Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That Congress recognizes and commends—

(1) Mary Baker Eddy for her outstanding achievements and contributions, particularly her contributions to the advancement of women's rights as a public figure and role model in the early stages of the women's rights movement; and

(2) the Mary Baker Eddy Library for the Betterment of Humanity, which will open to the public on September 29, 2002.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, it is a privilege to submit, on behalf of myself, Senator CLINTON and Senator HUTCHISON, a concurrent resolution to recognize the achievements of Mary Baker Eddy and the opening of the Mary Baker Eddy Library for the Betterment of Humanity. The Library, which officially opens to the public on September 29, will provide public access to the Mary Baker Eddy papers, one of the largest collections of primary source material by and about an American woman.

The Library will provide invaluable insight to Mary Baker Eddy's remarkable life and serve as an important resource for scholars, researchers and the public. Its mission will sustain her powerful legacy that ideas can inspire individuals, empower them and transform their lives.

The Mary Baker Eddy Library, a facility encompassing over 80,000 square feet, will be a dynamic meeting place for people to explore ideas through its on-site and on-line educational experiences, programs and exhibits. So, too, its unique Mapparium will once again be available to visitors to the Library. The collections consist of over 100,000 documents, artifacts, photographs and other media that chronicle the development of Mary Baker Eddy's ideas and offer an unparalleled resource for scholars in women's history, spirituality and journalism.

The Library's effort to release previously unpublished materials in the Mary Baker Eddy Collections to the public will enrich our understanding of her extraordinary achievements. In conjunction with this facility in Boston, the Library will also establish an Institute for the Rediscovery and Preservation of the History of Women in Seneca Falls, New York, the birthplace of the first Women's Rights Convention, in order to showcase research on the forgotten histories of women and offer a wide range of educational programs for students.

I am pleased to submit this resolution to recognize this outstanding woman and the richness of her accomplishments. I would also like to congratulate Virginia Harris for her efforts to ensure that the Mary Baker Eddy Library became a reality and for her tireless energy and visionary leadership as Chairman of the Board of the Christian Science Church.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONS

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, let me begin tonight with a quote from Federalist Paper No. 37, January 11, 1789, by James Madison.

It is misfortune, inseparable from human affairs, that public measures are rarely investigated with that spirit of moderation which is essential to a just estimate of their real tendency to advance or obstruct the public good.

James Madison believed then it would always be very hard to investigate events and do it in such a way, in moderation and without partisanship, that the public would be able to find out what really happened and then determine what should be done in the future to keep it from happening again—to advance the good or obstruct the bad.

Another quote goes from an anonymous source goes something along the lines of: If God had created a commission to establish Heaven and Earth, we wouldn't be here today.

Mr. President, my own experiences with commissions over 30 years in Congress have not been good. I view Congressional commissions as an abdication of responsibility. What are we for? Why do we have an Armed Services Committee, an Intelligence Committee, a Governmental Affairs Committee, or a Foreign Affairs Committee?

It seems to me that we in Congress should do the work of reviewing the laws and overseeing the agencies and the various departments. Are they serving the public the right way? In a responsible way? Or is there an abdication of responsibility and duty by the various administrations in charge of running our government?

One of the reasons I have never supported BRAC, the various base closure commissions, is that when we create those commissions we are basically saying: We do not have the courage to do it; do not let us know what is going on; shove it off on a commission and let them do it.

But in the past closing excess bases had always been handled without a commission after every previous war. However, about 20 or 25 years ago Congress started to say: No, we cannot do that, we will not do it.

In the past after previous wars how was the military scaled down? Pentagon officials and other administration officials—after World War I, after World War II, after the Korean war—would send recommendations to the Congress regarding excess capacity and bases they felt were no longer needed. And unless Congress blocked it, the bases were closed. I bet every State in the Nation still has bases left over from World War II. In my own State, we had bases in Hattiesburg, in Greenville, MS, and Greenwood, MS. Some of the finest airport runways in our State are the very sturdy concrete runways that were built during World War II for air training facilities.

Congress simply acted and then the administration acted. Then powerful members of Congress started saying: No, you cannot close my base; close someone else's base. That is what ultimately led to the creation of commissions.

I have no doubt about the integrity and the good intentions of Senator LIEBERMAN and Senator MCCAIN with their proposal to create an independent commission to investigate September 11, 2001. How did that attacks happen, where were the failures, and how can we avoid repeating them. I know these two men. They are men of good faith that feel so strongly about our country they want this to be a positive thing. They envision some commission of grand pooh-bahs and gray eminences that will assemble and give us the benefit of their great wisdom, men and women who have been in the Government, been in the intelligence community, been in Congress, and thus could do the country a great service.

Mr. President, the track record of that happening is unfortunately very poor. As with all commissions, there are fundamental problems with this commission. Of course, we are now in the second iteration of how this commission would be set up and I presume there will be a third and a fourth. I presume the House will have yet a different version after they go through their iterations of a commission. And then the Administration has concerns that will have to be addressed as well.
