So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

RECOGNIZING THE FIRST TEE

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and agree to the resolution (H. Res. 448), recognizing The First Tee for its support of programs that provide young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character education, life-enhancing values such as honor, integrity, and sportsmanship.

The Clerk read as follows:

H. RES. 448

Resolved, That the House of Representatives recognizes The First Tee for its support of programs that provide young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character education, life-enhancing values such as honor, integrity, and sportsmanship.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SHIMKUS). Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BOEHNER) and the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. KIND) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BOEHNER).

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on House Resolution 448.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of this resolution that recognizes the efforts of The First Tee, a youth character-building organization with programs located throughout the country. This program provides young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through both the game of golf and character education, values and character traits that will positively impact their lives and experiences in school.

The First Tee programs are community-based and implemented through a partnership of parents, civic and corporate leaders, State and local governments, youth-serving agencies, schools, and the golfing community.

Mr. Speaker, a few weeks ago, President and Mrs. Bush hosted a conference at the White House on the importance of character education to our Nation's youth. President Bush cited the importance of character education in instilling common values in our youth. He said, "Americans believe in character education because we want more for our children than apathy or cynicism," the President said. He went on by saying, "We've got higher aspirations for every child in America. We want them to understand the difference between right and wrong."

No activity better parallels life and teaches character better than the game of golf. On the golf course one learns responsibility, honesty, patience, self-control, integrity, respect, confidence, and most importantly, sportsmanship.

As in life, to be successful at golf we must realize we are going to make mistakes. Overcoming both our errors and bad bounces is just as much a part of the game as trying to hit a perfect shot. We learn that a 3-foot putt is just as important as a 300-yard drive, and that we must learn to put the last shot behind us in order to execute the next.

We also learn about ourselves and where our shortcomings lie, the things we need to work on on life's practice range.

The First Tee is working to make the game of golf more affordable and accessible to young people throughout the Nation by opening up golf courses and providing instruction for free and at reduced rates to children of all socio-economic backgrounds. By the year 2005, The First Tee expects to serve more than 500,000 children in 250 programs throughout the United States. In my State of Ohio currently there are four The First Tee programs serving more than 1,500 children today.

Just as importantly, the golf-related exercises are paired with The First Tee life skills program, which teaches young people values such as responsibility, honesty, integrity, respect, confidence, and sportsmanship. Jack Nicklaus, a man synonymous with the game of golf and a supporter of The First Tee program, said, "For The First Tee, golf is the vehicle, but it is not the destination. We are teaching the young boys and girls a game that can last a lifetime, but through our life skills program we are teaching them lessons for life."

One student in particular, Amber Davis, from Atlanta, Georgia, has been
