IN HONOR OF MICHAEL LEGGIERO

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Michael Leggiero for his leadership and dedication to the North Hudson Community Action Corporation. Mr. Leggiero was honored with the Louis T. Scialli Memorial Award by the United Way of Hudson County on September 16, 2003, at the Crown Plaza Hotel in Secaucus, New Jersey.

As President and CEO of the North Hudson Community Action Corporation, Mr. Leggiero's vision and leadership has helped make the organization the largest and one of the most highly regarded community organizations in Hudson County. The North Hudson Community Action Corporation is currently the largest provider of health and social services in the county and serves as a model for the quality of services it provides the community.

Mr. Leggiero first came to the North Hudson Community Action Corporation in 1971. Through his hard work and communal spirit, Mr. Leggiero assumed directorship in 1978. At that time, the North Hudson Community Action Corporation administered seven programs, which served 5,000 residents per year. After 25 years under Mr. Leggiero's leadership, the North Hudson Community Action Corporation now runs 20 programs that serve over 55,000 Hudson County residents each year.

Mr. Leggiero's foresight and understanding of community issues has been a great asset to the North Hudson Community Action Corporation. Mr. Leggiero helped create a state-of-the-art community health center, which now provides care and assistance to over 2,000 patients each week. In 1996, Mr. Leggiero spearheaded the production of 49 new affordable housing units and just recently completed a similar venture, which provided the North Hudson community with 37 new housing units.

Michael Leggiero is a lifetime resident of Union City, where he lives with his wife Lois. An active member of his church, Mr. Leggiero is known for his love and dedication to his congregation, with whom he shares a commitment to giving back to the community.

Today, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Michael Leggiero for his outstanding leadership and service to the people of Hudson County.

TRIBUTE TO THE INSTITUTE FOR THE PUERTO RICAN/HISPANIC ELDERLY, INC.

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to pay tribute to The Institute for the Puerto Rican/Hispanic Elderly, Inc., an organization dedicated to improving the lives of low income minority seniors and their families in the city of New York. This invaluable organization will celebrate its 25th anniversary on Friday, October 3, 2003.

The Institute for the Puerto Rican/Hispanic Elderly, Inc., was founded in 1978 to remove communication and other service barriers that separated Puerto Rican and Hispanic seniors from their rights and entitlements under the law. Today, the Institute is the premier Hispanic non-profit organization serving New York City's ethnic minority seniors and their families, with the mission to improve their quality of life.

Serving more than 140,000 seniors annually, the institute's services are delivered in a citywide complex of offices, facilities, programs and senior centers. In addition, the Institute has four subsidiaries: El Cemi Houses, which provides affordable housing for homeless seniors; the Institute Home Care Services; the licensed Innovative Home Health Care Systems; and Clinica Nueva Esperanza, a mental health clinic for seniors.

The Institute also serves as an important resource for non-profits, government agencies and businesses, providing technical assistance and consultation in areas such as management training, culturally responsive service delivery, and access to minority communities.

Mr. Speaker, under the leadership of Suleika Cabrera Drinane, this fine institution has helped to provide essential and quality services to the low income minority seniors of New York City for a quarter of a century. Because of its pioneering and outstanding work, the Institute has received awards and recognitions from city, state, and federal agencies, as well as by other organizations in the community.

For their long standing commitment to the disadvantaged seniors of New York City, I ask that my colleagues join me in honoring the Institute for the Puerto Rican/Hispanic Elderly, Inc., on their 25th Anniversary.

IN MEMORY OF BILLIE LOU "PEACHES" PARKER BROOKSHIRE

HON. RALPH M. HALL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, earlier this year the citizens of Tyler, Texas, lost one of their dearest and most influential members, Billie Lou "Peaches" Parker Brookshire, who passed away at the age of 72 following a lengthy illness.

The Brookshire family has long been known in the Tyler area for their many contributions to East Texas—with Peaches being a central figure in their philanthropy. Peaches was actively involved in numerous worthy causes, including the Salvation Army Center of Hope, Junior League of Tyler, Tyler Junior Garden Club, American Cancer Society, Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Trinity Mother Frances Hospital, Green Acres Baptist Church, All Saints Episcopal School, Grace Community School and Hospice of East Texas. In all that she did and with all whom she met, she brought enthusiasm, compassion, a positive attitude and a legendary sense of humor. Peaches also was an accomplished artist. Several of her paintings were recently donated to the Tyler Cancer Center to encourage patients receiving treatment there.

