CONGRATULATING THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND TERRAPINS

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to S. Res. 233 submitted earlier today by Senators SARBANES and MIKULSKI.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 233) congratulating the University of Maryland Terrapins for winning the 2002 NCAA National Basketball Championship.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. SARBANES. Madam President, one of Aesop's fables tells of the race between the tortoise and the hare. As the story goes, the hare took off at the start of the race at a very swift pace but soon tired, stopped and fell fast asleep. The tortoise, on the other hand, maintained a slow and steady pace and passed the sleeping hare en route to a victory. The moral of the story is "slow but steady wins the race."

Such was the pace to the 2002 NCAA Basketball Championship for the University of Maryland Terrapins. Following a Final Four appearance in last year's NCAA Tournament, expectations were high for this year's team. From the first tip-off last October during Midnight Madness to the final buzzer of this year's championship game, the entire Terrapin team, led by head coach and University of Maryland alumnus Gary Williams, pursued a deliberate and determined course. Their journey culminated on the night of April 1, 2002, when the team won the NCAA Men's Division 1 Basketball Championship.

It is with a deep sense of Maryland pride and pleasure that I rise as the chairman of the Maryland congressional delegation to submit a resolution congratulating the University of Maryland Terrapins for winning the 2002 NCAA National Basketball Championship. My Maryland colleague, Senator BARBARA MIKULSKI, is joining me in this effort and the Maryland House delegation, led by University of Maryland alum, STENY HOYER, is also submitting a similar resolution.

As our resolution highlights, this has been a remarkable run for the men's basketball team. The team won a school record 32 games. They went undefeated at home, including their impressive win over Duke University by a score of 97-73. This year was the last year that the team will play in historic Cole Field House and the season was a fitting tribute to a building that has witnessed so many remarkable games over the years. This year's team continued its home court dominance over non-conference opponents, extending its winning streak to 84 wins, the current longest winning streak in the Nation.

Madam President, please join me in congratulating the Maryland Terrapin team members: senior guard Juan Dixon, the 2002 NCAA Tournament's Most Outstanding Player, the ACC Player of the Year, a First-Team All-American, and a member of the ACC

All-Defensive Team; senior center Lonny Baxter, Most Valuable Player of the East Region, Second Team All-ACC, honorable mention All-American, and a member of the ACC All-Defensive Team; senior forward Byron Mouton, Honorable Mention All-ACC; senior guard Earl Badu; junior guard Steve Blake, named to the Third Team All-ACC, and Honorable Mention All-American; junior forward Tahj Holden; junior guard Drew Nicholas; junior center Ryan Randle; junior guard Calvin McCall; sophomore forward Chris Wilcox, named to the Third Team All-ACC; freshman guard Andre Collins; and freshman forward Mike Grinnon.

On behalf of the State of Maryland, the Maryland congressional delegation and the University of Maryland, I ask my colleagues to join me in acknowledging the outstanding efforts of this amazing group of basketball players, coaches and staff.

Ms. MIKULSKI. Madam President, I rise to pay tribute to the nation's premier men's college basketball team, the University of Maryland Terrapins. I am so proud that our Terps are our national champions. Their victory shows the hard work, perseverance and experience of an amazing team—and the support of an outstanding university. This resolution seeks to celebrate the Terps' victory.

Our Terps have worked so hard to reach these heights, shaping college basketball history as they got here. They are led by a Terrapin who learned about much more than basketball as a student and graduate-assistant in five years at College Park. Coach Gary Williams is that Terrapin—a true leader, a true teacher, and a true Marylander at heart. As ACC Coach of the Year, Coach Williams led the Terps to the regular season ACC title, and their first national championship. But even more important, he has continue to shape the lives of the young men he coaches.

He cares about his players on and off the court. That meant encouraging them in their studies as well as in their sport. He helped them understand the importance of getting their degrees. His success is shown in the fact that four of his players are serious—more than any of their competitors.

These men include this year's dynamic senior class of Earl Badu, Byron Mouton, Lonny Baxter, and Juan Dixon. I am so proud of them because they will all graduate this year, proving that Coach Williams' philosophy of hard work on and off the court works here in Maryland. Their experience was a key factor in their victory.

When Coach Williams recruits and teaches players, he doesn't always look for the flashiest prospects. He works with men he can make into champions. Our Terrapins show that championship spirit on and off the court. And that is what a Maryland education is all about.

The Terrapins' court successes have mirrored the University of Maryland's rise to the pinnacle of the academic world. Our university is a national leader in science, engineering and business.

The Terps had a perfect season during their last year at Cole Field House. The University of Maryland and the entire State is grateful for everything this basketball team has given us.

I ask my colleagues to join me in commending the University of Maryland's Terrapins for being such great winners—both on and off the court.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution and preamble be agreed to en bloc, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements related thereto be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 233) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 233

Whereas the 2002 University of Maryland Terrapins men's basketball team won 32 games, a school record for wins in a season;

Whereas the 2002 Maryland Terrapins were undefeated at home in the last year of play at historic Cole Field House, compiling a home record of 15-0;

Whereas the 2002 Maryland Terrapins continued their dominance over nonconference opponents at home, extending their NCAA record nonconference home winning streak to 84 wins;

Whereas on April 1, 2002 the University of Maryland won the NCAA men's basketball championship, the first ever for the University of Maryland;

Whereas the 2002 Maryland Terrapins, by winning the 2002 NCAA men's basketball championship, became only the 5th NCAA Division I athletic program to have won national championships in both basketball and football;

Whereas senior Juan Dixon was named the most outstanding player of the 2002 NCAA tournament, first team all-American, and Atlantic Coast Conference player of the year;

Whereas senior Lonny Baxter was named the most valuable player in regional play for the second year in a row; and

Whereas in game number 2002 of the University of Maryland men's basketball program, the Terrapins achieved the title of 2002 national champion: Now, therefore, be it
