STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. WARNER (for himself and Mr. ALLEN):

S. 2029. A bill to convert the temporary judgeship for the eastern district of Virginia to a permanent judgeship, and for other purposes; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce bipartisan, bicameral legislation to help ensure the continued effective administration of justice in the Commonwealth of Virginia. I am joined in the Senate on this initiative by my colleague Senator GEORGE ALLEN. Congressman ROBERT SCOTT is introducing similar legislation today in the House of Representatives.

Simply put, the legislation we are introducing today will convert a temporary judgeship in the Eastern District of Virginia into a permanent one. Without swift passage of this legislation, the Eastern District of Virginia could lose an authorized judgeship, thus placing an even greater workload on the already hard working judges that serve in this judicial district.

By way of background, in 1990, Congress authorized a temporary judgeship for the Eastern District of Virginia, bringing the total number of authorized judgeships in that district to ten, nine permanent judgeships and one temporary judgeship.

In 2000, Congress looked closely at the heavy caseload the judges of the Eastern District of Virginia carried, and as a result Congress authorized one additional permanent judgeship. With the advice of Senator ALLEN and me, President Bush has nominated Mr. Henry Hudson to fill this judicial vacancy. I strongly support Mr. Hudson's nomination and look forward to him receiving a confirmation hearing and a vote in the full Senate. Mr. Hudson has been deemed "well qualified" by the American Bar Association.

Thus, to date, eleven judgeships are currently authorized on the Eastern District of Virginia's bench. However, the temporary judgeship in the Eastern District of Virginia is set to expire with the first vacancy occurring after April 8, 2002. Thus, when one of the active judges on the Eastern District bench retires, takes senior status, or passes away, that position will not be filled, thus leaving the court with one less authorized judgeship than it has currently. It is important to note that Mr. Hudson's nomination will not be effected by the lapsing of the temporary judgeship.

If the temporary judgeship in the Eastern District of Virginia lapses, and this judicial district loses an authorized judgeship, an already overworked judiciary will be without relief.

The Judicial Conference of the United States recommends that a district have a newly authorized judgeship when the weighted filings per judge exceed 430 cases. In 2001, the weighted caseload per judge on the Eastern District was 617. If Virginia's temporary judgeship expires, the per judge weighted caseload would sky-rocket to 679 cases per judge.

Moreover, it is now clear based on experience that the Department of Justice has prosecuted and will continue to prosecute terrorist cases in the Eastern District of Virginia. Already, the Eastern District is proceeding with the cases of Zacaris Moussaoui and John Walker Lindh. While the judges
