BUSINESS OF THE SENATE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, we have had another unproductive day. As you know, we are starting the fifth week on homeland security and the Interior appropriations bill. As I said a few weeks ago, it appears the other side does not want us to pass these two bills, and they are accomplishing what they set out to do. We are not doing the work of the country.

As the Presiding Officer knows, we have lost 2 million jobs in the last 18 months. We have had the weakest economic growth in some 50 years. Business investment has been down in each of the last six quarters, the weakest trend in 50 years. There has been a $4.5 trillion loss in stock market wealth, the sharpest decline since President Hoover—$440 billion lost in 401(k) and IRA retirement savings this past year—and the median family income was down last year, the first decrease in 12 years. The Nasdaq stock exchange was down to its lowest level in 6 years. Of course, it dropped again today. The Dow Jones dropped again today. The poverty rate is up for the first time in 10 years.

We have a lot of problems with the economy, and we are not addressing them. We are focused on Iraq. I have no problem focusing on Iraq, but we can focus on more than one issue, and we have not done that. I do not think that is good for the people of the State I represent, the people the Presiding Officer represents, or anyplace else in the country.

I hope we can change direction from what we are doing now.

A FOND FAREWELL

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I came to the Congress 10 years ago. One of the people with whom I came was BOB TORRICELLI. He and I have been friends for 20 years now. I didn't know him before he and I were elected to the House of Representatives. Today, he announced he was not going to continue in his election, and I feel terrible about it. It shows the class he has. I talked to Senator TORRICELLI this afternoon. He recognizes the Senate seat in New Jersey is more important than him. As a result of that, he knows it would be better for the institution, the Senate, that he not continue in his election contest.

For me, the memories of having served with this fine man are very significant. The work he did first as the assistant to Senator BOB KERRY's campaign committee and then as chairman of the campaign committee will be written in the history books. He did the impossible. He did what only he said could be done. Most of us did not believe he could do what he did, and that is elect all the Democrats he was responsible for because he made us competitive. He was a voracious fundraiser.

I extend my best wishes to BOB TORRICELLI. I congratulate him for the 20 years of service to the State of New Jersey and the country as a Member of the U.S. Congress. I do hope his great talents will be used. He is a fine speaker. He has a great mind. His knowledge of foreign affairs is unsurpassed.

He and I served together on that committee in the House of Representatives. I wish I had words to describe the affection I have for Senator TORRICELLI and the expression I would like to make of the courage he showed this afternoon.

REMOVAL OF INJUNCTION OF SECRECY—TREATY DOCUMENT NO. 107-17

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the injunction of secrecy be removed from the following treaty transmitted to the Senate on September 30, 2002, by the President of the United States:

Partial Revision of Radio Regulations (Treaty Document No. 107-17).

I further ask the treaty be considered as having been read the first time; that it be referred, with accompanying papers, to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed; and that the President's message be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The President's message is as follows:

To the Senate of the United States:

With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith the 1992 Partial Revision of the Radio Regulations (Geneva, 1979), with appendices, signed by the United States at Malaga-Torremolinos on March 3, 1992 (the "1992 Partial Revision"), together with declarations and reservations of the United States as contained in the Final Acts of the World Administrative Radio Conference for Dealing with Frequency Allocations in Certain Parts of the Spectrum (WARC-92). I transmit also, for the information of the Senate, the report of the Department of State concerning these revisions.

The 1992 Partial Revision, which was adopted at WARC-92, constitutes a revision of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) Radio Regulations (Geneva, 1979), as revised, to which the United States is a party. It provides for additional spectrum for new or expanding telecommunication services, primarily terrestrial and satellite broadcasting, terrestrial and satellite mobile and space services and is consistent with the proposals and positions taken by the United States at the conference.

Subject to the U.S. declarations and reservations mentioned above, I believe that the United States should become a party to the 1992 Partial Revision, which provides additional spectrum for existing and new telecommunication services in which the United States plays a significant leadership role. It is my hope that the Senate will take early action on this matter and give its advice and consent to ratification.

GEORGE W. BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, September 30, 2002.
