

□ 1830

They won back-to-back championships. And this year, the men's hockey team won as well. As my colleague, the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. GUTKNECHT) noted, the men's wrestling team won as well.

I might add a footnote to all this pride in hockey. The University of Minnesota Duluth Theater Troop has, for the fifth time in the 34 years of the competition, won the Kennedy Center National Collegiate Theater Competition. And for the second time in 3 years, drama is also a part of the human spirit.

To Kathryn Martin's credit, she has nurtured the drama program; herself a theater and drama professor and coach, she has nurtured this program. And to the great credit of UMD, the theater troop, for the second time in 3 years, was one of the four final winners of the Kennedy Center Theater Performance.

University of Minnesota on the athletic side as well as on the intellectual and spiritual side of lifting the human spirit has contributed enormously to the northland. And to all the scholar athletes and scholar theater performers who have participated and won national honors, as the gentleman said, our buttons indeed are bursting a bit. It is appropriate for us to offer this recognition on the House floor.

I thank the gentleman for the time, and I congratulate the University of Minnesota Duluth and the University of Minnesota main campus on their achievements.

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. ISAKSON. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume to conclude by commending the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. KENNEDY) on offering the resolution, and I encourage my colleagues in the House to support it.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. WHITFIELD). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. ISAKSON) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the concurrent resolution, H. Con. Res. 391.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
