

March 31, 1995, President Clinton made a trip to Haiti, the first President to set foot on Haiti since Roosevelt; and President Clinton went to oversee the transition ceremony which reduced and established the pattern for the pullout of all the United States forces and handed over the multinational transition of Haiti Government to the multinational forces of the United Nations.

On April 28, Aristide did the most important thing of his career. He dissolved the Haitian army. If he had not dissolved the Haitian army at that point, we would not be standing here, about the point that he was not re-elected after he gave up his presidency; and he is now the president of Haiti, but he is hated by right-wing forces in this nation, and we determined that he will not let Haiti die.
