

ORDERS FOR THURSDAY, APRIL
11, 2002

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until the hour of 10 o'clock tomorrow morning; that immediately following the prayer and the pledge, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate resume consideration of the energy reform bill; further, that at 11:30 a.m., the Senate resume consideration of S. 565, with 30 minutes of debate equally divided between Senators DODD and MCCONNELL, or their designees.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection; it is so ordered.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. REID. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:24 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, April 11, 2002, at 10 a.m.