Above all Peaches was a devoted wife to her husband and partner of 53 years, Bruce, whom she met while attending the University of Texas at Austin, and a loving and loyal mother and mother-in-law to Tim and Michelle and to Britt and Sunni. She was known endearingly as "honey" to her nine grandchildren: Amy, Clint, Garnett, Blake, Chad, Ross, Caroline, Emma and Bruce, Jr. Clint Brookshire ably served as my Congressional Assistant in Washington, D.C., and later as District Assistant in my Rockwall, TX, office, before pursuing another career in Dallas. He was a valued and well-liked member of my staff and remains my good friend. Peaches maintained a close relationship with Decie Brookshire, mother of Clint and the two other eldest grandchildren. She also leaves behind her two dear sisters and their husbands, Kay and Darrold Cannon Jr. and Judy and Ray Clymer Jr. of Wichita Falls; her mother-in-law and lifelong friend, Mrs. Louise Brookshire of Tyler; numerous nieces and nephews; and caregivers Jeanell and Jesse Richardson of Tyler.

Peaches was the daughter of William Gar-nett Parker and Opal Louise Parker of Wichita Falls. She attended Midwestern State University and the University of Texas at Austin, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Her grandfather, C.H. Parker, opened Parker Food Stores in Wichita Falls in the 1920s, the same time that her father-in-law, W.T. Brookshire, was opening his first Brookshire's Grocery Store in Tyler.

I have known Peaches and Bruce and their family for many years and have loved and admired them for their ability to so ably balance work, family and community commitments. They are one of the outstanding families in the Fourth Congressional District—and their efforts have helped so many in their community. In recognition of their many significant contributions, Peaches and Bruce were named the recipients of the 2002 Isadore Roosth Outstanding Philanthropist Award in Tyler.

Peaches was devoted to her family, her faith, and her community—and was a model of grace, goodness, and good humor. She was a friend and an inspiration to so many—and she will be fondly remembered by all those who knew her and loved her. Mr. Speaker, it is a privilege today for me to pay tribute to an exemplary woman and outstanding citizen of East Texas who made an indelible impression on all those who met her—Peaches Parker Brookshire. She will be dearly missed.

HONORING REV. PAUL D. KENNEDY

HON. JAMES P. MCGOVERN

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Reverend Paul D. Kennedy, pastor at the All Saints Episcopal Church in Worcester, Massachusetts and to recognize his achievement as the first ever recipient of the Children's Friends Inc. Ambassadors Award. I am proud of Rev. Kennedy's services.

The Children's Friend Inc. was established in 1849 by a group of concerned Worcester citizens to provide a "safe home" for the city's most vulnerable children: the orphaned, the abandoned, and the neglected children. The central mission of Children's Friend's is "to promote the emotional, social and physical health of a needy and diverse population of children and to advocate of their rights."

The Children's Friend Inc. Ambassadors Award was established to honor a diplomatic official of the highest rank appointed and accredited to represent an organization's permanent mission to the community. Rev. Kennedy first became involved with the Children's Friend Inc. in 1993 and served on the organization's Board of Directors from 1994 to 2002. He was presented with this award because of his tireless and continued effort to advocate for the well being and welfare of children. This is a testimony to the power that one individual can utilize to benefit the lives of many.

In addition to this achievement, Rev. Kennedy has served the Massachusetts Lutheran and Episcopalian community in a distinguished manner for well over 20 years. After graduating from Harvard Divinity school and the Hama School of Theology at Wittenberg College, Rev. Kennedy began his career as a pastor at the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Gloucester, Massachusetts. Since then, he has actively and impressively represented his own congregations and the greater church community through the numerous positions. Some of his many outstanding contributions include serving as delegate to the Lutheran Church in America Convention four times and holding a variety of positions for the Lutheran Service Association, and the Lutheran Social Service of New England.

Rev. Kennedy's commitment to social service and human welfare is extensive. He sat on the American Red Cross Board of Directors, and served as President of the Worcester Chapter of the American Cancer Society. He was a member of the Board of Trustees at Upsala College and currently sits on the Board of Trustees at Endicott College.

Mr. Speaker, I am certain that the entire U.S. House of Representatives joins me in congratulating Rev. Kennedy for this high honor.

100 YEARS OF UNITED STATES-BULGARIAN DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

HON. DOUG BEREUTER

OF NEBRASKA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, last Thursday while Washington was consumed with the arrival of hurricane Isabel, a significant celebration was taking place in Sofia, Bulgaria.

On September 18, the United States and Bulgaria marked the 100th anniversary of diplomatic relations between our two countries.

Since the fall of the Berlin Wall, Bulgaria has worked hard to build a stable democracy and to provide its people the very freedoms we have for so long taken for granted in this country. The people of Bulgaria should be proud of what they have accomplished over this past 13 years.

