

REGARDING WASHINGTON STATE
PROFESSOR OF THE YEAR DR.
TERRY L. MARTIN

HON. DOC HASTINGS

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 14, 2003

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor Dr. Terry Martin who has been named the Washington State Professor of the year by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

Each year outstanding professors are honored by the Carnegie Foundation and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education for their service as models of excellence in undergraduate instruction. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the 2003 Washington State award winner, Dr. Terry Martin, an English professor at Central Washington University. Clearly, Dr. Martin has demonstrated her dedication to teaching and her students.

Dr. Martin has been honored for her commitment to academic excellence in the classroom and her contribution to the education community. She has published over 35 articles in professional journals, judged numerous writing and poetry contests, served as a member of the Washington State Steering Committee for Improving Undergraduate Education, and served as a State Board member for the Washington Council of Teachers of English.

Thank you for the opportunity to recognize Dr. Martin. Her innovation and commitment to teaching has clearly had a tremendous impact on the lives of her students and colleagues, and serves as an example of excellence in education.
