

the Estonian cultural heritage. For 50 years, it has provided an independent voice for the Estonian people in their successful campaign for human rights and democracy in their homeland.

The Estonian American National Council combined the strong spirits of America and Estonia in its fight for Estonian independence. Forcibly annexed and occupied by the Soviet Union in 1940, Estonians could not speak freely for themselves in their own homeland. But as the leader of the free world, the United States never recognized the Soviet Union's oppressive regimes in Estonia or its Baltic neighbors, Latvia, and Lithuania. So with the start of the cold war, Americans of Estonian descent established their own organization. Half a century later, I visited Estonia. I was so happy to see the tremendous strides the country was making toward developing its democratic and market-based systems. Estonia is proving its abilities through high-tech initiatives in everything from cellular phones to paperless government. I also appreciate the Baltic States' renewed senses of culture while respecting the rights of Russian-speaking minorities.

As a founding member of the Senate Baltic Freedom Caucus, I applaud the work of the Estonian American National Council, a critical member of the Joint Baltic American National Committee. Together, America, Estonia and the other Baltic States are doing all they can in the war against terrorism. With America's support, Estonia, Lithuania, and Latvia are already contributing to our mutual security by developing modern armed forces, air surveillance systems, and participating in peacekeeping activities. I believe Estonia and its Baltic partners will make a wonderful contribution to NATO.

Since Estonia achieved independence in 1991, the Estonian American National Council has been instrumental in bringing America and Estonia together to make both countries more secure. The council has funded scholarships, schools, cultural activities, youth programs and exchange missions that have enhanced the ties that it began to build between America and Estonia many years ago. I am proud of the partnerships Maryland had built with Estonia through our National Guard and their Armed Forces, and the trade between our great cities and ports.

Everywhere I look, America's interest in strengthening its ties with Estonia and the other Baltic States is growing. I congratulate the council on its 50th anniversary, and I send my best wishes to the Estonia American community in Maryland and nationwide. You can count on me to continue to help promote a closer and more comprehensive relationship between the United States and Estonia. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Estonian American National Council on its contributions to America and Estonia for the last 50 years.●

LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ACT OF 2001

● Mr. SMITH of Oregon. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about hate crimes legislation I introduced with Senator KENNEDY in March of last year. The Local Law Enforcement Act of 2001 would add new categories to current hate crimes legislation sending a signal that violence of any kind is unacceptable in our society.

I would like to describe a terrible crime that occurred September 17, 1997, in Chicago, IL. Two minors pushed a gay man down a flight of stairs because of his sexual orientation. The assailants used anti-gay obscenities during the attack.

I believe that government's first duty is to defend its citizens, to defend them against the harms that come out of hate. The Local Law Enforcement Enhancement Act of 2001 is now a symbol that can become substance. I believe that by passing this legislation and changing current law, we can change hearts and minds as well.●
