

I would further say that this bill came up in two pieces, which is extremely unusual for our system. One reason it came up in two pieces was because we were undertaking continuing military operations and, because of that, the chairman of the full committee, the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. STUMP), at whose direction I am acting today, worked with the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. SKELTON), and we put together a bipartisan bill that did give some direction to where some of this money went.

Let me just describe for the Members where some of the money went. Some of it went to what is known as combat pay enhancements. That includes increasing family separation allowance, increasing flight pay for crew members, increasing the death gratuity given to survivors, increasing career enlistment flying incentive, increasing diving pay, increasing hazardous duty pay.

We also put in a number of required items that, in fact, the administration had requested that had been early on in the base bill. They include the chemical and biological antiterrorism program for homeland defense, $480 million; command and control, computers and intelligence, KC-135 tanker aircraft, linguists, military construction, war pay, and the list goes on.

So we did leave some flexibility with the administration and we did give some direction. I would simply say that it was because of the hard work of the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. STUMP) and the hard work of the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. SKELTON) and all of the members on our committee, and I think we have heard from several of our very thoughtful Members today on the Democrat side who participated very fully, such as the gentleman from Maine (Mr. ALLEN), I think, and the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. ANDREWS) gave a very full evaluation of what this did.

Once again, the key point that they reiterated was that this money can only go to the military programs that are allowed under the September 14 resolution, and, once again, I want to read that resolution, because this is a base resolution that these dollars are expended under.

The President is authorized to use all necessary and appropriate force against those nations, organizations, or persons he determines planned, authorized, committed, or aided the terrorist attacks that occurred on September 11, 2001, or harbored such organizations or persons in order to prevent any future acts of international terrorism against the United States by such nations or organizations or persons.

So this money is expended only in a manner, and can be expended only in a manner, consistent with that resolution of September 14. I might add, it is simply the last piece of the President's defense budget.

Now, on the other side, the Senate passed the full $393 billion authorized or requested by the President. So they go to conference with a full budget, so to speak, and until tonight, we only go to conference with 383; that is, the budget less the $10 billion piece.

So it was important for us to act quickly. We just got the details on this plan several weeks ago, we marked it up in the Committee on Armed Services in a bipartisan way, and it was important to get this second piece in place to be able to go to conference and do an effective job.

So I want to thank all of the Members that participated in the debate.

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. TERRY). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. HUNTER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 4547, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds of those present have voted in the affirmative.

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.