Bulgaria has also worked to reaffirm and strengthen its friendship with the United States. Bulgaria has worked with us to promote stability and peace in the Balkans by providing peacekeeping forces in Bosnia and Kosovo.

After the tragedy of September 11, 2001, Bulgaria was among the very first countries to denounce terrorism and pledge active support to the United States in the fight against global terrorism. Bulgaria supported Operation Enduring Freedom and the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) in Afghanistan and is presently providing 500 infantry soldiers to the Iraq stabilization force.

Mr. Speaker, in closing, on the occasion of this 100th anniversary of United States-Bulgarian diplomatic relations, it is appropriate to reflect on this important relationship and to dedicate ourselves to promoting good relations for the next 100 years.

HONORING ST. JOSEPH PARISH ON THE OCCASION OF THEIR 150TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. CHRIS CHOCOLA

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. CHOCOLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Rev. Michael Couhig, CSC, and the congregation of Holy Cross on the 150th anniversary of the founding of St. Joseph Parish by the congregation.

St. Joseph is South Bend, Indiana's oldest Catholic worshipping community. Initially called St. Alexis Chapel, it was established by Rev. Edward F. Sorin, CSC, as a mission chapel of Notre Dame.

Since that time, the congregation has treasured history.

The first building, which was both a chapel and a school, was erected in 1853 in the community of Lowell, at what is now the intersection of Hill and LaSalle streets.

By the next year, the Sisters of the Holy Cross were teaching children in the tiny building. In 1866, that first structure was replaced with a larger building named the Church of the Assumption.

The second church building burned to the ground in 1872. A third church was built nearby on the present site of St. Joseph Medical Center. By 1881, when the cornerstone for the fourth church was laid on the current site, the parish was known as Saint Joseph, and Lowell had been absorbed by the city of South Bend. The parish thrived, welcoming French, English, Irish, Italians, Southeast Asians, and all others as they came. Because of structural weaknesses, the handsome old Gothic church had to be demolished, and the current church was erected in 1965. St. Joe's current parish registration numbers over 720 families.

As the parish grew, so did their school. The school expanded into Assumption Academy, a boarding and day school, which in 1886 was replaced by a larger two-story building. By 1926, that structure was overflowing, and the present school was built. Since that time, the school's high standards have remained unchanged. St. Joseph School is the oldest continuously operating school in the city of South Bend, Indiana, and their building was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1999.

Mr. Speaker, I commend Rev. Couhig and his parishioners for contributing to the spiritual, educational, and economic development of the Michiana community for the past 150 years.

TRIBUTE TO RALPH SAMPLE

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise before this body of Congress and this nation today to pay tribute to the life and memory of Ralph Sample who recently passed away at the age of 85. A lifelong resident of New Castle, Colorado, Ralph was an enterprising and hard working man who was extensively involved in his community. I am honored to pay tribute to his memory here today.

Ralph was born in Glenwood Springs in 1917. Later in life, Ralph settled with his wife Edna in his native Glenwood Springs, where they farmed, raised cattle and sheep, and Ralph operated Sample's Jersey Dairy. In addition to farming and ranching, Ralph was an entrepreneur. He helped to establish both the Glenwood Insurance Agency & Realty and Valley Realty.

Many community groups benefited from Ralph's participation. He was extensively involved with the Glenwood Springs Masonic Lodge as a member of both the York Rite and the Scottish Rite. Ralph was also an active community leader with the Glenwood Springs Rotary Club and the Elk Creek Grange No. 415. He devoted countless hours to their many philanthropic pursuits.

Mr. Speaker, I join with my colleagues in extending my deepest sympathies to the family of Ralph Sample. His hard work and civic-mindedness stand as a shining example of the spirit of Colorado. While Ralph has passed on, his legacy will live on with all those who knew him. I am honored to recognize his life and passing here today.

HONORING MAESTRO ENRIQUE DIEMECKE

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I ask the House of Representatives to join me in congratulating Maestro Enrique Diemecke as he begins his fifteenth year as the Music Director and Principal Conductor of the Flint Symphony Orchestra. Maestro Diemecke will be honored for his service at a dinner on October 4th.

Enrique Diemecke became an integral part of the Flint musical community in 1988. An internationally recognized musician and maestro, he is considered to be one of the best young maestros working in the world today. His list of accomplishments is extensive. After studying at Catholic University in Washington, DC, and the Pierre Monteux School for Advanced Conductors he embarked upon a musical career that spans several continents. He has served to the delight of audiences as the conductor for orchestras in North America, Europe, New Zealand and South America. His sublime interpretation of both classical composers and emerging talents have won rave reviews everywhere he performs.

His musical endeavors have not been limited to live performance. Maestro Diemecke has recorded several pieces of music. He won
