

the United Way of the Greater Seacoast, member of the New Hampshire Bankers Association and member of South Church in Portsmouth. Peter has also served on the Boards of Strawberry Banke and the Manchester Boys and Girls Club.

I commend Peter for his tremendous energy and contributions to the community at large in Dover. In addition to his volunteer service to community groups, he also serves on the Greater Dover Chamber of Commerce Government Affairs and Waterfront Committees.

The City of Dover and the State have benefitted greatly by Peter's efforts and selfless dedication. The citizens of the greater Dover area are most fortunate to have a talented leader and volunteer such as Peter. I congratulate Peter on this well deserved recognition and wish him the very best. It is truly an honor and a privilege to represent him in the United States Senate.●

TRIBUTE TO JACK RICE

● Mr. SARBANES. Mr. President, I rise today to honor an outstanding public servant, John "Jack" Rice for his thirty-six years of exemplary Federal service. As a Marine Machinist General Foreman at the Coast Guard Yard in Baltimore, Jack consistently provided high quality work to the Coast Guard and deserves recognition for his service.

Throughout his long career with the Federal Government, Jack Rice distinguished himself as a highly skilled tradesman who was committed to the Coast Guard and his trade. His vast knowledge and extensive experience as a Marine Machinist made him a valuable source of information for the Coast Guard Yard as it sought to achieve high quality production of Coast Guard ships. Among the many important projects that he made significant contributions to was the design, construction, and procurement of the Yard's 4000HP water brake, a computer-controlled dynamometer. His insight also proved essential to the architects and facility managers that built and outfitted the building that currently houses this equipment.

Jack Rice's innovative approach to his position will be missed. When the Yard's new Machine Shop was in need of additional equipment and tools, Jack diligently reviewed excess equipment lists from other agencies. Through his efforts, the Yard was able to maintain state-of-the-art techniques while simultaneously achieving significant savings for the Coast Guard and the Federal Government.

Jack Rice also played a key role in advocating that the Coast Guard Yard receives the necessary resources from the Federal Government to accomplish its important missions. I was fortunate to have the opportunity to work with Jack on these efforts. The Coast Guard and our country owe him a debt of gratitude for helping to ensure that the Coast Guard is adequately prepared to defend our coastlines, particularly during these difficult times.

In addition to his service to the Coast Guard, Jack has contributed endless hours to promoting the development of skilled tradesmen. In particular, as Chairman of the Baltimore City Public Schools Manufacturing Advisory Committee, he advised the school system about the latest trade technology and provided valuable suggestions to the Board as it developed a curriculum that would effectively prepare students for a career involving a trade. He also played a key role in the organization of the job and information fairs that have been extremely successful at informing students and their parents about the need for skilled labor and the benefits of selecting a career in the trades.

For 36 years, Jack Rice exemplified the Coast Guard Yard's motto, "Service to the Fleet". Without a doubt, he played a large part in helping the Yard earn its reputation as a top quality workforce which produces top quality products.

It is my firm conviction that public service is one of the most honorable callings, one that demands the very best, most dedicated efforts of those who have the opportunity to serve their fellow citizens and country. Throughout his career, Jack Rice has exemplified a steadfast commitment to meeting this demand. I extend my personal congratulations and thanks for his many years of hard work and dedication and wish him well in the years ahead.●

MAGGIE L. WALKER GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL OF RICHMOND, VA

● Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, on May 4 through 6, 2002 more than 1200 students from across the United States will visit Washington, D.C. to compete in the national finals of the "We the People . . ." The Citizen and the Constitution program, administered by the Center for Civic Education. "We the People" is the most extensive educational program in the country developed specifically to educate young people about the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

I am proud to announce that the class from Maggie L. Walker Governor's School from Richmond will represent the Commonwealth of Virginia in this national event. These young Virginians have worked diligently to reach the national finals and through their experience have gained a deep knowledge and understanding of the fundamental principles and values of our constitutional democracy.

The 3-day national competition is modeled after hearings in the United States Congress. The hearings consist of oral presentations by high school students before a panel of adult judges on constitutional topics. The students' testimony is followed by a period of questioning by the judges who probe their depth of understanding and ability to apply their constitutional knowledge.

The class from Maggie L. Walker Governor's School is currently conducting research and preparing for their upcoming participation in the national competition in Washington, D.C. I wish these young "constitutional experts" the best of luck at the "We the People . . ." national finals. They represent the future leaders of our Nation.●

WHITNEY R. HARRIS INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL LEGAL STUDIES

● Mrs. CARNAHAN. Mr. President later today, Washington University, in St. Louis, MO, will be dedicating the Whitney R. Harris Institute for Global Legal studies. This Institute is a fitting tribute to a man who has devoted his life to the concept of international law.

As a young naval officer, Mr. Harris was selected to join the team of 24 U.S. prosecutors during the trial of Nazi war criminals at Nuremberg because of his expertise in German intelligence matters. The trial was without precedent in legal history. For his services at Nuremberg, Harris was awarded the Legion of Merit, the Highest decoration received by any trial counsel.

As Mr. Harris said, "Because of Nuremberg—and the effort which it represents of man's attempt to elevate justice and law over inhumanity and war—there is hope for a better tomorrow." The importance of Mr. Harris' work cannot be overstated.

In the 50 years since Nuremberg, Mr. Harris has championed human rights through international law. In 1954, Mr. Harris wrote "Tyranny Trial," in which he distills the massive documentary evidence presented at the historic trial to provide a meticulous look at Hitler's rise to power and the Nazi planning and execution of war crimes. His book explores the relationship between law and war and discusses the precedent Nuremberg set for international human rights law.

The mission statement of the Institute for Global Legal Studies says: "We live in a truly global age. People, goods, services, information, and capital flow freely across international boundaries. From the Internet, e-mail, fax machines to travel, migration, commerce, and foreign relations, the story of the new millennium will be our ever shrinking planet. The world's problems—and the problems entrusted to lawyers—will increasingly require international cooperation and international solutions." The Whitney R. Harris Institute for Global Legal Studies will train men and women to follow in Mr. Harris' footsteps, guiding us through this new global age.●

TRIBUTE TO KERRY FORBES

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Kerry Forbes of Dover, NH, on being named as the 2002 Citizen of the Year by the Greater Dover Chamber of Commerce.

A true champion of the community at large, Kerry has been involved in numerous volunteer programs including: member of the Dover Economic Commission that oversaw the creation of the Enterprise Industrial Park and the creation of the Dover Economic Development Loan Fund, volunteer counselor at the Seaborn Hospital, board member of the Strafford Rivers Conservancy, member of the Greater Dover Chamber of Commerce, member Board of Directors of the Dover Main Street Program and member of the Dover Rotary Club.

The citizens of the greater Dover area and the State have benefitted greatly by Kerry's efforts and talents. I commend Kerry for the exemplary leadership and spirit of service which he has consistently exhibited while serving his community and congratulate him for this prestigious recognition. It is truly an honor and a privilege to represent him in the United States Senate.●
