWA.

Allows state courts to enter enforceable orders providing for visitation or contact between tribes, natural parents, extended family and an adopted child.

Extends ICWA to cover children of state-recognized Indian tribes (in some cases), and children who reside or are domiciled on a reservation and are the child or grandchildren of a member, but who are not eligible for tribal membership.

Makes it easier for adoptees to gain access to their birth records.

I think it is appropriate that Congress further clarifies the ICWA to ensure that American Indian and Alaska Native children are not snatched from their families or tribal communities without cause. In July of 2001, the Child Welfare League of America offered American Indians something they have longed to hear for more than three decades: an apology for taking American Indian children.

"It was genuinely believed that Indian children were better off in white homes," said Terry Cross, Executive Director of the National Indian Child Welfare Association. (San Antonio Express News, Sunday, July 1, 2001 Article).

That changed in 1978 when Congress passed the Indian Child Welfare Act. Even now, Cross cites problems. "Sometimes social workers are not properly trained to identify children as Indian. Or agencies fail to notify tribes of adoptions." (San Antonio Express News, Sunday, July 1, 2001 Article).

I believe these FY 2002 ICWA amendments to be acceptable legislation which will protect the interests of prospective adoptive parents, Native extended families, and most importantly, American Indian and Alaska Native children.

The Committee on Resources will seek additional input from the Department of Justice, the Department of the Interior and the Department of Health and Human Services. I am hopeful that these agencies will again embrace this legislation so that we can affirm this country's commitment to Protect Native American families and promote the best interest of Native children.

I urge and welcome support from my colleagues in further clarifying the ICWA to ensure no more American Indian or Alaska Native children are lost.
