NAYS—12

NOT VOTING—23

□ 1152

Messrs. AKIN, HEFLEY and NORWOOD changed their vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, during rolcall vote No. 13 on February 7, 2002, the voting machine malfunctioned and did not record my vote. Had it registered my vote, I would have voted “yea.”

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. PICKERING). Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the pending business is the question of the Speaker's approval of the Journal.

The question is on agreeing to the Speaker's approval of the Journal of the last day's proceedings.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. KOLBE. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 363, noes 33, answered “present” 1, not voting 38, as follows:

[Roll No. 14]

So the Journal was approved.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated for:

Ms. MCCARTHY of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, during rollcall vote No. 14, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained for rollcall No. 12, H. Res. 343, on Agreeing to the Resolution, Providing for consideration of H.R. 3394, the Cyber Security Research and Development Act. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

I was also unavoidably detained for rollcall No. 13, H.R. 3394, the Cyber Security Research and Development Act. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

I was also unavoidably detained for rollcall No. 14, Approving the Journal of the House. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. DEMINT. Mr. Speaker, I was unable to be in Washington, DC today because I was participating at a conference hosted by the International Justice Mission (IJM).

As a result, I was not able to vote today. Had I been able to vote, I would have recorded the following: On rollcall vote No. 12, I would have voted "yea"; on rollcall vote No. 13, I would have voted "yea"; on rollcall vote No. 14, I would have voted "aye."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. SLAUGHTER. Mr. Speaker, I was unable to be present for rollcall votes 12, 13, and 14. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall votes 12, 13, and 14.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, due to a scheduling conflict, I was unable to be present during the following votes that were held on February 7, 2002. Had I been here, I would have voted "aye" on the Journal vote, "aye" on H. Res. 343, and "aye" on H.R. 3394.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2356, BIPARTISAN CAMPAIGN REFORM ACT OF 2001

Mr. REYNOLDS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 107-358) on the resolution (H. Res. 344) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2356) to amend the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 to provide bipartisan campaign reform, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Ms. PELOSI asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I take this time for the purpose of inquiring about the schedule for next week.

I yield to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. ARMEY).

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the House has completed its legislative business for the week.

The House will next meet for legislative business on Tuesday, February 12, at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour and 2 o'clock p.m. for legislative business. The House will consider a number of measures under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices tomorrow.

At 5:30 p.m. the House will take up the rule providing for consideration of campaign finance reform legislation. That vote, along with suspension votes, will be postponed until 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

On Wednesday, the House will take up campaign finance reform legislation throughout the day. The rule under which the measure will be considered provides for 1 hour of general debate and for debate on amendments that could total 10 hours. Therefore, I would advise Members that a late night is possible on Wednesday, and votes are still possible on Thursday, if necessary, to complete consideration of the bill.

Mr. Speaker, the following week will be the Presidents Day district work period. However, I do want to take this opportunity to notify our Members that I have scheduled H.R. 1542, the Internet Freedom and Broadband Deployment Act of 2001, for consideration in the House the following week on Wednesday, February 27.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I thank the distinguished majority leader for his comments.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to seek some clarification. We are pleased to see that campaign finance reform will be on the floor next week and look forward to a vigorous debate on cleaning up our failed system. Just to clarify, we will vote on the rule on Tuesday night. Will we be debating the rule before the votes on the suspensions?

Mr. ARMEY. If the gentlewoman will continue to yield, yes. We would expect the debate on the rule to begin at 5:30 p.m.

Ms. PELOSI. I thank the gentleman for his reiteration of that.

Now, we are planning to complete final passage on campaign finance reform on Wednesday, or go over until Thursday, if necessary?

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, the gentlewoman again is correct. We hope we can complete that work on Wednesday night. I think the Members should be prepared to work on that bill on Thursday.

Ms. PELOSI. If we complete action on campaign finance reform on Wednesday, will there be any votes on Thursday?

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, if the gentlewoman will continue to yield, if we complete our work on Wednesday night, we would probably want to start our district work period on Thursday and get Members home a day early.

Ms. PELOSI. Therefore, one would infer from the gentleman's remarks that even if we complete campaign finance reform on Thursday, there would be no other business that day?

Mr. ARMEY. That is correct.

Ms. PELOSI. If we go into Thursday.

Mr. ARMEY. If the gentlewoman would yield further, the gentleman from California (Mr. DREIER) has just reminded me that Thursday is Valentine's Day, and, given his many romantic interests, he needs the entire day to deliver valentines.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I object.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, finally, as the distinguished majority leader knows, we are in an economic recession, and millions of workers have lost their jobs. The Senate has completed action on 13 weeks of extended benefits for these workers. When will the majority schedule that bill for House consideration?

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for the inquiry, and I understand her concern about all the difficulties people have being out of work. That, of course, is why we have sent two real economic stimulus bills that really would have created real jobs for thousands of American citizens, and we really are disappointed that the Senate, under Senator DASCHLE's leadership, could do nothing but send back the benefit extensions. We have that under consideration.

It is still the continuing hope of many of us that perhaps we might send back something that would actually, in fact, do something to help people go back to work, and that perhaps with Senator DASCHLE's meager beginning in this area, he might be able to bring more substantive legislation to his body.

So I cannot at this point give a definitive answer.
