NOT VOTING—8

□ 1450

Ms. WOOLSEY, Mr. ACKERMAN, and Mr. OWENS changed their vote from “aye” to “no.”

So the motion was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated against:

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, this afternoon I greatly enjoyed the opportunity to visit with high school students from Becker, Minnesota who are participating in the Close-Up program. As a result of our visit, I was unable to record my vote during the consideration of the misguided tax legislation that will undermine Social Security.

Had I been present, I would have voted “no” on rollcall 103, for I strongly opposed last year's irresponsible tax bill, and I certainly do not support making these tax law changes permanent. If enacted, this fiscally reckless plan would spend $400 billion on tax cuts for the wealthy, every penny of which comes directly out of Social Security.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Ms. PELOSI asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of inquiring about the schedule of next week.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Ms. PELOSI. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the House has completed recorded votes for the week.

The House will next meet for legislative business on Tuesday, April 23 at 12:30 p.m., that is for morning hour, and at 2 o'clock p.m. for legislative business. On Tuesday I will schedule a number of measures under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices tomorrow. The House will also take any recorded votes on motions to instruct conferees offered later today. On Tuesday, recorded votes will be postponed until 6:30 p.m.

For Wednesday and Thursday, I have scheduled H.R. 3763, the Corporate and Auditing Accountability, Responsibility, and Transparency Act of 2002, reported out of the Committee on Financial Services on Tuesday, and H.R. 3231, the Immigration Reform and Accountability Act of 2002, reported out of the Committee on the Judiciary last week.

Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, reclaiming my time, I thank the gentleman for informing us of the days for the INS restructuring bill and the Committee on Financial Services accounting bill.

While I have the floor, Mr. Speaker, may I say to the distinguished majority leader, I wish to register a point of deep concern to our side of the aisle. There seems to be a recurring pattern this year where there are no substitutes or alternatives allowed on major, major bills. Today, the procedure did not even permit a motion to recommit to protect Social Security. Despite repeated promises to always guarantee the motion to Democrats, today it was denied on one of the most important votes in this Congress. I want to register objection and disapproval to this and ask the leader if he wishes to comment.

Mr. ARMEY. Again, Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for her inquiry. I do appreciate the concerns expressed by the gentlewoman. The parliamentary rules between our two respective bodies on an exchange between the two bodies do not allow for motions to recommit on legislation action taken today. The action we took today, of course, was to advance the work that was sent to us by the other body with respect to adoption of the tax credit, a very important objective of all of the body, and we were able to in this way manage all three things.

But I want to appreciate again the gentlewoman's concerns, her expression, and say that it is indeed something that we pay most concern and credibility to.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, there were those among us who would have tried to, by procedure, hold up the proceedings of the House; but we wanted, such as it was, to have as much of a debate as we could on an issue of major concern to the American people. I think that we all recognize that we come to this floor with differences of opinion, or range of opinion, on issues. Sometimes we can act in a bipartisan way, and that is great for the American people. They expect and deserve us to try and seek a common ground.

Where we do not have it, though, we must stand our ground; and I do not see why we could not have an opportunity to have a fuller debate on the subject. I do not understand why the Republicans would be afraid of a motion to recommit to save Social Security; and I hope that this does not proceed, because I think it could be very damaging to our relationships in this House; and I know that we want to proceed in as much of a bipartisan fashion as possible.

I thank the gentleman for the information.
