

The tract had been known as Sandy Branch, but about 50 years after the purchase, a country store owner named Sampson Selby began to mark packages for delivery "Selby-Ville."

In 1872, the Frankford and Breakwater Railroad reached the Town, so that its strawberries could be shipped to more distant markets. By 1918, Selbyville was the East Coast's main supplier of strawberries, and strawberries remained an important commercial base for the Town through the late 1930s.

Agriculture is still important to Selbyville, although now it's poultry and pork, corn and soybeans that occupy most of the farmers. And the Town has grown beyond its original business center, reaching out to US 113 with service industries and a shopping center.

The highway has become more important than the railroad, Selbyville has grown, but it is still a small Town a place of living history, a place driven by the values that grow from long-time association and the work ethic of an agricultural community, a place that feels like home.

We neighbors of Selbyville congratulate Mayor Clifton C. Murray; Town Council members Jay C. Murray, C. Frank Smith, III, Clarence W. Tingle, Jr., and Richard A. Duncan, Sr.; and all the citizens and friends of the Town, as they look forward to their official 100th anniversary celebration on May 25th.●
